Local Plant to Provide Storage Sheds To Four State Region

Serving four states, Old Hickory Sheds production plant, located just south of Frontier Auto Glass on US Highway 85. View is of open southwest door of production facility with a truck load of construction material adjacent the building. Plant has been operating about a month.

"A tradition of quality" is an appropriate label for Old Hickory Sheds, a Tennessee company that is known as "a leader you can trust" in the portable storage industry for over twenty years. That success has come from providing their customers with dependable storage solutions and a quality buying experience. Take notice Belle Fourche, the rapidly expanding Tennessee company is investing part of its future with us.

It was the soundness of that reputation and the opportunity to be a part of a progressive business enterprise that led Michael Dirks to move with his family from Missouri to western South Dakota. When asked about his relocation to the area, he commented, "We moved, largely to undertake this project, but we also liked the area and had some friends that live in the area, too." His background is in beef cattle and metal building industry. Prior to Missouri, Dirks spent 13 years in Wisconsin in the dairy business with his father. He projects a spirit of the work ethic gained in his dairy experience and his business acumen as he energetically talks about the business and the direction it is moving.

Dirks and his wife Sylvia live in Nisland. They have four children: Ty, age 12, Jordan, 9, Rachel, 8 and Jared 6. The four siblings will be attending Christian school in Newell this fall.

You may have noticed a large stock of storage sheds of various sizes and shapes just south of Belle Fourche on the east side of Highway 85. The property once belonging to Homer Moncur, was that purchased by Old Hickory Sheds.

During our spring's wet weather, the red metal skinned building underwent a steady transformation with the installation of work bay doors, partitioning and concrete flooring. The company which currently has five employees has been in production for about a month and has assembled and built, to date about forty units. Dirks stated, "when we've been rolling for a while that is a number that should only increase." The facility will provide the production for retail shed sales for a four state region: Western North and South Dakota as well as eastern Wyoming and Montana. The brick house on the property is being converted into an office and sales facility.

Old Hickory Sheds is a nationwide company that chose Belle Fourche to be the site of a regional "build facility". They will provide a wide assortment of shed possibilities from the production facility. Old Hickory owns the property and the facility and has contract with Dirks to build the sheds for the retail outlets in the four state region.

In addition to managing and operating the build operation, Dirks will also own and operate a retail outlet at the location. The "build" territory includes 100% of the Belle Fourche trade area plus a larger geographic area in all directions. The next closest build facilities are in Evanston, Wyoming and Billings, Montana. To the east there is a "build" facility in southwest Minnesota that serves that surrounding region. Old Hickory has over 700 independent retail outlets and they are

New Activities Director Nowowiejski Will Work to Showcase Students

Activities Director Adam Nowowiejski has been hard at work at his desk at Belle Fourche High School preparing for the soon to start 2019-2020 school year.

BEACON STAFF

news@bellefourchebeacon.com

BELLE FOURCHE - It seems only natural that an incoming activities director would hit the ground running and that's exactly what Adam Nowowiejski did. Nowowiejski, a local business owner and former BFHS football coach, was hired earlier this spring as the school district's new A.D. and has spent the last three months shadowing long-time outgoing director Clay Anderson.

"Holy cow, that was valuable information and learning form him first hand was just awesome," he said. "Clay did just done a phenomenal job with everything."

One thing Nowowiejski learned from his predecessor is that moving from head coach to activities director would be like night and day.

"For one thing it's managing all the different programs," he said. "You have numerous coaches and activity advisors. There are a lot of different personalities that you have to be able to communicate with and work together with to achieve the goal of which is making the experience the best possible for the kids and putting them in a position to be the most successful as possible."

Nowowiejski will be responsible for overseeing athletics, band, choir, FFA, one-act and drama among many other duties. But he says he is enjoying the challenge. He began meeting with coaches and directors in April and although he knew most of them already he says it's been a pleasure meeting some new faces as well.

"Essentially it was all about getting on the same page as them with the expectations and goals that we'd like to achieve," he said. "And I have some high aspirations and goals."

At the top of the list for Nowowiejski is what he calls "showcasing" the talent of the students within the Belle Fourche school district. He hopes to celebrate their achievements and "get them out front and center." By doing so he hopes to inspire other students around them to achieve greater things and have more ownership and pride in their school.

"One of the great challenges is - and it's a challenge everywhere - is to inspire and motivate kids to participate," Nowowiejski told the Beacon. "Obviously we have a great student body that participates in activities, but there's a lot of kids that can participate as well and I think they just need to have more ownership in their school; be inspired to have a say, have a voice."

"And I want them to have memorable experiences in high school and want to help create those experiences with them," he continued. "To create a more fun atmosphere, things

Lynn Alexander Stuen, age 46 of Newell, SD, passed away peacefully doing what he loved, on July 20, 2019 in an ATV accident.

Lynn was born to Wayne and Beverly (Voss) Stuen on October 28, 1972 in Rapid City. He grew up in Brownsville, SD and went to school in Lead/Deadwood. In 1995, he was engaged to Sandy Hammill of Newell, SD. They both worked side-by-side at Dunn Dairy of Vale, SD for 15 years. They were blessed with two boys, Kordell Alexander and Morgan Leroy. When he was young, he spent his time outside doing the things he loved; keeping the squirrel population down, fishing, filling stringer after stringer of fish, and taking his great-grandma Blanche's car for joy rides.

Lynn's favorite things were, first and foremost, his family and friends. He loved all of his "peeps". He loved hunting with his boys, fishing, snowmobiling, and let's not forget camping. His favorite song was "Time of Your Life", by Green Day.

Lynn will forever be the most loving, caring, and straight forward husband, father, and best friend any of us could have asked for. Lynn will be forever in our hearts and will be missed tremendously.

Irene Kinghorn 88

Irene Kinghorn, age 88 of Belle Fourche, died Sunday, July 28, 2019 at the Hospice House in Rapid City, with her loving family by her side.

Her life will be celebrated 10am Thursday, August 1, 2019 at the United Methodist Church in Belle Fourche, with Pastor Sheri Fadley officiating. Visitation will be held Wednesday at Leverington Funeral Home of the Northern Hills in Belle Fourche, from 5 to 7 pm, with a time of sharing at 6pm. Interment will take place in Black Hills National Cemetery.

Irene Christine Jacobsen (Kinghorn) was born September 14, 1930, in Lead, South Dakota in the home of a nurse friend (mid-wife) of her mother. She was the daughter of Jens and Roxie (Hopkins) Jacobsen. Irene grew up and attended country school in Carter County, Montana. At that time, to pass the 7th and 8th grade, students had to take and pass county achievement tests. Her Mother presided (proctored) over many of these tests for the area kids but obviously could not proctor over Irene's own testing.

