Still Aligning After 75 Years

COLLEEN BRUNNER

news@bellefourchebeacon.com

BELLE FOURCHE – It may be a little hard to follow how the son of a coal truck driver got to be a fixture in the town of Belle Fourche, but for anyone who has pulled their vehicle onto the racks for an alignment or other service from Lindstad's Alignment in Belle Fourche, they have probably heard the story. And they have probably heard that story, because this man loves to chat.

Wayne Lindstad, 89-years-old, and still going strong, heads to the shop at 501 5th Avenue, once or even twice a day, according to daughter Sherry Drole. Lindstad and daughters Sherry, Wendy Carr, Sue Cramer and in the past, son Dean, have spent countless hours in the shop, helping to serve the people of the Tri-State area. "I've had a really good life," said Lindstad recently, as he sat in the office area of the business. Sherry and Wendy continue the generational link, doing the bookwork for the business. They learned how from their grandmother Lucille. At one point, Dean's son Andy also worked in the shop. "We have customers who have become good friends, and we've been blessed. We take a sense of pride that people encourage others to come."

The business actually began in 1945 when Wayne's father, Emil (Lindy) and mother Lucille moved to the area after his father used the town as a stop-off point between Lemmon and Newcastle, Wyo. on his coal truck runs. Following his leaving behind the trucking business, Emil bought into the John Deere dealership and started doing alignments. He and his wife owned and operated the Belle Motel. They also sold Kaiser/Frazer cars as the Lindstad Motors and in 1949 they were the local Packard dealer in a facility located close to Roosevelt school.

Wayne started at the business in 1940. "I used to sweep the floors and stuff," said Wayne. He graduated from high school in 1950 and graduated from Automotive Training in October of 1950 from the Bear Service school. In 1951 he joined the Coast Guard for a two-year stint.

During his time running the business Wayne invented a new repair kit, the track bar kit, to help with working in the business. "It's kind of like a tie rod," said Lindstad. "I've sold them all over the U.S. It's patented." The track-bar adjustable-end repair kit is available for 1994-2002 Dodge pickups and 1985-1998 Jeeps. When the track ball-joint end wears, the kit is installed at a fraction of the cost of replacing the complete rod. The kit is adjustable, which compensates for any future wear. They can be ordered at the shop.

Currently the business is under the management of John Zeestraten, who has worked in the shop for over 16 years. "His dad worked for me before that," said Lindstad. Rich Green, who later opened Green's Alignment in Belle Fourche, also worked for Lindstad's. Other former and current employees include Janice Helmer, Dan Dingaman, Betsy Morely, and Paul Conley.

The company continues to provide quality service to long-time customers and those who venture in for the first time. The shop is located at 501 5th Avenue and Faulk Street, diagonally across from Randy's Discount Tire which is Wayne's daughter, Sherry and her husband Randy's business. You can contact the business at 605-892-4776 or 800-432-0017 or visit the website at lindstadalignment.com.

As for this reporter, who visited the shop as a child, since it was just in the next building to H & B Tractor, run by my uncle, Henry Hespe, the place is still pretty familiar. I remember looking up at the Bear Alignment icon on the side of the building, a site that is still in evidence today. If you're looking for generations of experience in the alignment business, just look for the Bear.

Leadership Training For Mental Health

news@bellefourchebeacon.com

With our local extension leader, Michelle May, as the only person west-river that has been trained in Teen Mental Health, it might be an interesting immediate future, if the local area decides they want more people, including students, trained in this essential need. "This could be a full-time position for me," said May at a recent county commission meeting. "I will have to be very careful in scheduling my time." May said this training is so important to both the area and to mental health, especially for teens. The statistics about mental health among teens is staggering. One in five teens has had a serious mental health disorder at some point in their lives, according to the National Council for Behavioral Health (NCBH). And 50 percent of all mental illnesses begin by age 14 with 75 percent by the mid-20's, and suicide is the second leading cause of death for 15- to 24-year-olds.

May has had training in learning how to identify, understand and respond to mental health of teens, training students to be aware of their peers. "It is so new, the most successful outcomes are when schools, principals, guidance counselors, and health teachers, are involved," said May. May said that the Newell school staff has been trained and that she has about 15 youth trained in the Belle Fourche system. She currently is working with potential Covid funding to help with the 8-hour training. "It gives them immediate skills so that if something comes up, they know what to do. It gives them confidence and the tools to respond." May said she is approaching administrators now to set up trainings. Nothing has been solidified yet, but she plans to start with at least two schools in the fall. She is hoping for a grant that will cover up to 40 youth with 4-H Junior Leaders.

The Youth Mental Health First Aid also teaches adults with similar material as that for youth. It covers discussing common signs/symptoms/substance use, common signs of a mental health crisis and addresses in-depth how to respond to suicide. But there is still much stigma and myth

Obituaries

Kay Davis 71

Kay Marie Davis, 71, of Nisland passed away unexpectedly on April 27, 2021 at Monument Health Spearfish Hospital.

She was born January 30, 1950 in Aberdeen, South Dakota to John and Anne (Feist) Most. She graduated from Belle Fourche High School in 1968. She attended college at both BHSU and Northern State University in Aberdeen. She wanted to teach math; she was the family mathematician; oftentimes assisting Rick with angles and various calculations in his work and home projects or Channa or Karlei with homework. Kay didn't complete her college degree but instead went home to take care of her family when her sister, Sondra became ill because that's who Kay was; selfless and unimaginably giving when it came to others' needs.

Kay married Rick Davis on June 20, 1972 at St. Paul Catholic Church in Belle Fourche. To this union, a daughter Channa was born. Kay held many jobs throughout her life; she worked at the Tastee Freez in Belle Fourche, she babysat, she drove bus, she was a night auditor, a tax preparer and a bookkeeper. Her longest stretch of employment where she met many lifelong friends she would call family up until the time of her death, was 22 years at Walmart in Gillette, WY.

In her younger years she participated in half-court basketball and fast-pitch softball. As she got older she enjoyed slow-pitch softball, bowling, playing cards and was always up for a board game. She loved her flowers and riding in her side-by-side, camping and SOCIALIZING. The impact she had on anyone she met wasn't easily forgotten. Kay posted on Facebook regularly and shared many inspirational devotions as well as loving posts to let her friends and family know how much she loved and cared for them. Kay was a patriot; her favorite colors were red, white and blue. The 4th of July was her favorite holiday. Kay always said she wasn't a good cook but her family and friends called her often for her recipes, of which she would just say "you know I don't measure and I used what I had." She loved to read and play games on her Kindle. She was lady luck at the slot machines. Kay loved to travel; she went to Germany with Channa to be with Rick while he was in the Army. She traveled to California, Arizona and Pennsylvania to see Amish country. She traveled to Las Vegas with Rick to go to the NFR for many years. It wasn't unusual for Kay to travel to one of Channa's college volleyball or basketball games out of state after work and back home in one day. She was "Mom" to Channa, "Gram" to Karlei, but she was Mother to any and all; always answering the call. Kay never met a stranger. Kay was the very definition of kindness and generosity, caring, warm-hearted and loving. Her heart beat true and large; whatever her family was doing she immersed herself in completely. She learned to water ski, snow ski and ride a horse, although she preferred feeding them. She went on numerous hunting trips with Rick, Channa and other family members. She loved all her animals, especially her cats. "Lucky," her lone surviving cat was indeed lucky to have her for a surrogate mother as she helped to save his life when he was found barely alive, having been abandoned by his mother. One of her proudest and most exciting moments was at age 50 when her granddaughter Karlei was born.

