Beacon to Celebrate 3rd Anniversary of Publication of the Paper

June 28, 2018 the first copy of a Belle Fourche Beacon showed up in area mailboxes and has continued publication since.

Creation of the Beacon came on the heels of a Lee Enterprise corporate decision to end publication of the Belle Fourche Post & Bee.

The need for continued publication of local news & events in a home town newspaper was the motivation behind the paper's creation.

To celebrate the three years of continuous publication we are putting together an appreciation feed for the public.

Everyone is invited and encouraged to come.

The "free" Keil Sweet Corn & 100% USA beef Hamburger lunch will be held Saturday, August 14th. Tables will be set up on 7th Avenue, south of State Street and Rail Park on the north corner of 7th & State. We will be serving lunch from 10:30am to 2:00 pm.

The lunch will coincide with the "Bring Your Trucks & Tractors To Town" event being held at the Pioneer Bank Parking lot the corner of 7th & State.

Units will be available for viewing 9am-2pm.

In addition, Belle Fourche businesses will be providing a "Truly-Local" shopping experience with Crazy Days and Sidewalk Sales promotions throughout the city on both Friday August 13 & Saturday August 14.

So please, come join the Beacon for lunch and help us celebrate the harvest of the World's Only Keil Sweet Corn and the Beacon's 3rd Anniversary.

New Fun at the Butte-Lawrence County Fair!

news@bellefourchebeacon.com

NISLAND – Monday and Tuesday of the Butte/Lawrence County Fair are pretty much entering exhibits and the annual 4-H, FFA and Open Horse Show; then things begin to kick off in a big way on Wednesday.

This year there were tons of added attractions in celebration of the 100th anniversary of the fair.

Tuesday saw the entry of all horticulture and non-livestock (static) exhibits as well as the sheep weigh-ins.

On Wednesday weigh-ins occurred for meat and dairy goats, swine, poultry and small animals and beef, as well as the wool fleece judging. Shows included the dairy cattle, dairy and meat goats and swine.

The afternoon events saw a total of five different bouncy houses for the enjoyment of the kiddos. A blood drive, which started with a bang and ended with a bust when the generator running the mobile unit went down, saw that event end prematurely.

Fun started in a big way with the Belle Fourche FFA hosting a watermelon eating contest, corn hole tournament and turtle races. There were a couple different age groups for the watermelon contest and those participating had to eat a pretty big slice of melon down to the rind, all the while keeping their hands behind their backs. Bennett Gordon came away with a bucket filled with all sorts of treasures.

Immediately following that was the corn hole event with a number of teams participating. The turtle races were postponed due to heat.

At 4 p.m. the sheep dog trial kicked off and organizer Mary Ann Warns made a special presentation to Art Ollila. This sheep rancher had provided the ewes for the annual event which has been held for the last six years running. Warns rewarded Ollila's large donation with a custom made cane with a Jacob's sheep horn as the handle.

Fondue for Youth saw elegant dining with deep fried steaks coming hot off the pitchfork to the buffet table. This was a reserved event and according to organizer Holly Main, they served around 100 people.

Two of the 4-Hers interviewed briefly by Jim Thompson were Eve Jensen of 9-mile Guys and Gals and Sydney Baker of River Riders who were in shooting sports events during the year. Also speaking was Danika Gordon. A drawing for businesses who had donated to the event saw Pioneer Bank and Trust rewarded with a $500 credit toward next year's Fondue event. They generously donated it back to the organization.

Pig wrestling was a new event this year at the fair with all sizes of pigs donated for use by Bridget Howell Pigs of Colony, Wyo. The muddy pit was surrounded by a large number of spectators, most of which lining the inside row got a little muddy themselves as the kids splashed and fell in their efforts to snag a piglet and put them in a bucket. The evening wrapped up with bingo in the hospitality tent, a concert by Mark Mowry and Chelsea D and Company playing for the nightly show. There was also a movie at the pavilion.

New this year were a line of Bouncy houses. The kids favorite seemed to be the Wrecking Ball. Brunner photo

Thursday a Packed Event Day at the Fair

NISLAND – Thursday at the Fair started bright and early at 8 a.m. with the sheep show followed by poultry judging. The Spearfish Sasquatch baseball team had a few members show up to sign autographed balls, share a photo op and toss a few balls with local kids attending the fair.