Shortly after graduating from the eighth grade, Irene's parents sold the ranch to the Williams family. Florence & Shirley Hett, Irene and her mother moved to an apartment in the upstairs of the Prichett grocery store, at which time Irene started High School in Belle Fourche in the Fall of 1944. Shortly after that they moved to a house across from the Jail and in 1947 Irene and her mother moved to a house on 4th Ave. that her mother purchased. The house was large, so she boarded elderly persons and high school students to make ends meet. Her dad, Jens, worked for a rancher north of Belle Fourche, working long hours, Irene said Daddy hardly could come home.

After graduating from Belle Fourche High School in 1948, Irene enrolled in nursing school. She took a bus to Miles City to join the new students at which time they all took the train to Aberdeen to complete their 6-month probationary period. Upon completion, they received their caps and returned to Miles City for training. During the 3 years of training Irene joined her classmates in Glenn Lake, MN for 6 weeks to train at the tuberculosis sanitorium, and Creighton Hospital in Omaha NB for 3 months of psychiatric training. She completed her training in Miles City and graduated with a diploma in nursing in September 1951. After graduation, Irene passed the dreaded state boards and returned to Belle Fourche to work at John Burns Memorial Hospital. During this time, her Dad had a stroke and returned to the house in Belle Fourche. Her mother cared for him until his death in 1952.

Irene met Leonard Kinghorn at the St. Onge supper club while working in Belle Fourche. They were married in Belle Fourche in 1953. They lived at the home ranch at the Two-top Buttes until 1959 at which time they purchased and moved to a ranch on Redwater River located southeast of Belle Fourche. There they raised their 3 children, Patty (Thomas), Dave and Mike. The three children still live on the ranch.

Irene worked as a nurse in Belle Fourche for Drs. Marousek and Sherrill for many years, and at the Belle Fourche Medical Center with Jim Bohl, coming to know many of the residents of the area. After selling the cattle, Leonard and Irene purchased a motor home and set out on a journey to visit every state in the continental US and collect a magnet while there. Unfortunately, Leonard passed away in July of 2012 but apparently, they collected all 48.

Irene loved playing bridge, gambling in Deadwood and volunteering at the Tri-state Museum. She was devoted member of the United Methodist Church and participated in anything she could to stay busy. Four weeks ago, she was diagnosed with cancer and she passed away at the Hospice House in Rapid City on July 29th 2019.

Irene is survived by her children, Patricia (John) Thomas of Belle Fourche, David (Reggie) Kinghorn of Belle Fourche, Mike Kinghorn of Belle Fourche; 8 grandchildren, Jeff (Kelly) Thomas, Jeremy Thomas, Jennifer (Mark) Kennedy, Jessica (Kasey) Keller, Lyndsy Kinghorn, Krystina (Jerome) Kinghorn, Stefane (Darrel) Prawalsky, Shawn Damberger; and 8 great grandchildren, Bryn and Sophia Thomas, Nyla and Tara Kennedy, Noah and Finley Keller, and Elsie Doochen. She was preceded in death by her parents, and husband, Leonard. In lieu of flowers, memorials are preferred to Hospice of the Northern Hills or the Tri-State Museum.

Chamber Report

From Chamber Director Gary Wood

Why have a pie social?

Why have a pie social?
I have several reasons for the Chamber hosting a weekly pie social and one of those reasons was confirmed at our social on the 24th of July.

We had several visitors come that Thursday at 3pm because they had seen our sign we put out early that day.

Four of them were with a cement crew working a few miles out of town in the heat. They had seen the sign earlier in the day and came back to enjoy pie and lemonade in the shade in downtown Belle. That is a win for us! We created an event that brings people in from out of town. They noticed the promotional signage and thought that would give them some relief from the heat.

Four others came who were raised here but no longer live here. Their father was a business owner and they came not only to the pie social but the farmer's market as well. One of them remarked that the pie social was wonderful, and they enjoyed seeing this type of event happening in their old hometown.

Out of town people enjoying a summer event creates a memory for them that they take with them long after the pie and coffee is gone.

What are you, your business or organization doing to promote our community? To create an experience for the locals and the visitors who come our way?

Several columns ago I gave this definition of place-making: "Placemaking capitalizes on a local community's assets, inspiration, and potential, with the intention of creating public spaces that promote people's health, happiness, and well-being."

The Chamber is happy to have created one very small, simple event to accomplish the goal of place making. Please join us for pie! Bring a friend and start a trend.

4-H My Story: Colin Hockenbary

Colin Hockenbary, Center of the Nation 4-H Club

The following 4-H story was written in 2016. It merits publication as the Butte/Lawrence County Fair is underway. It illustrates the impact 4-H has on the lives of young people. Colin reflected in his story on one of the most influential years that 4-H has had on his life.

My name is Colin Hockenbary and I am a member of the Center of the Nation 4-H Club and this is my 7th year as a 4-H participant. I think we have finally settled into our new home in Belle Fourche, Last year we moved from Union Center to Belle Fourche. It was a huge change, but I do like it better here then I did there. There is a lot more to do in Belle Fourche. I can play football here where at Union Center I couldn't. I am also definitely more prepared for High School now than I was before.

This year at the Butte County Fair I was unable to show any animals. We were not able to show chickens this year because of the bird flu. They were worried that the disease would spread through the chickens of all those who show chickens and kill them. It is not a big problem on the west side of the state, but it is a very big problem on the eastern side and since the eastern side can't show chickens than neither can the western.

This year at the state fair we judged there for horticulture and consumer decision making. It is my first year as a senior and so it was my first year doing the group project at the state fair. There were three other people on my team: Corey Hockenbary, Payton Burtislafl, and Tessa Sleep. We showed up a little late to judge horticulture so I was very rushed to judge because I only had 10 minutes to complete the judging. However, I feel that I did very good this year in both horticulture and consumer decision making and the group think.

At State Shooting sports this year the whole group did great. We had multiple kids place in all kinds of different events throughout the competition. We also had over fifty kids go to state this year. I qualified for state shotgun this year along with Tee McCamis and Tate Olson but did not participate because of sports.

This year was a great year for my 4-H career because I did very well in all things I participated in. I did very well at both State Shooting Sports and the State Fair Judging contest. I also did very well at the Butte County Fair and qualified for State Shotgun. This was a very good and productive year for me and everyone I know that is involved with 4-H, and I can't wait for next year.