Extremely grateful and honored for sharing her life are her husband, Rick Davis of Nisland; daughter, Channa (Jerry) Christensen of Gillette; granddaughter, Karlei Medrano (Kyler Duis); father-in-law, Al Davis and many nieces, nephews, cousins and numerous friends.

She was preceded in death by her parents, John and Anne and 3 sisters, Terrie Frerichs, Sondra Halvorsen, and Irene Ganje.

Visitation will be one hour before the Vigil at St. Paul Catholic Church in Belle Fourche. The Vigil including the Rosary will be held Sunday, May 2 at 5:00 pm at the church.

Mass of Christian Burial will be held Monday, May 3 at 1:30 pm at St. Paul Catholic Church in Belle Fourche, SD. Interment will follow at Pine Slope Cemetery in Belle Fourche.

The funeral will be published for viewing at klinefuneralchapel.com livestreaming site following the funeral.

Owen McDermott 73

Owen Louis McDermott, 73, of Henderson, Nevada, died April 24, 2021, in Henderson.

Owen was born March 20, 1948, in Sturgis, South Dakota, to Edward and Ruth McDermott. He grew up in Mud Butte, SD, helping out at the family-owned store. He began his education in a one-room schoolhouse a mile down the road from the store. He boarded out to attend high school in Newell where he participated in boxing and football. Owen attended Black Hills State after graduating high school. He was assistant editor for the school paper, and graduated with a B.S. in Business Education. He also earned a Masters Degree in Education Administration from the University of Phoenix.

He worked as a carpenter in Belle Fourche when he met his future wife, Mary Ellen Bunney. They were married in 1975 and raised two children together, Kelli and Edward. They moved to Henderson, Nevada, in 1982.

He went back to school at the University of Nevada Las Vegas to earn an endorsement to teach Elementary Education, and he taught at Martin Luther King Jr. Elementary in Las Vegas and Gordon McCaw Elementary School in Henderson, Nevada. He taught second, third and fourth grades for 20 years. He was known for his wry sense of humor and dedication to his students. McCaw became like a second family to him.

Owen loved his family and holiday gatherings with extended family. Before being confined to a wheelchair, Owen enjoyed playing golf, walking his dogs and traveling to the Black Hills during the summers. He loved hooking up the RV and hitting the road. His witty sense of humor and laid back attitude were gifts to all who knew him. He will be very missed.

He is survived by his mother, Ruth McDermott of Rapid City, SD; his wife, Mary Ellen McDermott of Henderson, NV; daughter, Kelli Sue (Todd) Akes of Henderson, NV; son, Edward (Cindy) McDermott of Huntingtown, Maryland; grandchildren, Samuel McDermott and Hugh Wyatt Akes; brothers, Dennis McDermott of Las Vegas, Duane McDermott of Rapid City and Randy McDermott of Kansas City; sisters, Janet McDermott Brocklehurst of Henderson, NV, and Kristie Tays of Rapid City and numerous nieces of nephews.

He was preceded in death by his father, Edward Francis McDermott of Rapid City, SD.

A Celebration of Life was held Wednesday, May 5 at Kline Funeral Chapel in Belle Fourche. Interment followed at Pine Slope Cemetery in Belle Fourche.

The funeral will be published for viewing on klinefuneralchapel.com live streaming site following the funeral.

Edna Sinkey 60

Edna Fay "Eddie" Sinkey, 60, of Belle Fourche formerly of Midland, passed away April 30 at Human Services Center in Yankton after a lengthy battle with dementia.

She was born December 24, 1960 in Kadoka to Dell and Carol (McFarland) Struble. She was the third of seven children. As a young girl she and her family lived in Kadoka, Hot Springs, Igloo, Edgemont, Custer and Belle Fourche. Most of her high school years were spent in Custer and she graduated from Belle Fourche in 1979.

On November 30, 1983 she married Dennis Sinkey of Midland. To this union three children were born, Kendra, Drew and Britney. She lived in Midland until 2007 when she moved to Kadoka. In 2012 she moved back to Belle Fourche where she resided until being moved to Yankton in 2015.

She was a longtime member of Midland Area EMS and she greatly enjoyed being a part of this team and helping people. She took part in many Midland plays and enjoyed the friendships built from being a part of the Midland Drama Club. She spent many years as a part of the Midland Booster Club and PTA. She held a variety of different jobs throughout her life but seemed to enjoy working at 1880 Town the most.

She enjoyed music, dancing, reading, playing cards, cross stitching and gardening. She enjoyed meeting new people and building friendships. She was mischievous and always enjoyed a good prank followed by lots of laughter. She was thrilled to be a grandma and insisted that her grandchildren would call her "Granny Ed".

Survivors include her children, Kendra Sinkey of Belle Fourche, Drew (Skylar) Sinkey of Fargo, Britney (Ben) VanderMay of New Underwood; her mother, Carol Struble of Belle Fourche; her siblings, Cornell (Tom) Kester of Belle Fourche, BC (Sharon) Struble of Buffalo, Donita (Ron) Peters of Vivian, Sheldon Struble of Belle Fourche, Amy Struble of Watsonville, CA, and Zeda Struble of Belle Fourche; her grandchildren, Julie Swanson, Layna-Jane Sinkey, and Hope Sinkey, of Belle Fourche, Davis Sinkey of Fargo, Colt, Case and Cash VanderMay of New Underwood; many nieces, nephews and a host of other relatives and lifelong friends.

She was preceded in death by her maternal grandparents, Benjamin McFarland and Virginia (Knisley) McFarland; her paternal grandparents, Harold Struble and Marjorie (Harris) Struble and her father, Dell Struble.

Visitation will be held Sunday, May 9 from 5:00 to 7:00 pm at Kline Funeral Chapel in Belle Fourche.

Funeral services will be held Monday, May 10 at 11:00 am at Kline Funeral Chapel. Interment will be Tuesday, May 11 at 10:00 am at Pine Slope Cemetery in Belle Fourche.

The funeral will be published for viewing at klinefuneralchapel.com live streaming site following the funeral.

Pastor's Perspective

"Matthew 8:5-7"

5 When [Jesus] entered Capernaum, a centurion came to him, appealing to him 6 and saying, "Lord, my servant is lying at home paralyzed, in terrible distress." 7 And [Jesus] said to him, "I will come and cure him." [Matthew 8:5-7]

The healing of the centurion's servant is a curious little story in the Bible. Jesus is a Hebrew—a Jew. The centurion is a Roman soldier—a foreigner and a gentile, that is, a non-believer in the Jewish God. The centurion is of a different race and creed, yet...yet Jesus immediately says that he will come and cure his servant. Why? Why would Jesus heal someone who assisted in the foreign domination and occupation of his country?

Today, I am babysitting my granddaughter. My daughter asked me to watch her youngest. My daughter was worried about her sister—age 4—who is in Rapid City seeing some doctors. Her voice sounded with concern and love for her daughter. Maybe that is why Jesus immediately agreed to heal the centurion's servant. Because even in his voice, the centurion made his concern and love known. Perhaps that is what Jesus was responding to...the love of one person for another. And it didn't matter the race or the creed. It didn't matter what the color of his skin was. It didn't even matter what the person had done earlier in his life. The only thing that mattered was that this was another human being in need.