A Draft Horse Heritage event was held in the arena, organized by Riley Kammerer. His team of Percherons made endless loops around the arena giving kids the opportunity to take the reins and learn all about horsepower. Kammerer was also able to show how a feed sled worked and many spectators got the chance to pet the velvety noses of these gentle giants, appropri-

William “Bill” Beckett 58

William (Bill) Shawn Beckett, 58, of Booneville, AR, passed away Sunday July 25, 2021 in Fort Smith, AR at Mercy Hospital.

Bill was born on October 21, 1962 in Mountain Home, ID to Dean and Rose Beckett. He attended school in Mountain Home, graduating in 1981 and went on to enlist in the United States Navy.

On May 24, 1985, he married the love of his life, Kathy Marie Williams of Belle Fourche, SD while they were both living in Phoenix, AZ. To this union came three daughters, Candice in 1988, Danielle in 1989, and Alexis in 2004.

In 1989, they moved to Belle Fourche, SD where he spent 15 years as a volunteer firefighter, Captain of the rescue truck, and began his career as a retail manager. During the course of their marriage, Bill and Kathy spent time living in Boise, ID, Cheyenne, WY, Casper, WY, Canton, SD, Tyndall, SD, Yankton, SD, and Rapid City, SD before finally settling in Booneville, AR.

In 2007, he submitted his life to the Lord and in 2009 was baptized. He faithfully served God until he peacefully went into eternity with his wife by his side and his three daughters looking on through his hospital room window.

He was preceded in death by his parents; brother, Wesley Beckett; and sister, Debra Hegre.

Funeral services were held Thursday, July 29, 2021 at Bulger Funeral Home in Booneville, with burial at Fort Smith National Cemetery under the direction of Bulger Funeral Home.

Survivors include his wife, Kathy Beckett of the home; daughters, Candice (Rich) Gasser of Brandon, FL; Danielle (Eron) Lewis of Booneville; and Alexis of the home; three grandsons, Caysen, Braelan, and Aidron Lewis; two granddaughters, Zaniyah Gasser and Aftyn Lewis; one sister, Tami Elliott of Reno, NV; two brothers, Alan Beckett of Reno, NV; Chad (Tiana) Beckett of Mountain Home, ID; in laws, Robert and Janice Williams of Belle Fourche, SD; sister in law, Marilee (Jeff) Smith of Belle Fourche, SD; and many nieces and nephews.

Pallbearers: Jeff Smith, Jim Bryan, Wesley Rice, Wade Jones, Bill Bowman, and Bobby Lewis

Instead of flowers for the funeral, Bill would want you to express your love to those you value.

Pastor’s Perspective

“Dear friends, if God loved us this way, we also ought to love each other. ...God is love, and those who remain in love remain in God and God remains in them.” 1 John 4:11 & 16b

“God is Love.” Expressed mathematically, this would be “God = Love.” Wow. Now wonder along with me just what that would mean. If this were true, that is.

If God is Love, then we would know that with love, we can overcome any obstacle. That reference would be Matthew 19:26, “But all things are possible for God.” We would know that Love can move us to forgive and overcome sin in this world, because God overcomes sin in the world.

If God is Love and we are in God, we could not hate, or be prejudiced, or racist, or even mean- spirited. How would this affect the way we interact with our neighbors or those we trade with or motorcycle riding visitors to our little county and towns? Would it affect the way you behave and speak?

If God is Love, we—who are made in the image and likeness of God—are really never fully ourselves unless we are in the state of love, and about the action of loving. Really.

I recently read a blog which told the story of a psychiatrist who was serving as the chaplain at a major metropolitan hospital. “The goal of all counseling,” he once said to me, “is for a person to love him or herself. For if you aren’t going to love yourself, who will, and if you don’t start now, then when?” “But doctor,” the author of the article asked, “have you yet encountered a single person who has had the ability to love himself without first experiencing love from another person? Have you known even one person like that.” After a moment of silence, “No,” he said quietly, “No, not really.” [In the Meantime, David Lose, 2015]

If God is Love, and we are in God, please, give another person what may be their first experience of love. Show them that you care because caring is what the Bible refers to as love. And just think of all of the healing that you can be a part of.