Updated and Energized Stone House Saloon Ready to Rally

Stone House Saloon was open for business on Friday July 26th. The “soft-tail” opening is a bit of a head start on the bikers and business that is appearing on the horizon. The weekend saw a smaller, but consistent groups stop in (if you call 300 and 450 bikes in a single pack smaller)

Nancy Henderson
news@bellefourchebeacon.com

Good news travels fast, and you won’t have to travel far heading west out of Belle Fourche on Highway 34, to learn that the beloved Stone House Saloon, now in its 20th year, is still in good hands. Purchased just before the 2018 Sturgis Motorcycle Rally by the Stonehouse to serve to the customers. If you don’t know how good ranch raised beef is you need to stop out and taste it! In addition to beef items the menu includes: Brats, Pulled pork, and chips. Liquid refreshments are served from three separate bars. Rumor is you can enjoy the best Bloody Mary around. There’s also a t-shirt stand offering a variety of merchandise. The Rally’s annual ride to Wyoming could see as many as 4,000 bikers stopping by the Stone House. Stacey says

House even after Rally-goers have departed. “We’re going to keep the place open for locals and late-season visitors, perhaps on a smaller scale,” explains Stacey. “We’ll see how things go. Maybe just weekend openings later on.” The only thing that’s set in stone at the Stone House Saloon is the guarantee that with the Besler name behind it, it has nowhere to go but better.

Rose Ann and Chris Besler

Chris and Rose Ann Besler, their son Adam and his wife Stacey, the Stone House has undergone some attractive innovations and additions for this year’s Rally while still retaining the country look loved by locals and visitors alike.

Managed by Adam and Stacey, the rustic little oasis on the north side of the highway has already become a beehive of activity with the Rally officially getting underway this Friday, August 2nd.

Notes Stacey, “A key change is the addition of more shaded areas which includes overhead coverage of the food-serving area as well as the restrooms. Rain or shine, we’re prepared!” The enterprise has expanded to include a concrete dance floor with live bands alternating every hour beginning at noon each day. Daily operating hours are 9am to 8pm, when the kitchen and bars are open.

Speaking of food... Besler’s home grown beef is a key feature on the menu. They use their own ranch raised beef at that maybe they haven’t seen before.” One of the first things that Nowowiejski will inaugurate early in the school year is a community tailgate party before every home football game. From 4 to 5:30pm before the 6pm kickoff there will be grilled food, drinks, performances by the competitive cheer team and the sideline cheerleaders and music by a newly formed jazz band that Darren Jackson, Band Director, has dubbed the Purple Haze. Nowowiejski has three of the four tailgaters already sponsored by local businesses. The first community tailgater will be August 30th before the Vermillion game.

“I’m just planning on it being a really fun atmosphere to be there for the community to come before the game,” he said. “We want to celebrate our kids more and showcase their abilities more. But I also think it’s important to get our community more involved,” he added. “Not from a fundraising standpoint, I just want them to share in the celebration of the student accomplishments and support them in all the activities that we have going on.” Nowowiejski is a native of Toledo, Ohio, where he graduated from Bowsher High School, having played four years of football. He attended two years at Defiance College in nearby Defiance, Ohio playing 2 years at wide receiver for the NCAA Division III school before transferring to Toledo University to finish his teaching degree. While at Toledo he played 2 years of semi-pro football for the Toledo Thunder and Toledo Tomahawks. During his time at Toledo U. he also met his soon to be wife, Traci, a native of Belle Fourche. After graduation the couple moved to Colorado for a short time before moving back to Belle Fourche in 2001. He taught and coached in Spearfish, Newell and most recently in Belle Fourche where he was head football coach for 7 years. In 2013 he and his wife opened Ski’s Pizzeria after having had experience in the restaurant business. Adam has turned over his Pizzeria duties to his wife Traci who has hired a general manager while she builds a new

Anything Left in the Barrel?

By: Doug Cole

School is starting in a couple of weeks. Saw this: "The teachers are afraid of the principals. The principals are afraid of the superintendents. The superintendents are afraid of the board of education. The board is afraid of the parents. The parents are afraid of the children. The children are afraid of nothing!"

One day a lady was driving on the highway. She frequently checked her speed gauge to make sure she stayed within the speed limit. However, when she looked into her rear mirror, much to her dismay, she saw a police car not far behind! And, to make matters worse, the police car turned on his flashing lights. She thought to herself, "Uh-oh, what have I done now? I'm not speeding. I'm not drinking. I have my seat belt on! My driver's license and insurance are current and everything!" So, she pulled over and the police car pulled over to the side right behind her car. She drove her car slowly to a stop, slowly rolled down the window, and prepared for a ticket when she knew she didn't deserve it. A policeman walked up to her window, and spoke to her. The lady pointed to her ear and shook her head, meaning she was deaf. The policeman smiled slightly, and knowing sign language, signed back, "I know. I'm here to tell you that your horn is stuck."

If the Rapid City Journal wants you to give them your two cents worth and it's "a penny for your thoughts", then aren't they making a penny off your comments?

I'd rather be a could-be if I cannot be an are; because a could-be is a maybe who is reaching for a star. I'd rather be a has-been than a might-have-been, by far; for a might have-been has never been, but a has was once an are.

The Beacon was contacted by the SD Newspaper Association about the possibility of placing an ad with us.

That intrigued us, so after their email we "fished" around on their website: www.sdna.com.

It has a directory that lists all the newspapers in South Dakota and their circulations.

The top twelve and frequency are:

1. Sioux Falls Argus Leader (Daily) circ. 20,513;
2. Rapid City Journal (Daily) circ. 15,834;
3. Aberdeen American News (Daily) 9,960;

4. Mitchell Daily Republic (Daily) 8,163;
5. Watertown Public Opinion (Daily) 7,730;
6. Yankton Daily Press & Dakotan 6,403;
7. Tim Giago's Rapid City Native Sun News (Weekly) 5,818;
8. Huron Plainsman (Daily) 5,745;
9. Brookings Register (Daily) 4,721;
10. Spearfish Black Hills Pioneer (Daily) 3,963;
11. Martin Lakota Country Times (Weekly) 3,834
12. Milbank Grant County Review (Weekly) 3,162

We were surprised and gratified that our circulation of 8,600 would place us at the fourth largest newspaper circulation in South Dakota! In addition, largest among all the weeklys; and second largest of western South Dakota papers.

The Beacon is not on the SD Newspaper Associations list because you have to be a legal newspaper to join the association.

The first requirement of becoming a "legal newspaper" in South Dakota is to publish at least once weekly for 51 out of 52 weeks of the year. The Beacon believes that publishing for one year is a good rule. We will pass that milestone later this year.

Another current requirement is the type of Postal Permit required. We currently distribute the paper to 100% of households in the area. Under permit qualifications we would be restricted in that distribution. You may not distribute to a number more than equal to your number of paid subscribers. We have had good subscription support from you, the readers, but hope you will help us over the next several months in our efforts to become a legal newspaper.

We will maintain the current distribution and again will ask if you feel that the news, information, and advertisements that make up the Beacon are of value to you to please show your support by way of a yearly subscription. We thank you for your consideration and as well as a thank you to those that have already subscribed throughout the past year and will to continue to participate by renewing for the second year.

We always feel a little embarrassed mentioning the need for you help with subscriptions but was reminded by this quote: The fool wonders, the wise man asks. Benjamin Disraeli Patriotism is supporting your country all the time, and your government when it deserves it. Mark Twain

You can lead a man to Congress, but you can't make him think. Milton Berle

This is a American adaptation of a Benjamin Disraeli quote. The difference between a misfortune and a calamity is this: If a member of Congress falls into the Potomac River, it would be a misfortune. But if someone dragged them out again, that would be a calamity.