This week's P P is provided by: Pastor Chuck Auran

Belle Fourche UCC & St. Onge UCC

Christians are said to follow Christ. What can we do to demonstrate the compassion, concern, and love of Christ? Meaningless distinctions of outward appearances didn't matter to Jesus. Neither should they matter to us. May we care for all the people—in His love. Pastor Chuck Auran

Legion Riders Visit North Park Elementary

The Black Hills Chapter of The American Legion Riders, Spearfish #164, visited North Park Elementary on Monday, April 27, 2021.

The Riders demonstrated to the students proper etiquette concerning the American Flag. The flag was unfolded, then refolded as the students watched with rapt attention. Michelene Nelson explained important details about the flag as the demonstration progressed.

The students then followed the Riders out to the front of the school where class leader Harper Hanson helped them to raise the flag as the rest of the students watched with hands on hearts.

The Pledge of Allegiance was said with great fervor, followed by the students signing the words as they sang “God Bless America!” The enthusiasm and respect demonstrated by the staff and students was heartwarming.

A heartfelt Thank You to the Riders for sharing their love of flag and country with our students.

Take Me Out to the Ballgame & the Concessions, Too!

Belle Fourche Youth Baseball is underway for another summer season of baseball. Fans who attend the games will bring an appetite. The newly expanded menu at the concessions will provide them not just with sunflower seeds, jerky and hotdogs, but some items that haven't been part of the concessions before.

The expanded menu will include pulled pork sandwiches, ham hoagies, hamburgers, Philly steak sandwiches and super nachos. Tournaments and days with a number of games bring high traffic to concessions; Subway has agreed to provide the concessions with basic sandwiches to sell.

"And we hope to arrange a similar kind of thing with local pizza eateries," explains new concessions coordinator Carey Hahne.

Hahne and Luaine Shaykett will oversee the concessions this summer. Each is a baseball parent who was urged to take over the tasks by the previous year's coordinator, Rachel Sanders.

"She roped us into it," laughs Shaykett. "That's how we got involved."

During the off-season, the concessions underwent some significant "sprucing up." Much-needed cabinets were installed. A Blackstone Grill was donated. A cooler was installed.

Sponsor Coca Cola provided a fountain, so that drinks may be served in cups rather than cans.

Coca Cola beverages will be on sale as well as Gold Peak Tea and Tum-e Yummies fruit flavored drinks. Chips and candy will be on sale, as in years past.

Shaykett and Hahne are enthusiastic about their new responsibilities but are also quick to add that they need additional help and soon.

"We'd appreciate help in concessions from anyone, whether it be baseball parents or community members," said Hahne. "We have some signed up now, but will really need more, especially with tournaments coming."

She added that baseball parents who sign their kids up to play pay a $50 deposit, but a parent who agrees to help with concessions can have that deposit refunded to them.

May 1 was the official opening of Belle Fourche Youth Baseball's season and concessions will be in operation for that and all upcoming games.

Baseball parents, baseball fans – and those who want to show support for the community of Belle Fourche – are encouraged to attend games. And consider doing a stint in concessions, too, for the good of the team!

Anything Left in the Barrel?

By: Doug Cole

Humor can just be observations. How about these?

* * *
Some of the best acting you see at the Oscars is when people act like it's OK they didn't win.

* * *
Did you ever notice that when you blow in a dog's face, he gets mad at you but when you take him on a car ride, he sticks his head out of the window?

* * *
How much design goes into toothbrushes? They look like running shoes. They've got curvy waves, shock absorbers in the middle and a crumple zone on the front. So an ordinary toothbrush is no longer an ordinary toothbrush. Now it's a toothbrush classic.

* * *
Q: How to make a small fortune in the horse industry ...
A: Start with a large fortune.

If you spill stain remover on your sleeve, how do you get it out?

* * *
Personally, I don't think there's intelligent life on other planets. Why should other planets be any different from this one?

* * *
I hate housework. You make the beds, you wash the dishes and six months later you have to start all over again.

* * *
He said to the Gym instructor, "Can you teach me to do the splits?" The instructor said, "How flexible are you?"

* * *
He replied, "I can make any day but Tuesdays"

* * *
I read the book, The History of Glue. I couldn't put it down.

* * *
Change is inevitable, except from a vending machine.

* * *
Everyone has a photographic memory. Some people just don't have film.

* * *
A day without sunshine is like, well, night.

* * *
On the other hand, you have different fingers.

* * *
Seen it all, done it all, can't remember most of it.

Nothing is foolproof to a sufficiently talented fool.

You have the right to remain silent. Anything you say will be misquoted, then used against you.

I find television very educating. Every time somebody turns on the set, I go into the other room and read a book.

She's always late. Her ancestors arrived on the Juneflower.

Q: Have you ever walk into a room with some purpose in mind, only to completely forget what that purpose was?

It turns out that doors themselves are to blame for these strange memory lapses. Psychologists at the University of Notre Dame have discovered that passing through a doorway triggers what's known as an event boundary in the mind, separating one set of thoughts and memories from the next. Your brain files away the thoughts you had in the previous room and prepares a blank slate for the new locale."

* * *
Today is May 5th, or Cinco de Mayo. It is celebrated on May 5th both in Mexico, mainly in Puebla, and in the U.S. Both countries have different origins for their reasons for celebrating this day.

In Mexico, this holiday celebrates the Battle of Puebla in the state of Puebla, which ended on May 5th, 1862 with the Mexican army defeating the French. In the U.S. Cinco de Mayo began as a celebration to commemorate freedom and democracy, Mexican heritage and pride.

It began in the American West, by Mexican-American communities during the American Civil War.

In Mexico, Cinco de Mayo is called 'El Día de la Batalla de Puebla', which means The Day of the Battle of Puebla.

* * *
Since the Battle at Puebla, no European country has ever invaded the Americas.

The following is by Blake Harris: This coming weekend, our country will honor mothers on Mother's Day. The holiday can be a day of joy. Some will remember mothers they have lost. And other mothers will grieve the shattering loss of a child. The experience of loss on Mother's Day can feel isolating. Actually, it was out of this experience – of grieving mothers – that Mother's Day has its roots.

In the late 1850s, Ann Jarvis, widely considered the 'mother' of Mother's Day, established Mother's Work Day, a day dedicated to teaching mothers how to better prepare food and clean so as to prevent disease. This mission was driven by personal experience, as seven of her eleven children died before adulthood. Though personal, this experience was anything but unique in a time before vaccines and a widespread understanding of germ theory.

Jarvis' work took on new meaning during the Civil War. Her home was in close proximity to a major battlefield and the county was flooded with wounded Confederate and Union soldiers. She organized groups of mothers to visit the wounded and ailing of both Union and Confederate loyalty, tending to their injuries and instructing soldiers and camp staff about basic sanitation strategies.

After the war, Julia Ward Howe, helped to reshape what Mother's Day could mean. As a volunteer for the United States Sanitary Commission during the Civil War, she helped alleviate the effects of disease and injury. After the War, Julia wrote her "Appeal to womanhood throughout the world", later the "Mother's Day Proclamation", : Our sons shall not be taken from us to unlearn all that we have been able to teach them of charity, mercy, and patience. We, women of one country, will be too tender of those of another country, to allow our sons to be trained to injure theirs.

* * *
In 1908, Anna Jarvis, daughter of the aforementioned Ann Jarvis, began to campaign to make Mother's Day a federally recognized day in honor of her mother who had died in 1905. The first nationally celebrated Mother's Day was in May of 1914. But what had been a day dedicated first to cleanliness and later to peace was again repurposed, this time to celebrate mothers themselves.