Wow. God and you, healing the world, overcoming any obstacles, forgiving and defeating sin. How is this possible? Because God is Love, and you are in God.

Friend, this is your invitation. Because it is true...God is Love.

BFMS Summer JAM Gives to Local Charity

The Belle Fourche Middle School summer Jam students were able to give back to one of our community charities. Several organizations were placed in the idea box by any student and then ideas were voted on. With an overall vote for Chutes for Charity, students got to work on planning a lemonade and cookie stand sale.

Students decided what part of the project they wanted to work on with opportunities being poster making for advertising, building the stand, and working on the day of the event. Students were able to show their talents and did a wonderful job!

The day arrived with rain showers, but this did not deter the enjoyment of working to raise funds for a worthwhile charity. Students set up the stand at MJ’s Market on Friday, June 25, just as the rain came pouring down. Service was given with smiles and a sense of pride for the work they were doing. As students were wrapping up the lemonade sales, the sun was shining, and they knew they had done a fantastic job for Chutes for Charity!

In the photo, Trevor Welles is shown giving Chutes for Charity president, Barb Williamson, a check for $560.00. Far right is Jam director Kristy Messner, second on left is Jolleen Knapp, teacher/Chutes for Charity secretary, and some of the amazing students who were involved in the community project. Working on this project has taught us to never underestimate the power of our great community’s kids!

Prayer for the Day

However, as the scripture says, □What no one ever saw or heard, what no one ever thought could happen, is the very thing God prepared for those who love him.□But it was to us that God made known his secret by means of his Spirit.

1 Corinthians 2:9□10a, TEV

Lord our God, bless us all through your Spirit, that we may find certainty of heart in community with you under your rulership. May we keep this certainty, whatever course our lives may take, whatever battles and suffering may come to us, for we belong to you and you rule and guide us as your children. Watch over all who are still far away from you but who long for you. Watch over all who are good-hearted and sincere, even if they often do not understand you. Protect them, and let your kingdom come so that your will is carried out more and more by the many who feel compelled to seek for you and for the goodness and truth which are your will. May we and many others serve you with our whole lives. Amen.

Anything Left in the Barrel?

By: Doug Cole

Sometimes in the hustle and bustle of meeting print deadlines mistakes are made. We made just such an error in the last issue. We had received several Post 32 Baseball pictures which we included. They were listed as “Courtesy Photos”, when instead photo credits should have been given to talented and gifted local photographer Angela Vissia.

Angela has graced the Beacon with several great photos since the beginning of the publication. She has a talent that we hope we can continue to share with you the readers. Thank you Angela!

The community’s Truly-Local task force’s efforts to focus on communication and cooperation has resulted in efforts to expand the promotion of the vast array of products and services that can be provided to you in Belle Fourche.

Next week’s Crazy Days and Sidewalk sales throughout the town will provide opportunity on full display. Make sure you plan on “Shopping in Belle!

Belle Fourche also has the good fortune to be the home of the World’s only Keil Sweet Corn.

The Beacon will offer you a sample of this years harvest Saturday, August 14 as we celebrate the third anniversary of the paper.

So make it a point to be in Belle the 14th and eat Keil Sweet Corn and 100% USA beef hamburgers.

Is it really the first week of August? ...Or are July-ing to me? Let this serve as your “Corn Joke” reminder. Contest runs through the end of the month.

August seemed to just arrive suddenly without out actually being invited.

August, where did the name come from? August was named in honor of Augustus Caesar and originated with the Roman calendar. It has 31 days because Augustus wanted as many days as Julius Caesar’s month of July had.

The month of August often is referred to as the “dog days of summer”.

‘Dog days’ a misleading term, but not because of pet pooches. It has to do with the star Sirius, also known as the dog star, which rose at the same time as sunrise during the month of August in ancient Roman times.

August folklore: Observe on what day in August the first heavy fog occurs, and expect a hard frost on the same day in October.

August will bring us the best bounty of the season—ripened tomatoes, ripe melon, and sweet corn. Some might even say, “zucchini”.

The August harvest of Belle Fourche native son Ron Keil’s sweet corn is something the whole area looks forward to.

The Beacon will join Ron in celebrating the delectable harvest and enjoying the season favorite.

Corny Jokes: What did the Hurricane say to coast?... I have my eye on you.