Disraeli went on to speak of Gladstone: He was distinguished for ignorance; for he had only one idea, and that was wrong.

Tri-State Museum and Visitor Center to hold class on "Kitchen Chemistry"

The Tri-State Museum and Visitor Center will hold a class for kids in rising 4th through 6th grade, entitled "Kitchen Chemistry" on Friday, August 9 from 10 to noon. The class will be taught by summer staffer Ally Drabek.

This class will introduce some basic concepts of chemistry using household items and include experiments demonstrating the sensory difference between natural and artificially produced scents and flavors; producing endothermic reactions in eggs and reproducing stomach acidity with basic household acids, such as lemon juice and vinegar.

"Kitchen Chemistry" will also include a short film, a work-book and drawing for the book "Eyewitness: Chemistry."

The Tri-State Museum and Visitor Center has not done a class of this kind before but instructor Drabek is enthusiastic about its prospects. "It can help broaden a child's horizons in sciences," she said. "It also takes place just a few weeks before school begins and could help get them back into thinking about school."

Admission to the class is $3 per student, or free with museum membership. Pre-registration is required, so that sufficient materials can be created. Call 605-723-1200 to pre-register.

The Good Stuff

Jim Thompson takes motivational stories that listeners and readers send him and incorporates them into the program. It has been on the air for more than 10 years.

there are so many simple analogies in life that all we have to do is pay attention. This one is another great example of how easy life would be if we could handle difficulties better.

Lessons from an Oyster

Author Unknown

There once was an oyster
Whose story I tell,
Who found that some sand
Had got into his shell.
It was only a grain,
but it gave him great pain.
For oysters have feelings

Although they’re so plain.

Now, did he berate
the harsh workings of fate
That had brought him
To such a deplorable state?

Did he curse at the government,
Cry for election,
And claim that the sea should
Have given him protection?
“No,” he said to himself
As he lay on a shell,
Since I cannot remove it,
I shall try to improve it.

Now the years have rolled around,
As the years always do,

And he came to his ultimate Destiny stew.

And the small grain of sand
That had bothered him so
Was a beautiful pearl
All richly aglow.

Now the tale has a moral,
for isn’t it grand

What an oyster can do
With a morsel of sand?

What couldn’t we do
If we’d only begin
With some of the things
That get under our skin.

South Takes Over as K-12 Principal

BETTY BRUNER
news@bellefourchebeacon.com

NEWELL – When K-12 Principal Jennifer Nehl turned in her resignation last January the Newell School Board began the hunt to find a replacement. One was found in the person of Doug South, who has come with a diverse background.

South has a BA in physical education, an MA in Education and over 35 years of experience in education, athletics, and administration.

His career in education began in California as a high school and junior college football coach, teacher, and athletic director. In 2010 he and wife, Josie, moved to Idaho seeking college/semi-pro football opportunities with Sports Management.

While in Idaho he was vice principal at a junior/senior high school with about 450 students.

By 2017 he was on staff at Trinity Bible College in Ellendale, ND where he coached football, was an Adjunct Professor in the Coaching Education program, a football camp coach, and a visiting minister.

Just prior to coming to Newell, South was in local ministry in Kenmare, ND.

As he accepts the challenge of being principal, South looks forward to developing teachers and students.

“My focus is to assist teachers and staff to be successful in their subject areas or assigned duties,” said South. “Teachers know their curriculum, I will support them and help them accomplish what they need to do.”

He says that he will be visible to students and teachers so that anyone will feel free to approach him with issues and ideas. As long as he is not having a private meeting, the hallway door will always be open and he will be available.

One of his desires is to find out what’s good from the teachers, students and the community to build on. Then to discover what is not working and change that. Shortcomings will be considered and an approach negotiated, he said.

“I want to let everybody see what can be done,” he added.

A foremost emphasis will be to maintain an orderly school environment. His desire is to teach students to be a well-rounded individual. A united front is a priority. Rules are important, South maintains, but it’s important that there are not so many that they can’t be enforced. There are class rules and school rules South pointed out, the essential part is to enforce the rules and make them clear to the students.

South and his wife look forward to the future as a part of the Newell community and settling into their life here.

The Newell Sheepyards has about 1000 head of lambs coming up for sale at the years on the south edge of Newell. The sale will be August 1.

The Newell Improvement Committee will have a booth at the Butte/Lawrence County fair, with a scale model of the splashpad they are working to construct in Newell’s North Park. He helped the church to build a new sanctuary, Christian Education building gym and youth center. Finally, in August of 2010 he resigned to give his full attention to the Christian Worship Hour. church, he made many friends, officiating at a variety of services other than his regular Sunday morning messages. His good humor and practical jokes were well-known by many in the area.

He has four children: Sharon, Daniel, Patty, and Michael, 12 grandchildren and 13 great-grandchildren. His wife, Beulah, went to be with the Lord on Christmas Eve, 2005.

Pastor Salem has had a long,

Sheep Shear, Show and Shine Social

Caleb McGregor, Charlie and Kelsi Clements, get ready to receive some pointers from judge Josh Kitzan to prepare for the Butte/Lawrence county fair -Brunner photo

NEWELL – Monday, July 23, Dave and Holly Ollila, Newell, hosted the first-ever Sheep shear, show and shine social at their farm southeast of Newell. “We saw a need,” said Dave Ollila “We wanted to help kids get ready for the fair.” The Butte/Lawrence county fair begins on July 30. “Maybe some of them (4-H clubs) prepare somehow, but our kids never have had someone show them what to do,” said Luaine Shaykett of Nisland, who brought two of her kids to learn the ropes. “Levi (McTaggart) was going around to all these farms shearing sheep, and I just thought it would be better if he could do it all at once here,” said Holly Ollila. The social, included the opportunity to have sheep sheared from 5 to 7:30 p.m. at the Ollila farm, practice fitting shorn and wool sheep as instructed by Tate Ollila and Josh Kitzan, and show practice and instruction by Josh Kitzan and Dave Ollila. The Ollila’s invited all 4-H members to participate in all or some of the activities. They asked for children to RSVP, due to the fact that the couple provided a hot dog, chips and drinks supper for the kids. Others brought a dessert to share. Children invited needed to be involved in 4-H, and provide the number of sheep they were planning to bring. Around 20 kids attended the event and Kitzan gave tips and pointers from the perspective of a judge in the ring. “You want to keep to this side of the sheep,” said Kitzan, explaining that the 4-Her needed to keep the side facing the judge needed to be kept smooth. “That’s the show side.” He also allowed the kids to ask questions to better prepare themselves for the show ring.