As we celebrate the devoted and loving mothers in our lives, we think back to the origins of the holiday and remember the goals of the mothers who began this tradition: to keep their children safe, prevent the spread of disease, to reduce suffering, and to work for peace.

Today we share these goals, and wish you all a Mother's Day full of love, peace and remembrance.

or anyone promoting the market or auction profession,” he said.

Heinze said Deitterle was a clear choice for this year’s award.

“He’s promoted South Dakota, the markets, and did a lot of work in getting the contest to Belle Fourche,” he said. Deitterle also does a lot to promote the region’s cattle and is well known throughout the area for his skills, said Heinze.

Deitterle was honored to be selected for the award. He is currently serving as the South Dakota director for the Greater Midwest Auctioneers.

“It was a good sale. It was well run, with a good crowd of buyers and good cattle,” said Deitterle.

A contest such as this helps draw a different crowd, and often the auctioneers from other regions will connect new buyers with the cattle for sale, as was the case this week, he said.

“That’s one benefit of having a contest, even though it’s extra work for the auction market. They get more buyers,” he said.

The 2020 champion who helped organize this year’s event said talent was not hard to come by at the April 29, 2021 event held at Belle Fourche Livestock Market outside of Belle Fourche, South Dakota.

“We had a strong selection of professional auctioneers. They really put on a good show and they really worked hard for the consignors,” said last year’s champion, Wade Leist, who auctioneers at Mitchell Livestock Marketing, Mitchell, South Dakota.

TSLN field man Dan Piroutek assisted on the block by starting the bid on each consignment and providing background details on many of the producers, said Leist.

Belle Fourche Livestock owner Baxter Anders is to be credited for ensuring that Piroutek helped set the pace for the cattle being sold, and also that he helped make the buyers aware of information about the cattle such as genetics or a particular feeding program.

“Baxter took great care in making sure that his producers got the best opportunity to get the highest market. He was very careful about switching auctioneers between consignors, he was careful about what kind of cattle were put in front of the auctioneers. He wanted to be sure his producers were taken care of,” he said.

Leist also pointed out that the number of quality of cattle in Belle Fourche was something that the auctioneers from outside of the region were not accustomed to.

“The contestants that came from Ohio, Illinois, Florida, at one point or another, they all remarked on the exceptional quality of cattle here. I’m from Michigan. To see that many high quality cattle is really unique to guys like us that are from a different part of the country. It is really notable to us,” said Leist.

“One contestant said, I’ve seen more good cattle on the Interstate, from the airport in Rapid City to the salebarn in Belle Fourche, than I ever see at home,” Leist said.

Blackwood Brothers Concert May 18th

First Baptist Church in Belle Fourche is inviting the community to join us for a concert, May 18th at 7:00 p.m.

The Fabulous Blackwood Quartet was formed in 2012 by Mark Blackwood, a former member of the Blackwood Brothers Quartet. The group tours regularly and brings the word of Christ through song, to both believers and non-believers alike. The quartet has had the privilege of performing with Willie Nelson and many other great artists. Recently, they have seen their popularity grow among Elvis tribute artist fans, as well.

The concert will be May 18th at 7:00 pm. There will be a Free-will Offering to be taken during the concert. For more information, call First Baptist Church at 892-4178

or by checking out the church Facebook page.

The Good Stuff

by Jim Thompson

Jim Thompson takes motivational stories that listeners and readers send him and incorporates them into the program. It has been on the air for more than 10 years.

If someone were asked to describe you, what would you hope they say? For me, I would choose "optimistic". It's worth working for isn't it?

Re-frame the Words You Use

Talk happiness.
The world is sad enough
Without your woe. No path is wholly rough.
Look for the places that are smooth and clear,
And speak of them to rest the weary ear
Of earth; so hurt by one continuous strain
Of mortal discontent and grief and pain.

Talk faith.
The world is better off without
Your uttered ignorance and morbid doubt.
If you have faith in God, or man, or self,
Say so; if not, push back upon the shelf

Of silence, all your thoughts till faith shall come.
No one will grieve because your lips are dumb.

Talk health.
The dreary, never-ending tale
Of mortal maladies is worn and stale;
You cannot charm or interest or please
By harping on that minor chord, disease.
Say you are well, or all is well with you,
And God shall hear your words and make them true.

Poems of Power by Ella Wheeler Wilcox

Last week, Ronda Cordell went to Rapid City on Sunday, to spend the night with her daughter, Cristen. On Monday morning, she had an appointment at the Black Hills Orthopedic clinic. Monday morning brought rain that turned to snow, and Ronda was glad to see a little mud. Diane Wear, Clint Zolnoski, Ronda and a couple of dogs pushed 250 cow pairs across Tie Creek to the meadow on Wednesday. The mamas were delighting in the greener grass, and the hydro-bed with a couple of bales was in front to slow the mamas down. Everyone held their breath, hoping no vehicle came while they were crossing the road. The real work began once they reached the other side of the road, because the mamas seemed to forget they even had a calf. The dogs reminded them, and they remembered to look for their calves. The tired calves took a nap, and at the end of the day, there are always a few babies back to the north, but the mothers soon straighten out that situation. 'Keep your eye open when the bag gets tight. Open the gate and things will get right.' After moving the cows, Diane picked up Alison's Pantry items. Ronda went to Ekalaka on Saturday to get a canvas print that Eric Lovce had printed for a benefit auction in Rapid City. His work is exceptional. On Sunday, Ronda casted a calf's broken leg for Justin Kerr, and Diane reported another set of twins, making six sets. She and Clint will pen them, and hope they soon bond. Clint Zolnoski went to Spearfish on Saturday afternoon. He and Denise, Darby and Abby returned later in the evening. Denise and the girls were very glad to get home from a week spent in Rochester, MN. Denise said they spent considerable time watching the newly installed camera system at home. Being able to see us on this end working with the cows, made it seem more like being home. This week, Ronda and Diane picked up Janet Odell for a trip to Buffalo on Thursday. They had lunch at Blossoms and Brew. It happened to be 'Play Day' for the school kids, and the place was quite full. On Friday, Gene Secrest helped Clint, Diane and Ronda tag cattle. Diane left for Ekalaka on Friday to her job at the hospital. Erma Albert and Ruth Ann Schwartz went shopping in Belle Fourche and Spearfish on Tuesday. On Thursday, Dick went to Belle Fourche to get his trailer after new vents had been put in. On Friday, they went to the Senior Citizen dinner and had Bobbie's chicken. Dick caught a ride home, and Erma stayed to play cards. Erma went to see the new plants that had arrived at Buffalo Hardware, and could not resist buying some even though she is still afraid to put them outside. Sunday was First Communion Sunday at the Catholic Church, and Trevor Clanton and Greta Lermeney were honored. Dick and Erma stayed for the pot-luck dinner afterward. Pete Anderson and Dixie Garr were supper guests at Bruce and Lynn Gustafson's on Saturday evening. On Sunday, they went to church in Camp Crook at the Methodist Church, and then had lunch at the Corner Cafe. Alvin and Marlee Cordell went to the Camp Crook School spring program on Monday evening at the Camp Crook Community Center. Alvin hauled his Bobcat to the Horton place and did some spring work on roads. On Thursday, he planted a field just ahead of the rain. Denin Cheguis hauled a heifer