Why do watermelons have fancy weddings?... Because they cantaloupe.

Why wasn’t the August moon hungry?... Because it was full!

Knock, knock?... Who is there?... August... August

Who?... A gusta go back to football practice!

An old friend and the girl he fell in love with in high school are finally getting married. He in August, she in November.

Last spring we bought some 250 million year old Himalayan salt. Found out it expires this August.

Why can’t you find any lions after August? Because the “pride goeth before the fall.”

After hearing about my history major, my dad said, “You should go visit Italy in late August.”

..Then you can witness The Fall of Rome.

It’s pointless to try and write with a broken pencil.

Why do seagulls fly over the sea? Because if they flew over a bay, they would be bagels.

What do you call a cow with two legs? Lean beef!

Please send your submissions for the Corny Joke Contest. I don’t wanted to be accused of giving corn a bad name by presenting our own.

To celebrate the Harvest, the following restaurants will be serving for their customers dining pleasure a “free” Side of Keil Sweet Corn. Friday August 13th

Ask The Motor Medics®

From the Hosts of the Under The Hood® radio show.

Dear Motor Medics,
I have a 2005 Dodge grand Caravan and the power operated side door doesn't always work. Sometimes when you close the door it will almost move to the full closed position then it reverses and fully opens. If I try it several times it sometimes closes. I have been told by two dealerships that it needs a new ribbon cable and its hundreds of dollars. Is this common?

Margaret in Fargo North Dakota

Dear Margaret,
This is a common problem in many of the vans using a power sliding door system. They have to make a connection between the door and the body and many do it with a cable. The cable moves back and forth every time the door slides and with enough time it can be rubbed through or break one of the wires in the cable. If either of these things happens it can act just like yours is operating. Other issues like programming can be a factor and less expensive than a new cable so make sure that they give it a proper diagnosis and guarantee their work. A good thing to remember is the most expensive repair is always the one you don't need. Make sure that the shop doing the repairs has had experience with the system used on your vehicle. If it is a cable they are expensive to replace mostly due to the time involved for the labor which can take several hours of work.

Take care, the Motor Medics

Dear Motor Medics,
I listen to Under the Hood Here is Salida Colorado and I drive a Chevy S10 with a manual transmission. Recently the transmission has become hard to put into reverse and also first gear unless the engine is turned off. When I try to engage it the gears grind and if I force it I can get it to go eventually. Once it is in gear it seems to work ok. What can you tell me?

Kelly in Salida Colorado

Dear Kelly,
It sounds like the clutch is not completely disengaging. To smoothly engage without gear clash, the input shaft of the transmission needs to stop moving and this occurs when the clutch is pressed down. Many things can cause it to keep moving like a warped clutch disc or pressure plate or the pilot shaft dragging on the crankshaft but the most common item is worn clutch hydraulics. The vehicle will need to be properly diagnosed to verify which component is the cause before repairs. The one thing to note is that if that if it is being operated in this condition it can cause damage to occur to the transmission very quickly and increase repair costs. The grinding can cause gear wear internally and if the clutch is dragging due to a hydraulic problem then heat will be built up which can burn up clutch friction parts or cause warpage which will mean having to replace the clutch parts.

Take care, the Motor Medics

The Good Stuff

by Jim Thompson

The Good Stuff was developed for radio by Jim Thompson nearly 2 decades ago. Jim Thompson takes motivational stories that listeners and readers send him and incorporates them into the program. It has been on the air for more than 10 years.

Some stories don't have to be good to be enjoyable. Today's bit of joy is one such that will make you want to be the first one to coffee so you can tell it. It's one of those "stick it to the man" tales, that we all appreciate.

A Well-Planned Retirement

from the London Times

Outside England 's Bristol Zoo there is a parking lot for 150 cars and 8 buses. For 25 years, its parking fees were managed by a very pleasant attendant.

The fees for cars ($1.40), for buses (about $7). Then, one day, after 25 solid years of never missing a day of work, he just didn't show up; so the zoo management called the city council and asked it to send them another parking agent.

The council did some research and replied that the parking lot was the zoo's own responsibility. The zoo advised the council that the attendant was a city employee.

The city council responded that the lot attendant had never been on the city payroll.