Austin Auditorium Floor Resurfaced

news@bellefourchebeacon.com

NEWELL – “The fundraising for the gym floor started around February of 2019,” said Steve Schoenfish, athletic director for the Newell school district. “The donations varied in size.”

Schoenfish said that the floor needed to be resurfaced as it was around 15-years-old and had several areas that the finish was starting to peel, making for a very slippery surface, which is dangerous to the athletes.

Following the fundraising process, the school hired Derkson Floors of Rapid City to do the refinishing, as they were the company that originally put the floor in.

The refinishing has been a process, but it didn’t take very long. The company began on July 15 and the work went fairly quickly. They finished the process on July 22, but it will be August 8 before the floor will be able to be used.

Letters were sent out to many in the local area to announce the fundraising campaign. At that time the floor, which was installed in 2004-2005, was showing age and wear. The expected cost was to be approximately $20,000, and at the time the letters were sent out the school had already raised around $7,000 toward the renovation.

There will be a wall of fame featured on the north end of the gymnasium, where two foot by three-foot placards will be hung, celebrating the donations as well as promoting the business or family history.

The donation fees were: 1 year-$300, 3 year-$500, and 5 year-$1000. There is an option to renew the donations on June 31 of the corresponding year they expire.

The vision for Austin Auditorium was to provide a safe place for the students/athletes, as well as create an inviting environment for family, friends and visiting towns.

“We feel our school is the hub for not only the students, but also the community to get together and socialize while cheering on local teams,” said Schoenfish. “Newell school is very grateful or all the support the Newell/Nisland/Vale, and the surrounding areas have provided for us, and we hope to continue making Austin Auditorium a facility we can all be proud of.”

Schoenfish said he wanted to thank all the businesses and community members who donated to the project.

“We could not have done it without the support of all of them,” said Schoenfish. “If interested, there is still the option of purchasing a 2x3 placard to advertise a business, ranch or farm and help support the maintenance of the floor.

The beginning on July 15. This machine stripped the surface off the floor in Austin Auditorium and the process, that took just a week, began. -Courtesy photo

Then and Now in Newell

John Papowich was drowned Sunday afternoon while attempting to cross the storage reservoir dam at Owl Creek. The young man, in company with some of his countrymen, was in swimming and one of the men crossed the pond. Papowich attempted to follow and when near the middle of the pond, he was seized with cramps and sank before his companions could rescue him.

There will be box social and dance in the Sam Aultz building Saturday, August 7. The ladies requested to each bring a lunch which will be sold for fifty cents. The proceeds of the dance and supper will go to the baseball team. Come out and help the boys.

Mintener warns, coal is cheaper now then it will be later on. There is no advantage in waiting, in fact, you may not be able to get all of the “Labeled Coal” you want if you wait until July or August. Thousands of cars will be needed to move the grain crops and there will not be enough cars for both grain and coal. Better buy now it’s a duty you owe your family and community. This announcement brought to you by Peter Mintener Lumber Company, on 3rd St, Newell.

On Wednesday morning a train-load of stock left Newell for St. Louis; 28 cars made up the train and 1 of these cars contained hogs, the balance was load of 375 horses comprised the shipment.

Dale Tribby of Sturgis, who has been buying horses in this section, shipped 375 head and Wendt and Horton Bros of near Castle Rock shipped 3 cars. An additional 25 cars were shipped this week from Belle Fourche.

A survey from the air confirmed the judgment of those who selected Rushmore Mountain for the National Monument, Gutzon Borglum, the sculptor, said today. He took a 3-hour air plane trip over the Black Hills Sunday and decided it was no other mountain standing out to a degree that anyone could suggest, why wasn’t it put there. Mount Rushmore was selected after a survey from the ground; this was his first view from the air. Mrs. Boglum, their son Lincoln, Mrs. Lorraine Spootz, Corpus Christi, Texas a photographer and newspapermen were also onboard.

M. E. Hafner received a call from Belle Fourche this week asking him to be on the lookout for a Stewart-Warner truck loaded with 14 sacks of wool, stolen from one of the wool warehouses in Belle Fourche early Saturday morning. No trace of the robbers had been reported this week.

August 3, 1939

W.J. Mahoney and Jack Ryan of the Stratosphere Mattress Service, Rapid City, were business callers here the middle of the week and last Friday moved their equipment to Newell to locate temporarily in the old Dunn Building, they plan to be here several weeks. Fred Baker and Mrs. Hubbard are the additional members of the crew. They will be building and rebuilding cotton and innerspring mattresses and doing upholstering. The name “Stratosphere” was adopted after they had completed a cushion upon which the camera equipment used in the stratosphere flights was mounted. The cushion is now on display with the other equipment at the World’s Fair.

Virginia, 7-year old daughter of Mr. & Mrs. Wm. Wise of Newell suffered a severe concussion of the brain last Saturday evening when she fell from a box car near the depot, where she had been playing. She was brought to the local hospital for treatment but did not regain consciousness until Sunday morning, when she was taken to Rapid City for further treatment.

July 28, 1949

The 2-motor airplane which made such an impression in Newell on Tuesday wasn’t a mystery to Mr. & Mrs. Anton Kulisch, All though it did have many here guessing. It was flown by T/Sgt John Kulisch of the US Marines, Cherry Point, North Carolina. Kulisch had flown the plane to Rapid City Air Base Sunday and drive up to visit his folks and other relatives while the plane was being overhauled. He checked out Tuesday and made several passes over Newell in the process, before leaving for his Base Wednesday. The black plane he piloted is a F7F, “Tiger”, a fast and powerful model.

Mr. & Mrs. Reggie Pickard, owners of the Arcade Theater at Newell now know the movie business from start to finish, having returned from a several weeks trip to the west coast. They revealed one of the highlights was seeing four films actually in production in Hollywood. At the MGM watched production of “Stars in My Crown” starring Joel McCrea, Alan Hale and Dean Stockwell; at Warner Bros Studios “Chained Lightning” with Humphrey Bogart, Richard Whorf, Ray Massey and Eleanor Parker and at RKO were 2 films “Bed of Roses” and “Terror”. They were privileged to spend one night at the residence of Jane Darnell, another movie star.

It’s OK to strip mow cover on soil bank land according to Thomas E. Hamilton Director of the Soil Bank Division of Department of Agriculture. There is nothing in the Conservation Reserve regulations which would prevent mowing of the established cover so long as there was no harvesting of the material mowed and so long as the mowing does not destroy any of the cover.

Attention has been called to the fact that an adult in the city was nearly on the receiving end of some air rifle pellets one afternoon last week. Air rifles are fine instruments for use in safety and marksmanship training, but it is illegal for same to be fired within the city limits of Newell. Sometime earlier all the windows were shot out of a motor vehicle believed to be shot out by a child with an air rifle, but could not be identified. State law now makes parents financially responsible for all damages caused by their children, but parents are also morally responsible to see that our children are taught both obedience and respect for laws and city Ordinances.