A common scene around these parts, team roping is a favorite activity among young and old alike. At any given time there's some kind of roping event in progress, either at someone's private indoor or outdoor arena or at the local rodeo grounds. Not all of us are good at it so some of us (me) compensate by painting pictures of it. Since I do several rodeo posters each year, this timed event has been a somewhat frequent subject of mine over the years. Most likely you'll find a roper or a roping scene also show up in one of my easel paintings. There's never a shortfall of potential subjects when you live in cowboy country.

to Mindy Yates's on Friday. The calf did not survive, but Mindy saved the heifer. Marlee went to Belle Fourche on Friday to watch Cade play baseball. She stayed over, and went to Sturgis on Saturday for the Sturgis track meet where Gavin won the long jump. She got home in time for church at the Methodist Church on Sunday. Lynn Gustafson went to the eye doctor on Wednesday and did some shopping. She had to go back to town on Thursday to have her eye checked, because they could not get her in on Wednesday. She and Bruce went to church at Little Missouri on Sunday. Donna Lewis went to Ekalaka and Baker on Thursday. Things had greened up by the time she came home, and it rained again Saturday night. On Sunday, she baked a couple of cakes for the freezer. Junior and Shirley Melum were visited this week by their daughter Bertha and Pete, who brought dinner with them on their way west to visit his mother. Ernie, Rachel and Tommy visited them on Sunday evening, too.

On Tuesday, Dorothy Padden went to Ekalaka for the Alice Carlisle funeral. She and Dawn Padden went to Lemmon on Saturday for a junior high and high school track meet. There were many schools there, but the day was very well organized, and the events were great to watch. There were many heats in each event, and winners were chosen by the best times. The day was one of the warmest this year, but the afternoon cooled off again, and it was a full day of track. Charlie Odell hauled bulls to the Capitol pasture on Monday. On Tuesday, he saw seven-tenths of rain in the rain gauge. He made a trip to Buffalo the next day, and worked on the water at Capitol on Thursday. Karen is still putting up ceiling boards in her room, and sewing pillows and curtains. Hywel is getting good at finding things for her. Karen and Charlie got to see pictures of their grandson's track meet, too. Kellan Odell competed in track at the Mitchell track meet. He placed fourth in the broad jump, and did well in other events, too. Their grandson, Carson Odell, had a Saturday baseball tournament, in Mitchell, too. They got to see their grandson, Rowan Hinds, in Tacoma, at a fencing competition. It is so fast, that it is hard to see who makes contact with their sword first, and gets the point. When Charlie and Karen went to church on Sunday, there were puddles in the Little Missouri Road, but when they reached Highway 20, they were all over the place in slick mud. Karen had to use her talents from the old gumbo days to feel which way the back of the vehicle was going, and turn just enough to stay on the road. They made it to church, and then had lunch at the Corner Cafe, before weaving and sliding their way back to the nice Montana gravel. One more reminder that the Maurice Overn funeral is Friday at 2:00 pm at the Little Missouri Church.

Talk Of The Town A party of prohibition boys had a miniature prohibition party one night this week, and mysterious spirits came and made them joyously happy. New York store under management of Miss Kate Boland in Woodburn building handles everything in the line of ladies' goods. The Rocking Chair club met with Mrs. B. F. Teall Monday and effected what will take the place and answer the same purpose as a regular organization. It has no regular officers, but each lady entertaining the club acts as president for that meeting. The club will meet with Mrs. F. E. Bennett next Monday afternoon. A. J. Hamilton Post No. 180 G.A.R. will be at home to all its fiends at 3:30 p.m. at their hall, Saturday, May 1st. The Ladies of the G.A.R., and all friends are cordially invited to be present. Come and hear us sing, D. F. Andne, Commander. Wm. Hamilton of the Pine Hills country was in town a few days this week and visited the school. He reports very little loss of cattle in his section, and say the loss on any part of the range over which he has been, will not be as bad as at first predicted, the loss varying in different part from 15 to 50 per cent.

Madame DeMores Dead Dick-inson, N. D., March 14 Madame DeMores, widow of Marquis DeMores of Madora, N. D., fame in early days, died at her chateau in Cannes, France, Wednesday, March 2, according to word received in Dickinson today. She was 65 years old. Modora Van Hoffman, her maiden name, was the daughter of a wealthy New York banker and came to North Dakota with her husband in 1883, founding the town of Modora, which was named after her. DeMores established an immense packing plant at Medora on the theory that the packing plant should be brought to the cattle instead of the cattle to the plant. He sank millions of his and the VanHoff-man fortunes in the enterprise before it failed. The ruins of the plant may still be seen at Medora. DeMores also established a stage line from Medora to Belle Fourche, S.D. DeMores built a mansion on the plateau near Medora, which with the townsite and estate covered 8,000 acres. A number of the buildings in the town remain intact in possession of the heirs. Disposition of the property is unlikely at present, it is said. A caretaker is constantly in charge since the DeMores returned to France to make their home in 1886. Marquis DeMores was assassinated while on a hunting trip in Africa in 1895. He was prominent in French politics. Madame DeMores accompanied by two of her surviving children, made her last trip to Medora 17 years ago. The madame was prominent in relief work in France during the world war and entertained many North Dakota boys at her home in Cannes.
News From South Dakota P. A. Ring, Minneapolis, who has been operating a hog farm near Mitchell, was killed and eaten by a drove of hogs. Ring left the house shortly after eight o'clock to attend to his stock and failed to return by midnight. His brother-in-law F. L. Ryan, who had been in Mt. Vernon, returned to the farm and Mrs. Ring told him of her husband's absence. Calling to a neighbor, Rayn started a search for Ring. More than an hour elapsed before the men looked in the hog pen. The Ring's remains were found. How the farmer got into the pen and fell pray to the hogs probably will never be known. It is thought possible that Ring, who was 55 years old, may have suffered a attack of heart trouble and fallen fainting among the hogs.

BF Bee -- May 9, 1946
Heavy Rains Again Strike Trade Area Belle Fourche and the surrounding trade area were again visited by heavy rains, which started falling late Wednesday night of last week and continued all day Thursday. The fall in Belle Fourche as registered by the Tri-State Milling Company was at 2.40 inches, 2.24 inches as recorded out at the diversion dam. Reports from incoming travelers were to the effect that the rains were extra heavy around Hammond, Monatana locality, that they were also heavy out about Buffalo and Camp Crook. Leonard Hodge, of the Cozy Lunch, in a telephone message out to the Reva country in the Slim Butte area was advised that a rain in that neighborhood the fore part of last week was near cloudburst proportions. Also John Begamin stated that a hail storm struck Albion, Montana. Last Thursday's fall at Deadwood was near the 2.6 inch mark.
Change At Air Lines Miss Paula Quarnberg of Rapid City has resigned as counsellair for Western Lines at Rapid City, and will be succeeded by Miss Marjoria Holmquist of Rapid City. Miss Holmquist was passenger agent at Rapid City airport during 1945-46, and has an educational and industrial background that put her in position to serve the air transportation interests of the Black Hills traveling public.
Round-Up Grounds Are "Groomed" For West's Top Event Repairs About Completed on Stands, Chutes and Fences - Concessions To Vet Groups Improvements on the Round-Up grounds are rapidly nearing completion, and the crowds coming to this year's West Premier Event, the Black Hills Round-up on July 3, 4 and 5, will note many worthwhile repairs to the stands, chutes and fences which will sum up to a more efficient running of the three-day show, as well as add to the comfort and ease of those looking on. Over in the grandstand, the front section has undergone considerable repairing, in fact they have been virtually rebuilt. The calf roping and bull-dogging chutes have been altered, all for the purpose of putting more "snap and promptness" to these "hair-raising arena events." The track for the races has been graded for better drainage to get away from those wet and muddy spots whenever a rain comes along. The American Legion will again operate the up-town bowery dances on

by Mary Buchholz

the pavement. Tommy Matthews' dance band from Pierre will play for the dance. The Round-Up office reports that inquiries and reservations are still coming in daily from all parts of the country and Manager Koller states that all indications point to "above-the-average" crowds for the three days.