Meanwhile, sitting in his villa somewhere on the coast of Spain or France or Italy is a man who'd apparently had a ticket machine installed completely on his own and then had simply begun to show up every day, commencing to collect and keep the parking fees, estimated at about $560 per day — for 25 years.

Assuming 7 days a week, this amounts to just over $5 million dollars ... and no one even knows his name.

Capitol News

news@bellefourchebeacon.com

Capitol News will be a little short this week. It has been chaotic for us. Charlie has spent some time in the hospital. We are so grateful to Crystal, the Camp Crook Ambulance crew, the emergency room staff at Spearfish and the doctors and nurses at Ft Meade; all so professional, kind and well-trained.

Here is a little news from Ronda Cordell. She took Leilah for an appointment at the Vet in Belle Fourche on Monday. Then she went on to Spearfish. The temperature hit 100 degrees as she came home. Clint Zolnoski and Ronda went to the Bergstrom place early on Tuesday morning to move a group of cow-calf pairs in the Long Pines. When they came home at 12:30, the thermometer registered 110 degrees. Ronda heard that Buffalo, SD the hottest spot in the nation. Ronda picked Oren Basler early on Friday to go to Chad and Debby Zolnoski's near Rozet, WY. It was a mighty smoke-filled sky going down and also when coming back on Saturday. Devils Tower was a mere outline in the sky. Chad and Roudy took them into Gillette where the boys swam and trampolined for hours. They spent the night at Chad Zolnoski's, making another trip into Gillette to the Rock Pile Museum on Saturday before heading home. Oren spent Saturday night with Ronda and she took him home the next day. Later on Sunday afternoon, Ronda drove out to the Ladner Ice Cream Social. Clint, Denise, Darby and Abby had also driven out and the girls took a part in the musical program after the first round of ice cream. There was a large crowd there to enjoy both the goodies and the entertainment.

Daysheets, Stock Draws Available on ProRodeo.com

NFR changes start time for each round this December

COLORADO SPRINGS, Colo (July 29, 2021) – The Professional Rodeo Cowboys Association® is proud to announce daysheets and stock draws from most PRCA rodeos are now available on ProRodeo.com.

This newly added feature provides fans and members the opportunity to see when and where contestants are competing, along with the stock they've drawn.

"We've been working toward this goal for several years. Our fans, members and media all benefit from having this information on their phones whether they are attending the rodeo or following along on our Cowboy Channel broadcasts," said Amy Fast, PRCA digital assets manager.

Daysheets are listed in two areas. For upcoming rodeos, they are listed in the rodeo schedule. For rodeos in progress or completed, they are listed in rodeo results.

Enhanced features in the rodeo profile also include links to the rodeo's website, tour status and the date the rodeo joined the PRCA.

Wrangler National Finals Rodeo® Start Time Moves to 5:45 p.m. PST/8:45 p.m. EST

Mick B. Harrison's Artists License ...and other wonderments.

You might recognize the fella on the horse. He's been around and knows things. Robert Dennis is a South Dakota rancher. He also writes a column in this paper so I guess that makes us partners in crime, so to speak! Did I say he also writes western poetry, plays guitar, sings and makes saddles?

Robert knows his mind so after umpteen sketches (actually just two) we settled on one and I painted this oil for him. He requested to be on his favorite horse atop a hill with his herd stretched out below and the lead animal just topping the crest. The rider to the right represents his son, Chance, and the smaller figure down the hill represents a grandkid. The Dennis grandkids play a big part in Robert's operation. He calls them his runt cowpunchers and by all accounts they're pretty handy!

Hoppers for Harleys

We got a good rain this past week! Wonderful stuff! Washes the dust off and makes everything look better. Cooled the temps down for a bit.

Here it is August already. How did that happen? Seems like it was the first of June just a few days ago. Days of 76 is over. Cheyenne is over. Now it's Rally time.

I heard someone predicted we might get a million visitors for the Rally this year! Doesn't hardly seem possible, but it could happen. Lots of people come to this area this time of year.

I have devised a plan that would be great for our part of the country. Well all need to catch Grasshoppers. Put them in air tight containers and then get everybody who comes to visit to take them home with them. Heck, our local governments could even mandate it.