August 1, 1979

July has had the most humidity recorded since 1962 and it was muggy. Thunderstorms and some severe wind struck the night of July 24 & 25 and early 26. In all, the rain fell, temperatures hit the high 90’s and nights were in the high 50’s. Humidity was up to 86% at times. On July 24 morning, the mosquitoes were so bad that they covered humans like pepper.

Tri-County Lockers’ new building in Newell, to be used for slaughtering beef, pork and mutton, will open for business, hopefully, within two weeks. Carl & Mark Jarnecke, owners, say they can hold 8 beef at a time in the new 44’x28’ kill facility. A state inspector, who was looking over the operations July 15, complemented the men on installing such an up-to-date sanitary slaughtering plant which far exceeds required state, county and city sanitation regulations. Butchering will be done strictly by appointment, 2 or 3 days a week.

Sallmen Cousins’ Reunion in Vale

Forty Finnish descendants and friends of the John Sallmen Family of Oulainen, Finland met at the Vale Community Center July 13, 2019 for a meal catered by Terri Brunch, Sturgis, of the Felion branch of the relationship. Carolyn and Bob Ruff and Orville and Kathy Edqards of Vale were hosts. Carolyn, as MC, read notes of information from family members unable to attend and a table prayer sent by Charlotte Pauley, Claremore, Oklahoma.

For the 9th Triennial gathering of the family group people traveled from six states: North Dakota, Minnesota, Nebraska, Iowa, North Carolina, and South Dakota. Cheryl Hofer, Spearfish, and Gayle Cutshall, Rapid City, registered the guests. The largest proportion of the guests were descendants of Matthias and Liisa Haivala who settled in Harding County in 1900.

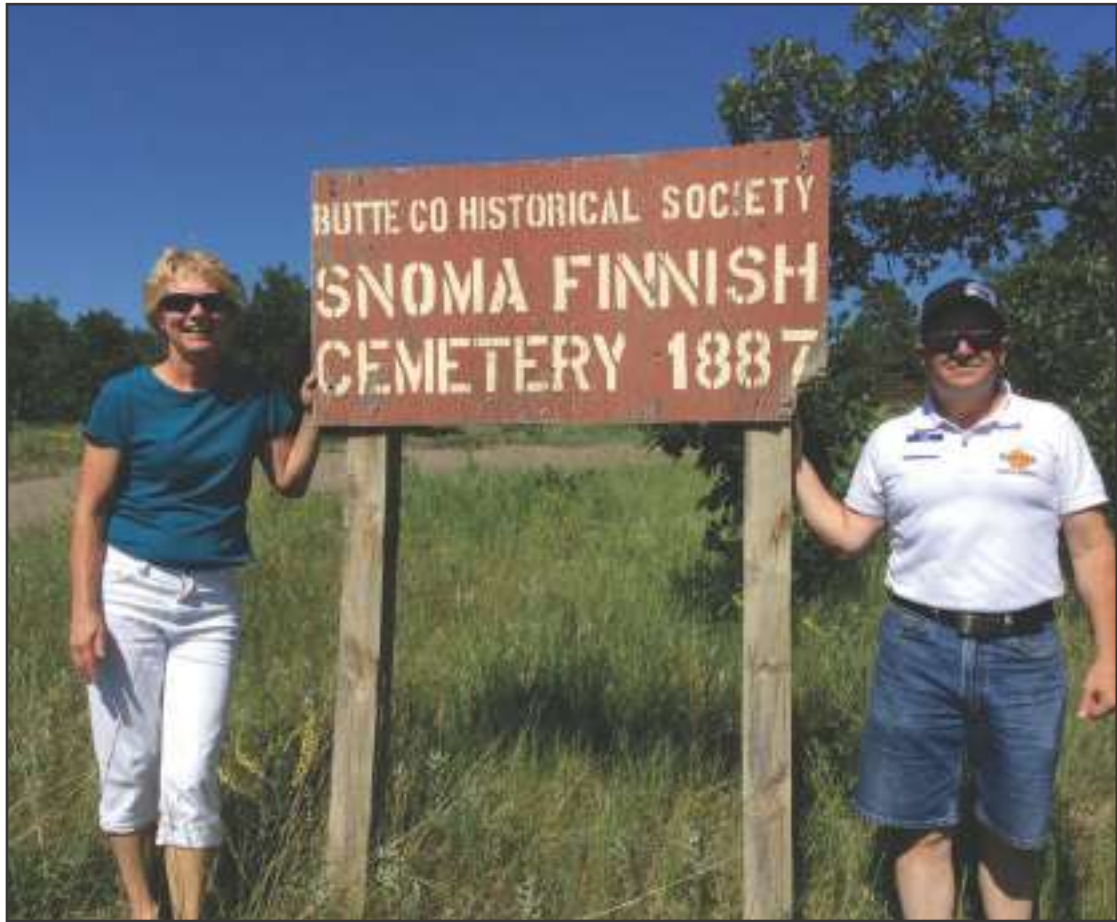

For the first time, the branch of the Ericson/Karinen family were represented at the reunion. Sharon Auldritch of Burnsville, MN played a recording of a country song written by her father, Bill Karinen of Harding County and Spearfish. Annette Oppedahl of Chapel Hill, Norht Carolina and rural Deadwood told of her September 2018 trip to Finland, which included a visit in Oulainen from which all the descendants present had roots. The beautiful parish church there, surrounded by a large cemetery was served by Sallman family members for seven generations. Positions included assistant pastor, ccantor or song leader, administrator, and supervisor of building and grounds. Mrs. Oppedahl also told of the subway system which now serves Helsinki. In comparison to the American diet Finnish people generally eat more fish; berries, both wild and domesticated; mushrooms; whole grain breads, especially rye; and fermented milk products with much less sugar than in the US. Also, fairly recent is much ferry traffic of workers and tourists traveling between Helsinki and Tallin, the capitol of Estonia. The 90 minute trip is south across the Baltic Sea. Since the fall of the iron curtain and Estonia becoming a free country the “Olde Town” is being restored and is a very popular tourist site, one of the best old towns of Europe. Thge large stone wall surrounds cobblestone streets and buildings dating back to the 1600’s. Mrs. Oppedahl concluded her presentation by reading the Lord’s Prayer in Finnish so attendees could hear the native language of the Sallmen ancestors. Some attendees visited Snoma Finnish Cemetery where the oldest South Dakota family member, Marie Liisa Sallman, who immigrated in 1881, is buried. Donations, after expenses, will be divided between the Vale and Snoma Cemeteries.

Because of the age of current committee members this reunion of the Sallmen cousins was the last unless younger people volunteer to organize it.

Springtime in the Gumbo by Bill Karinen
Well, it’s springtime on the Gumbo when the prairie is in bloom
Away from the cities rattle and the gas and diesel fuel.
I ride the ridge at sunup to turn the “old drop band”;
The picture that I see in the distance...Painted by the Creator’s hand.