50 Years Ago
Eaton, Giacometto To Be Honored At BHSC Event Spearfish—Coach Lloyd Eaton of the University of Wyoming has been named the 1971 recipient of Black Hills State College's honorary doctor of humane letters degree. The degree will be conferred at the college's May 14 honors convocation. Eaton, a 1940 graduate of BHSC, is currently the assistant athletic director at Wyoming. His career has centered around football, primarily at the University of Wyoming. His career record is 104-53-3. His record at Wyoming is 57-33-3. Eaton lettered four years in football at BHSC where he was also a member of Sign Tau Gamma national fraternity. He served in the Army during World War II, and in 1969 he was picked by the U.S. Air Force to teach in Europe during the summer months. City Council Organization Organization for the coming year highlighted the May meeting of the Belle Fourche board of alderman Monday night. New council members were installed. Mayor Henry Hantz announced his committee appointments and office appointments. Henry Hespe was re-elected president of the council. George Pridgeon was named vice president. Before the new board was organized, however, the old board completed some standing business. The board approved beer licenses for the Belle Fourche Overseas Veterans Association (Vets Club), the Tri-State Fair and Sales Association, Piggly Wiggly Stor, Safeway Store, Harry's Bait and Marine, Old Back Bar, Circle Lounge, Sly's Grocery and the South Park Company. The Tri-State Fair and Sales permit was for both off sale and on sale for the Fourth of July period. The permits for the Old Back and the Circle Lounge were for both off sale and on sale with a July 4th limitation. Council members, following committee recommendation, approved a $15,000 appropriation for construction of a building to house fire trucks just south of the city shop building. The Volunteer Fire Department has also raised funds to help finance that project. The matter was then referred to the building and real estate committee for final disposition. Mayor Hantz announced he was naming a special ambulance committee to work with the county commissioners to see if some solution can be found to the ambulance problem. George Pridgeon, Dale Riley and Bill Schmidt were named to the committee.

Mental Health From A1 about mental health. May said that is a hurdle they are hoping will be accomplished with the training. “It doesn’t train someone to be a professional, but to help identify and get someone treatment,” she said. “It shows them how to ask questions; how to refer to an adult.” May said this is a passion area for her, as she comes from a background of full-time ministry and intervention. The NCBH program is an evidence-based approach, tailored to the teens environment and is internationally recognized with more than 3 million people around the world having taken the training. In the U. S. more than 2 million are trained. So, who should take the program? Teens in grades 10, 11, and 12, along with high schools, organizations partnering with a high school and youth-serving organizations are named. You can contact May at the SDSU Extension office in Belle Fourche at 605-892-3371 or stop by the office at 117 5th Avenue for more information.

Dare to Dream and Build Connections

As I have visited communities and various businesses over the years, I have seen very few guilty of dreaming too big. In fact, unfortunately most communities, businesses, and their leaders are guilty of the exact opposite. Far too many dream and think far too small. Vic Johnson said it best when he said, “Big dreams drive us to do things we’d never do for lesser dreams — in many ways they almost pull us through the obstacles we’re likely to have on the way to reaching them.” Put another way, it is those seemingly big dreams that actually lead to our greatest successes.

As I have visited with community and business leaders, I have often referred to and written about the community wide thinking known as a poverty mindset. This isn’t the poverty mindset in the traditional sense of poverty, it is the mindset of allowing your previous experiences and letdowns determine your future dreams and aspirations. When it comes to vision and forward thinking, one of the greatest traits a leader and community can have is that of learning from past experiences and failures, utilizing them as steps in lieu of chains. I am unaware of any community growing to exceed its wildest expectations because they dreamed too small. To be big, one must think and believe big. There is no other way!

Today, we live in a world of rapid change, innovation and transformation. The world can be very unforgiving, even in the best of circumstances. In order for communities to achieve their ultimate destination, they must turn aside the poverty mindset and set their sights much higher. They must cast aside those failed initiatives from yesterday and use them as stair-steps to greater heights. They must take each and every resource at their disposal and find ways to utilize those resources for the greater good.

When a community is seeking to transform, they must look inside themselves to determine who or what they are. A great business leader, Simon Sinek said, “Our friends don’t love us for what we do. Our friends love us for who we are.” Communities are much the same way. People won’t travel to your community consistently for what you do, but rather because of what you are. What is the vibe that you give to those visiting your community? What is the feeling people get when they spend time with you? It is all about building connections between the community and the outside world. The greater the connection you can build, the more powerful the draw will be.

As we dream of where we are going as a community, we must dream of what our potential connections can be. As we dream of what our community can share with others, we must be thinking of how those dreams can be used as connections. As I have visited Eureka Springs, AR, we go there knowing the connection will be the arts. As we visit Branson, we expect the connections will be great entertainment of all types. As we visit communities in and around the Black Hills, we know we will come away with a new connection to the western culture and historical vibe. As we visit Tahlequah, OK, we leave with a greater understanding of the Native American lifestyle or culture and feel more connected.

All the above communities not only dared to dream big, but they found the emotional connections they could successfully share with others. When visitors come to their communities, they leave having had their expectations met. Of the thousands of communities across this great nation working to enhance their connections to travelers and residents alike, few fully capture the essence of what is possible. But for those communities daring to dream big and finding those vital emotional connecting points, success will never feel more rewarding because they dreamed beyond the poverty mindset. They captured the elusive dreams few dare to dream.

Kite Festival and Duck Races set for May 22

Boost Belle Fourche will host its first annual Kite Festival and Duck Races on Saturday, May 22nd on the lawns behind the Tri-State Museum and Visitor Center at 415 Fifth Avenue in Belle Fourche.

The event takes place from 11 to 4 p.m. Kids can purchase kite kits for $5 apiece. These will be assembled and decorated on site and there will be awards in a "Best Decorated Kite" contest.

People may also bring and fly their own kites at the event.

Racing ducks will be put into the Belle Fourche River at the 5th Avenue Bridge at 1 p.m. and captured at 6th Avenue. The first three ducks across the finish line receive prizes.

Ducks may be purchased at $5 each or five ducks for $20. They are available at Belle Fourche City Hall, the Belle Fourche Rec Center, Tri-State Museum and Visitor Center and through local Shriners.

Grand Reopen- ing at Vale Community Club

COLLEEN BRUNNER
news@bellefourchebeacon.com

VALE – It’s no secret that the Vale Community Club has been struggling in recent years. But there’s a determined group to not let this valuable enterprise fall by the wayside and they are working hard to bring it back.

Organizer and club chairman Larry Knutson and his cohorts are making plans and beginning to get things moving again. The first event of the season will be the catalyst that begins that process.

There will be a grand re-open- ing of the club with a meal/fun event on Friday, May 7 begin- ning at 6 p.m. The meal will consist of sloppy joes, potato salad, coleslaw, dessert and drink. This will all be for a free will offering.