Just think of how they would clean this country out of a pest! We could even call it Hoppers for Harley's or some such! Let the bikers know it is for a good cause.. maybe mark one hopper and make it worth a thousand bucks or something and many would buy them. Like a lottery ticket. They would even catch their own or pay somebody to catch them for them. Lots of jobs for the kids before they head back to school!

Looks like some of our forward thinking local politicians would get behind it. Must be some way to tax it and use the money for a good cause. We could have prizes for the largest hopper. The smallest. The prettiest, the ugliest! Shoot.. we just need some promoter types to think about it and get behind it. Maybe some fish farm would pay for all the hoppers when we are done with them, for fish food.

I have been trying to teach my cows to catch and eat them, but so far no luck. I don't know if the cows are lazy or the hoppers just don't taste good. I know people in other countries eat them. I seen in Lonesome Dove where the cook cooked some up for the crew.

There has got to be some way we can utilize all these dang hoppers we been raising. We just need smart people to work on it. I suppose we could get a government grant to pay researchers to do it. Of course by the time they got it all set up and figured anything out we would be out of hoppers. But we could be all prepared for the next time they get thick.

There are no problems, just opportunities, some old guy said once. Maybe it was Jim Thompson...or Mick Harrison!

Have a hopping week, fine folks!

The ProRodeo Cowboys Association® and Las Vegas Events announced today that the 2021 Wrangler National Finals Rodeo® will start at 5:45 p.m. PST/8:45 p.m. EST.

The Wrangler NFR, which returns to the Thomas & Mack Center in Las Vegas Dec. 2-11, will feature the top 120 contestants in the world for a 10-day competition to determine the winners of the coveted PRCA Gold Buckle and a share of the $10.257 million purse. In its previous 35 years in Las Vegas, total attendance has reached nearly six million fans.

"To accommodate the greatest number of fans interested in watching the NFR, the PRCA and The Cowboy Channel requested an earlier start time which we felt was reasonable," said LVE President Pat Christenson.

In 2019, the event had a total attendance of 168,289 over the 10 days of competition at the Thomas & Mack Center and has sold out more than 330 consecutive performances in Las Vegas.

The Cowboy Channel is the official network partner of PRORODEO® and the exclusive broadcast and streaming partner of the Wrangler NFR. Live coverage of the Wrangler NFR can be found on The Cowboy Channel and RFD-TV through its cable and satellite partners and online at cowboy-channelplus.com.

For more information on the Wrangler NFR, please visit NFRexperience.com or through social media at /LasVegasNFR and use #WranglerNFR. For the latest PRORODEO news and Wrangler NFR coverage, please visit prorodeo.com or through social media @PRCA_ProRodeo.

The PRCA has named longtime partner Pendleton® Whisky the title sponsor for the Xtreme Bulls Tour Finale and the presenting sponsor of the prestigious PRORODEO® Tour.

The Pendleton Whisky Xtreme Bulls Finale will pay out $110,000, making it a key step along the road to the Wrangler National Finals Rodeo.

they are getting a little money and their hard work is rewarded.

"It's a good deal. My family is always happy to be a part of it. I sure appreciated the buyers when I was a little kid showing stuff here, so I know how they feel," said Orwick.

After the rain the night before the temperature was awesome, not too humid with a light breeze and people could still smell the rain. Smoke still hung everywhere but everyone was smiling, laughing, talking and all appeared to be enjoying the evening together.

The meal was smoked tri-tip beef, green beans and cookies for dessert.

War on The Range

A week ago last Thursday the CY and Ogallaia roundups which were working together in the Hole-in-the-wall country in Wyoming met three rustlers and a fight took place, which resulted in the killing of Bob Smith of the rustlers, and slightly wounding Bob Devine, foreman of the CY outfit, and his son, Lee Devine. Another of the rustlers, Bob Taylor, was disarmed and captured and taken to Casper, where he was lodged in jail. The roundup was gathering cattle near the Hole-in-the-wall, which is known as the rendezvous of the rustlers of that part of the country. There has been frequent trouble between the cattlemen and the rustlers and, it is said, the rustlers were especially bitter toward Devine and had threatened to kill him. The editor of this paper personally interviewed one of the CY boys who was present when the shooting occurred and his story was that the roun've got yodup met the three men and when they had passed by a few feet Bob Smith turned and drawing a gun said, "I've got you now you --- ---" fired, hitting Bob Devine in the side; the ball glanced and striking his horse knocked it down. The firing became general and in the me-lee Bob Smith was killed, Bob Taylor captured and Lee Devine shot through the arm. Al Smith was shot through the right hand, but he escaped capture. Devine seems to be accompanied by the sheriffs of Johnson and Natrona counties, with warrants for the arrest of the Belle Fourche bank robbers, who are now supposed to be in hiding in the section of the state.