Patty and Ross Brown, Rapid City are shown at Snoma Finnish Cemetery during the recent Sallmen Cousins Reunion.

Third Ticket Probable Mr. Whitney Says Republicans Make It Necessary Solid Silver Vote Cannot Be Opposed by Solid Gold Vote, if Democrats Must Vote for McKinleyism as Well as for McKinley – silver Cause Spreading and the East Doubtful
New York, July 24 – Mr. W. C. The general situation is far worse today, in my opinion that it was days ago.”

Against Jewish Autonomy Polish Catholic Israelite Patriot Party Protests in Open Letter to the Allies.
Warsaw, July 28 – The Polish Catholic Israelite patriot party has published an open letter addressed to the allies, protesting against Jewish autonomy in Poland and particularly against the schools, which, it says, “raise a Chinese wall between citizens of the same country. We are deeply grieved at this both as Poles (for it is an insult to our country), and as Israelites, since the hopes we had formed concerning our relations at home have become vain. We appeal to your consciences to remove this restrictive clause.”

Harvest Operations Getting Under Way in Tri-State Area
Last Week’s Fair and Warm Spell Rapidly Maturing Crops. County Agent Floyd F. Collins reports that harvest operations of field crops have already started in some parts of the county, that fair and warm spell prevailing the past week rapidly maturing many of the fields, and the farmers are anxious to get those crops in shock as soon as possible to avoid damage by unexpected hail and heavy rain storms that usually pop up at this time of the year. Lon Newell, of the Tri-State Milling Company, says that many of the grain farmers over in Crook county, Wyoming, are planning to get into their fields within a week or so.

Capitol News

KAREN ODELL

news@bellefourchebeacon.com

Last Saturday was the community fish fry in the Long Pines for the people of Capitol and Tie Creek. The weather was perfect and it was a great time. This week brought dryer weather and everyone is busy in the hay fields. Still we had a couple of showers to keep things green.

Erma and Dick Albert went to Spearfish on Thursday to pick up their other lawn mower. It is a good year to have them running. They went to church on Sunday and then went to Saloon Number Three for lunch with Father Ed, the Erks and a visitor from Salem, SD. Father Ed had been given a turtle for the Reva Turtle Races, so he was anticipating the race.

Gordon ‘Pete’ Anderson went to church in Camp Crook on Sunday and then went to the Over The Edge where he had lunch with the Tills.

Alvin Cordell has been busy haying all week. Marlee went to Belle Fourche to visit her mother for a couple of days and do some work for her. They went to the park one night to hear the Northern Hills Band play a concert. It is a very large band and the concert was wonderful. Marlee had a report that the lost German Shepherd dog had gone all the way to Alzada, where Kelsey Lawrence finally coaxed it to her, so the dog is lucky to have a good friend, now. Wish that dog could tell us how far he traveled and where he came from.

Bruce and Lynn Gustafson are entertaining lots of mosquitoes this week. Lynn got home from Alabama last Tuesday, and was gone during the hail storm. Last year she was gone for the tornado, so I think the neighbors are reluctant to let her leave again. Bruce has been busy in the hay field and is glad to have regular meals again.

The Lewis Reunion is coming to an end on Sunday. It was another great weekend. There were 10 campers, 1 van, 7 tents and 7 dogs visiting. John Ferris was there from San Diego. He is the fiancé of Lee’s cousin. Don Hirschfield, son of Lee’s sister Barbara, had won some fireworks in Sioux Falls, so he brought them and set them off on Friday night. They were beautiful with no wind and plenty of green, wet ground below. The waterslide down the hill was an even bigger success than last year’s. Pam is going to leave it there for next year, but warned her mother not to go skiing down it this winter. Many people had already gone home on Sunday evening, so it was becoming quiet.

Dorothy Padden drove to Laurel, MT on Monday to spend the week with her son, Brett’s family. All of their kids were home and she got to visit the Brett and Stacie, Steffanie’s family for Colstrip, Easton from Colorado Springs, and Jess from Bozeman. She had a great time and came home on Friday.

Charlie Odell did brand inspecting for Heather and Wacey Kornemann on Saturday. It seems that Heather and Wacey will be moving to California. They are taking their horses and dogs, and will head west in a few days. They both have become quite proficient in the California Style horse training. Wacey had gone to California to judge that style of horse shows, and both had learned the training at various clinics. This style and ease of horse training and breaking has become very popular. We will sure miss them at Capitol (no matter what color Heather’s hair is), but we wish them the best in their adventure, and hope they keep in touch with Capitol. There may not be tornadoes in California, but after looking at the map, they look to be a little close to the San Andreas Fault. I wonder if you get in the bathtub for an earthquake. I guess every place has its difficulties.

Charlie Odell has been swathing and baling. He had physical therapy at Buffalo on Tuesday and Thursday. Lonnie and Lisa Koranda visited on Tuesday. They had saved some food that they brought for the Odell cats. On Thursday, Charlie went to Ian and Jenna Flatgaard’s to inspect for Capitol, Seamont and McGinnis. Charlie visited his surgeon for a follow-up appointment for his shoulder replacement. Karen spent time freeze drying fruit, writing and producing music, and still mowing. After about six years of back and leg pain, Karen learned (on YouTube) a way to pinpoint the source of the trouble. If those YouTube physical therapists knew this, you would think some back specialists would have done something. She decided to look in YouTube after she had found a video showing how to fix her freeze dryer. And that is also after the MRI’s, X-rays, Ultra-Sounds, and the many hundred-mile drives for a five-minute consult with a specialist that just sent her home and scheduled another appointment. The YouTube’s video had a whole program, just for the SI joint that Karen had probably injured by building heavy rock sidewalks or sliding in softball. The exercises are waking up those painful areas, but she now has some hope for improvement. On Sunday, Charlie and Karen went to the Over The Edge for lunch. As always, Diane had a great special. She has memorized her clientele, and can even predict their order. If they got laryngitis, the girls would still serve them exactly what they want. Sarslands had made the trip over to Camp Crook without their bikes. I guess there were visiting bikers in the bar, because when the bikes left town, Sarslands were still eating.