Following that the group will offer their standard fundraiser event, bingo. Those interested

Track and Golf Competition Keeping Newell Spring Sports Athletes Busy

COLLEEN BRUNNER
news@bellefourchebeacon.com

NEWELL – Now that some warmer weather has been show- ing, Newell athletes have been busy at events. Most recently there was lots of golf and track happening.

The results from the Wall golf tournament showed that the athletes are promising to have a good season. The girls’ team took a second-place finish at the event with Kassidy Weeldreyer placing fourth overall with a score of 103. Megan Jackson ended the day with a 115 and Kelsi Clements shot a 118.

The boys did well, placing fourth. Chase VanDerBoom shot a 93, James Duncan came in with a 102, Charlie Clements had 114 for the day and Gavin Tesch wrapped it up with a 130. The next meet was held at Hart Ranch, always a fun time for the Newell golfers.

“It was a good day at Hart Ranch,” said the coaches. “The girls team took second.” The girls had 319 for a team score.

Weeldreyer grabbed another fourth-place finish with a 101, while Clements too fifth and a 105. Jackson shot a 113. The girls competed among 24 golfers for the day that finished the course.

On the boys’ side, VanDerBoom also took a fourth-place finish with 91 for a score. Duncan came in 17th with a 11 and Clements had a 133 for the day. Junior high scores included Bodie VanDerBoom with a 118 and Blaise McGregor (on nine holes) finishing with a 102. There were 41 boy golfers. The boys finished fifth with a team score of 321.

The thinclads competed at Lemmon recently and notched several first-place finishes. That included Rachel Erk in the long jump, placing first with a leap of 14’4”. She also placed first in the 400 meter and fourth in the 200-meter.

Senior Lexa Burtzlauff had a great day, running 28.06 in the 200 and placing first. She jumped 33’4” in the triple jump where she again grabbed a first- place finish. She grabbed third place in the 400-meter.

David Morell showed his prowess in the shotput circle, heaving it 39’10.5” for an eighth-place finish.

Stacy Mahaffy placed fourth in distance in the mile and sixth in the 800-meter run. Garret Winkler placed second in the two-mile with a time of 10.50.

It was a cold and windy day, but the Newell athletes came out to win.

It was a good day for the NHS girls’ golf team at Hart Ranch this past week. They brought home a second-place finish and 319 for a team score. - Courtesy photo

Newell High School Senior Profiles

NEWELL – Ten years from now Mick King hopes to be working and making money, lots and lots of money.

This young man is well-known at Newell high school and will graduate with many friends later this month. His favorite class during his years at NHS was named as shop class-no definition of which type, and his favorite teacher is Mr. VanDervorst.

Mick is the son of Marvin and Raeann King and brother to Annie, age 7, Domnyk 13, Taylor, 16, and Marvin, 20.

"My favorite memory of NHS has to be the airsoft guns during prom," said King. During his time at the high school, King participated in the sport of cross-country. Outside of school his favorite things to do include hanging with friends, listening to music, playing video games and riding dirt bikes.

This young man named his older brother Marvin and his dad, also Marvin, as his biggest influence in life.

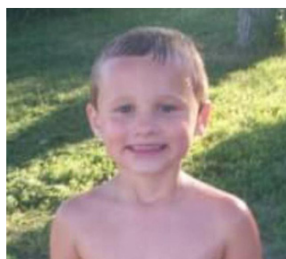

King will miss hanging out with his friends at NHS the most, of anything he will recall about the school.

Newell High School Senior Profiles

NEWELL – Devin Ward will graduate this month. He is excited about the possibilities that are before him. Of the recent past, he's not so positive.

"Don't have a covid school year," said Ward of the one thing he'd like to share with those who will come after him at Newell high school. Of course, that's beyond pretty much anyone's control, but it obviously had an affect on this young man.

Ward is the son of Carol Charles and Darrell Ward. He has three older siblings, including Darrell, Danyelle, and Nicole. He said they are "old."

One of Ward's favorite memories of Newell school came when they got to play hockey in the middle school. He names forensics as his favorite class and the retired Tyrel Bonnet as his favorite teacher.

Outside of his hours at NHS, Ward likes to ride dirt bikes, and go hunting and fishing. His aspirations include becoming a power lineman or a realtor, but nothing is set yet in stone. He gave no reason, but said Bob Ross is the person who has influenced him the most, and we are sure whoever this Bob Ross is, he will probably understand why.

During his time at NHS Ward participated in the cross-country program.

"Having a small class and being able to know everyone in school, and be friends is why NHS is a great place to go to high school," said Ward.

Congratulations Devin!

We love you and are so proud of you. Follow your dreams and work hard. It will all be worth the effort.

Love,
Mom & Dad

C.R. Rua and Charles Schedwin of Vale were in town Monday. The Irrigator acknowledges a pleasant call. From here they went to Belle Fourche where Mr. Schedwin was going to take out his final citizenship papers before the District Court.

Engineers from Orman Dam have been busy last week in putting a weir to measure the flow of water into the siphon across the river. Complaints were numerous last season that the farmers on the south side were getting more then their share of water. The weir has been put in to enable the engineers to distribute the water more equally.

A whirlwind swept through the area here Thursday moving a few small buildings, no damage of importance is reported as yet. Honyockers are still coming and improving the country with fences and breaking sod and there are claims vacant yet.

Somewhat of a mystery surrounds the burning of the house on the Dr. O.H. Clark farm south of town which occurred at an early hour this morning. Some time ago a fire was discovered in a small summer kitchen adjoining the house and this section was destroyed. Howard Clark had been working the place and was just fitting it up preparatory to occupying it with his bride. Besides numerous household goods, he lost a rare collection of war relics which he gathered personally in France and a brand new set of double harness. There is very little doubt but that the fire is of an incendiary origin.

news@bellefourchebeacon.com

This week felt more like summer than spring with temperatures reaching almost 90 degrees and we got some much needed rain.

Taz drove to Dupree on Tuesday to go to the rodeo in Guymon, Oklahoma with Jess Woodward. I rode in to the EMT meeting in Buffalo that evening with Linda Mohagen. Pastor Henry Mohagen usually goes with us, but there was a church council meeting that evening so he stayed home for that and Casey left the lambing shed long enough to attend the council meeting too. I had some good visits talking politics that afternoon with Rep. Liz Marty May, her brother Rep. Sam Marty, and Sen. Ryan Maher. Sen. Maher told me about the national blow up over the Faith Rodeo Club slave auction that the rodeo club uses by the kids getting auctioned off for helping at brandings for local ranchers to raise money for the rodeo club. An article about it came out in the Washington Post that led to the rodeo club having to cancel the auction because the rodeo club kids and their advisors were getting death threats from ignorant leftists that had no idea what they were talking about. Several people called the office of the Legislative Research Council to give death threats to Sen. Maher for defending the rodeo club. Dawn Simons sent very nice letters to the Bison Courier and the Faith Independent newspapers explaining exactly what was happening and defending these hardworking kids and their advisors. This is just more of the ‘cancel culture’ and is infuriating!

Lanie and the kids came down from Dickinson on Wednesday to help in the lambing shed while Taz was gone.

She hasn’t forgotten anything about lambing and she and Amanda were great help for Missy in the shed. Me, not so much. I mostly just water the bullpens and help a little with feeding grain and hay. Amanda had Casey, Missy, Lanie and the kids for supper at her house that evening. Taz was up in the rodeo in Oklahoma that day. It was hot and dry on Thursday so I washed laundry and hung it on the clothesline outside.

Lanie and the kids were still here to help and her three kids and Amanda’s three kids sure had a lot of fun together in the lambing shed. Reub and I had to make a parts run up to Laufer’s to get a motor for his processor and then to Hettinger to get some more parts for it that afternoon. Casey got the processor fixed that evening when he got out of the lambing shed. Taz was up in the rodeo in Oklahoma again on Thursday and he and his traveling buddies started on the way back to South Dakota.

I ran into Arden Saunders while we were in Hettinger and he told me that he was going to give me all six of the books his late Uncle Bob Penfield had written as a ‘thank you’ for the help I gave him to find where Guy and Mary (Hogarth) Sandusky were buried. He grew up next door to them in Hettinger and they were like grandparents to him. Sandusky’s sister Jessie married George Allen, their daughter Mary Elsie married Boyd Thybo and they lived on the Bar H ranch just south of us. He left the books at the Reva Store for me and Casey picked them up for me. I’ve already started reading these interesting stories.

I attended Dean Penor’s funeral in Bison on Friday and got to see a lot of old friends I hadn’t seen for quite a while. Lanie and the kids went back to Dickinson and Taz was home by the time I got back from Bison that afternoon. Amanda and the little kids went to Buffalo for Jace Jenson’s birthday party and the shower for Jace and Kami’s baby boy Keen. Taz went to the party later after he finished the sheep chores.

Saturday, May 1st, was a beautiful day. It was so warm that Amanda filled the wading for the kids and they had a lot of fun playing in the water. Copper and River Lu spent more time in the pool than Knox did because he was over helping Taz and Missy move ewes and lambs.

Wednesday, May 5th is Cinco de Mayo celebrated in Mexico and in the USA. Literally meaning “The Fifth of May,” Cinco de Mayo is a Mexican holiday celebrating the Battle of Puebla, which took place on May 5, 1862. It was one of the few Mexican victories during France’s attempt to penetrate Mexico.

This might not be a totally accurate history of Cinco de Mayo:

Most people don’t know that back in 1912, Hellmann’s mayonnaise was manufactured in England. In fact, the Titanic was carrying 12,000 jars of the condiment scheduled for delivery in Vera Cruz, Mexico, which was to be the next port of call for the great ship after its stop in New York.

This would have been the largest single shipment of mayonnaise ever delivered to Mexico. But as we know the great ship did not make it to New York. The ship hit an iceberg and sank and the cargo was forever lost.

The people of Mexico, who were crazy about mayonnaise, and were eagerly awaiting its delivery were disconsolate at the loss.

Their anguish was so great, that they declared a National Day of Mourning which they still observe to this day. The National Day of Mourning occurs each year on May 5th and is known of course as Sinko de Mayo.

Then ‘n’ Now in Newell

uty State Sheriff Floyd Short and Perry Moody drove to the Moreau River country Sunday. Where they located a cache of stolen property and arrested a man named Crabtree, who is now in the Belle Fourche jail. The recovered loot consisted of saddles, harnesses, etc. alleged to have been stolen from different ranches in that section of the state. Officials have been working on the case for some time, it is said.

April 8, 1941
Two cases of spotted fever were reported in Butte County during the month of April, the State Board of Health revealed in its regular report the past week in warning that the months of May, June and July following are the most dangerous for such infection from ticks. 13 cases were reported during the same period in Montana with 1 fatality.

The general Land Office dealt out 7 “aces” for the first time in it’s more than 100 years of operations in issuing a patent for government land to Robert G. Richards of Newell for a 7,000 square Townsite Lot. Commissioner Fred W. Johnson said Richards was awarded 1,111,111 representing the total number of such patents issued since the present numbering system was instituted in 1908. It was on Lot 11 Block 34, Newell Original Townsite. Many Lots remained unsold, however and after reappraisal, Richards applied for purchase of a Lot at $15 and his certificate of purchase emerged in final form as a seal and bedecked patent bearing the 7-aces identification.

Adolph Amunson, Newell Garage owner and mechanic has often tackled and turned out some difficult jobs, but right now he is engaged chiefly in one process which is keeping him quite steadily occupied. He is meeting a current demand and changing-over many farm implements to put them on rubber. This involves cutting down the wheels on wagons, manure spreaders and other machines either of wood or steel – re-aligning them and mounting ordinary automobile tire rims in their place.

May 10, 1951
Dogs and other pets or poultry must not be allowed to run lose in the city limits of Newell, City Police Chief George Hafner warns owners of same this week, pointing out that they may be taken and killed. He also cautions owners of poultry and other pets to keep same within enclosures strong enough to protect them, pointing out that dogs which come into town from the country may destroy same before such animals may be taken up. Many dogs have been allowed to run loose recently and the fact that a dog is licensed does not exempt it from provisions of the City Ordinance, which provides that such animals should be taken up and killed when running loose.

The Newell School teaching staff for 1951-52 was announced by Supt G.W. Austin: all present instructors have renewed contracts with exception of Russell Mettler, Gordon Seifert and Robert Christianson who expect to be called to duty in the Armed Forces and Christenson will enter private industry. New instructors here are Mr. & Mrs. Myron L. Osterburg, both veterans of WWII, he of the Army and she

of WAC service. Mr. will teach music and social studies at both Newell and Vale while Mrs. Eva Spencer Osterburg will teach homemaking and art.

Beverly Johnson, daughter of Mr. & Mrs. George Johnson, Castle Rock is one of the students in the Vermillion Rodeo Club, preparing for the first annual rodeo to be staged at USD, Vermillion May 6-7. The USD Rodeo Club is a member of the Great Plains Regional Rodeo Conference which includes college clubs from WY, CO, KS, NE and SD. Male participants will include saddle brnc riding, bareback riding, bull ridding, calf roping, steer wrestling (bull dogging) and ribbon roping. The events for the co-eds including cloverleaf barrel racing, stake racing and goat typing. About half the membership in the USD Club includes women students.z

Valuable instruments for recording weather or atmospheric data were recovered for the National Science Foundation and the University of Minnesota last week by George DeJaeger, Hoover area rancher. DeJaeger noted the parachute and 2 plastic-foam encased packages in a field on his ranch. Enclosed directions advised to call a certain phone at the University from where he was instructed to ship them express collect to the University. DeJaeger and his sister Susan Verhulst had just had phone service installed at their ranch in time for reporting the discovery. The parachute was sent aloft a week ago from Minneapolis and it probably reached an altitude of 110,000 feet.

In renewing his subscription to the Valley Irrigator, Godfrey Youngberg writes from his home in El Cerrito, California that he has been a subscriber for over 50 years and still enjoys the hometown paper.

The fifth graders drummed to the tune of Happier by Marshmello. The buckets sounded in unison as they set the rhythm of the song.

First graders showed their dance skills as they danced to the Rakes of Mallow, an Irish Folk song.

The Kindergarten class sang and played to Hot Cross Buns.

Isen Kitzan and Millie Muckridge were part of the Kings and Queens Dance for the Kindergarten, First, and Second Grades.

The fifth grade band sounded off with Claire de La Lune.

Third and Fourth graders played Row Your Boat with ukuleles donated by several special people including the BH Energy, the Johnson Family, Eileen Stomprud, Wendt Trucking, the Smeenck Family, the Price Family, the Eppe Family, the Wulf Family and the Dell Family.