On Monday, Ronda Cordell took Oren Basler and Jayda Westling to Jon Hamilton’s in Rapid City before going to an appointment. She took Oren to visit Curt, Krista, Caden and Carson Zolnoski, and they all went to the Golden Corral for supper. Ronda spent the night with Cristen and Jon. Diane Wear had come out to the ranch to do chores and took Arlie Basler back to town with her. Ronda had a tooth extracted on Tuesday, then came back to Spearfish for a chiropractor appointment. Denise Zolnoski had been there that day, too, and they asked Ronda if they were related. They wanted to return Denise’s insurance card. Oren and Jayda accompanied Ronda home. Joey Douglas had been visiting Diane Wear and left on Tuesday for North Dakota to be with his family. Oren and Jayda did some fishing Wednesday, and then went with Ronda to picked Arlie up in town and eat supper. On Thursday, Oren told Ronda he wanted to go ‘home’. When she told him he couldn’t go for about a week, he told her he didn’t mean to Missouri. He meant ‘home to the Bergstrom place’. So they gathered the trash up to take to the dump and spent some time looking around and reminiscing at the Bergstrom place before they headed to Dan Davis’s to fish. Jack Ovitz came by for coffee on Friday. When Arlie and Jayda went to play with Darby Zolnoski, Trig had surgery to remove a bone chip from his heel in Spearfish on Monday after a bull dogging injury, but all went well and now he’s got one of those walking boots on. Sterling Lee and Trig are both recovering from rodeo wrecks, so they went fishing at Mobridge with Sterling’s grandparents Willard and Barb Swanke and caught a lot of fish.

I had a parts run to Hettinger on Tuesday and got the oil changed on my pickup at RZ Motors that afternoon. I stopped at the nursing home to visit with Bea Verhulst and Crystal Hanna a little while and Crystal told me her son Tim Hanna is moving to Florida.

I visited with Bill Vroman this week about the 4-7 outfit that Seab Ledbetter wrote about in his letters to Buck Olson back in 1955 and 1956. The 4-7 brand belonged to Bill and Horace Stevenson who ranched in the Slim Buttes in the late 1800s and early 1900s. That big log barn sitting south of Jim Thybo’s old ranch was built by them. Bill also told me that he and Verona are moving to Belle Estate, just up the road from Judy’s Assisted Living in Belle Fourche where they live now.

Taz was up at the rodeo in Deadwood Wednesday morning, so Amanda and the kids went down to see him before he headed on to rodeos in Livingston and Helena, Montana. He got home for a few days this Saturday.

There were two Great Western Cattle Trail meetings this week. The first was in Bowman Thursday. Darrell Dorgan, Jim Ozbun and I met with the Rotary Club at the Pioneer Trails Museum. Ron Palczewski, John Hanson, and Steve Brooks are working to get the GWCT posts set up from the South Dakota line to Amidon along Highway 85. One of the obelisks will be placed in front of the Slope County courthouse at Amidon.

Reub was too busy in the hayfield to make it to his appointment with Mary Eggebo on Friday so I got to see her instead. She made me feel really good. Lanie and the kids came down from Dickinson that evening and Trig got home from his fishing trip.

I got a nice note from Dan Parker from Gettysburg this week. He said not much is going on in his part of the world, mostly emptying rain gauges, mowing lawns, talking about haying, and swatting flies and mosquitos. The B.C. comic strip he sent me was a guy asking how to keep the capital city clean? The answer: term limits. How very true! Dustin and Dana Tenold got to be grandparents this week when Brandon and Heather Tenold had a baby girl. The new grandparents have gone down to Georgia to meet little Annalise Claire. Congratulations!

The second Great Western Cattle Trail meeting was Saturday at the High Plains Western Heritage Center in Spearfish following the celebration of the Day of the American Cowboy that started at 11:00 with Joe Spiller speaking about books he had written, including “What Wind Did You Ride In On” that he had printed to commemorate the National Day of the American Cowboy.

I was asked to speak about the bill that Sen. Billie Sutton and I brought in 2014 to make the fourth Saturday in July the Day of the American Cowboy. When I was in the House, Oren and Ronda went back to the Bergstrom place to chop weeds from the yard. Chad Zolnoski came for the weekend, and Curt’s family came to Clint’s to do a kitchen project as an early Christmas present for Denise. Ronda took food to Clint’s for supper. Debby and Roudy Zolnoski had arrived from the Minot ND State Fair. Gene Secrest had been helping with haying and Kim, Gene and Marilyn Secrest came to spend the weekend.

George Oleson will be getting closer to home this week. His heart surgery was a difficult one, but he is now improving enough to move from Salt Lake to a rehab center closer to home. We sure do thank the people trained in nursing in our community. Even after retirement, they have helped out in lots of emergencies. Janice Harbaugh is still waiting for her surgery, but it never hurts to keep everyone in your prayers.

Rodeo Legend J Pat Evans Dies

COLORADO SPRINGS, Colo. – The rodeo and sports world lost a legend and pioneer in Dr. J. Pat Evans.

Evans, one of the founders of Justin Sportsmedicine Program, who was inducted into the ProRodeo Hall of Fame in 2004, passed away July 22. He was 88.

The Justin Sportsmedicine program was initiated at the 1980 National Finals Rodeo in Oklahoma City and Evans, along with Don Andrews, was a driving force in making that happen.

Before Evans envisioned the Justin Sportsmedicine, program and worked to get it started, there wasn't anything organized for providing medical care to rodeo athletes. In 1981, the Justin Boots Company became the only sponsor the program has known in its years of service.

"Justin Sportsmedicine was my dream," Evans told 1978 PRCA World Champion Bull

Rider Butch Kirby one time in conversation. "He was like a father to all of us. Cowboys used to go to Forest Lane in Dallas to see Dr. J. Pat so they could get fixed up. When he fixed cowboys and we won, he won also."

ProRodeo Hall of Fame bull rider Donnie Gay knows Evans is irreplaceable. "The world is a better place because he was here," Gay said.

Rick Foster, who is the program director for the Justin Sportsmedicine team, was glad to have known Dr. J. Pat.

"He was mentor for all of us, and great educator of rodeo sports medicine, and the best professional friend anyone could have," Foster said.

And, Evans loved treating cowboys. "The cowboys are the toughest guys on the planet," Evans said through Dee Chambliss, a family friend prior to his passing.

The reach of Evans' influence in sports medicine is far and wide, and especially on Dr. Tandy Freeman, the Medical Director of the Justin Sportsmedicine team.

"To begin with, he (J. Pat) was one of my mentors," Freeman said. "He is one of the people who has had a profound impact on my life. I wouldn't be where I am, doing what I'm doing, if it hadn't been for J. Pat. When I first met Dr. Evans, I was a resident in training, I hadn't decided what I wanted to do. I was doing an orthopedic surgery residency, but I hadn't decided what area I wanted to focus my attention on whether it was going to be sports medicine, double-joint replacement or something else."

"The thing about J. Pat that was the most influential on me was witnessing the relationships he had with his patients. How he talked to them and took care of them. It was a really personal form of medicine, nowadays it would be considered old-fashioned. He helped me determine how I wanted to go about dealing with patients and taking care of patients."

Then, Freeman made the choice to practice what Evans did. "I decided I wanted to do sports medicine and then one day he called me up and said he was getting ready to retire and he wanted to know if I was interested in taking care of his old patients," Freeman said. "That had huge implications because he was really talking about the rodeo athletes he had taken care of over the years. The Justin Sportsmedicine torch is still his, I'm just holding it to pass it on."