Boston Belles Play Ball

An aggregation of female base ball players from Boston are expected to arrive in the Hills in the near future and play a series of games with the various clubs in the Black Hills. The manager of the club writes that his players have been together for four years and put up an excellent game. We understand that games have been arranged between Deadwood and the "belles."

Cloud Burst Results In Two Deaths Flood Came at Beulah, Wyo., Without Warning During Night – Some Damage To Town

A cloud burst in the vicinity of Beulah, Wyo., twenty-five miles southwest of Belle Fourche, Wednesday night of last week caused the death of Mrs. William Bowers of Missouri alley, Ia., and her grandson, a small boy, son of Dr. and Mrs. R. L. Bowers of Chadron, Nebr. A wall of water, said to have been four to six feet high, came rushing down Bear creek, and a dry draw that empties into Sand Creek at Beulah, sweeping everything before it. On account of the newly constructed road grade through Beulah, the natural drainage of the stream was congested, preventing the water from spreading as it usually does. Across the creek from the town, in camp near the flour mill, were several parties of tourists, one composed of William Bowers and wife of Missouri Valley, Ia., and Dr. R. L. Bowers and wife and two children of Chadron. The wall of water stuck their camp without warning the parents leaving the child during the show, but never came back. The baby, a bright and pleasing appearing boy of about a year, is now in charge of the county court, and unless some one comes to adopt him, the little fellow will be sent to the Children's Home at Sioux Falls. An effort has been made by the officials to locate the parents of the child, but evidently the name given was fictitious one, and it has been impossible to get any trace of either the mother or father of the child.

Record Number Tourists Visiting Mt. Rushmore

J. Estes Suter, acting super-interdent, reports that a record number of tourists have been stopping over and paying a visit thus far this summer to Mount Rushmore. In the first eighteen days of July, a total of 52,719 persons visited the Shrine of Democracy. The heaviest day so far this year was July 2 when 3,924 visitors were counted. During the month of June the registrations were 48,373. This was seven times greater than the number of registrations during June, 1945. A total of 6,904 visitors were counted in that month. Supt. Suter says tourists have come from every state in the union and even from such distant places as the Philippines, Puerto Rico, Hawaii and China.

DOWNTOWN BUSINESS DISTRICT

without a 'heart' and 'soul' will surely die.

John A. Newby, author of the "Building Main Street, Not Wall Street" column dedicated to helping communities and local media companies combine synergies allowing them to not just survive but thrive in a world where their "Truly-Local" identity is being lost to Amazon, Wall Street chains and others. His email is: john@360MediaAlliance.net.

"Building Main Street, not Wall Street"

by John Newby

The Critical Nature of Balance

Many may believe by the title of this weekly column I am down on the chains and big boxes that make up the corporate world of Wall Street. Nothing could be further from the truth. What I am against is the lack of balance and understanding communities have when it comes to the steps of incorporating these entities into their community mix. Most go about it in a backward way, thus making the transformation of their downtowns into the 'heart' and 'soul' of their community very difficult.

What makes a community desirable for locals and attractive to outsiders is the uniqueness they feel when visiting a community. I have yet to experience a thriving community that doesn't have a thriving and somewhat unique downtown. Creating the ambiance and uniqueness that accompany downtowns must be the communities #1 objective and goal. When you create a vibrant community built around local businesses and a creative and unique theme, you are then able to begin the process of adding other components to the mix that might aid in the overall convenience that comes with chains and big boxes – but, it must be done in a methodical and systematic way.

How does a community achieve this balance? The path may vary by community, but the general and most successful approach is similar in every successful community. That similar path will always involve dedicating the lion's-share of early resources to transforming your downtown. This is done by building up local businesses of all types, encouraging local entrepreneurship, incentivizing local community members to grow existing businesses downtown and building the infrastructure needed to assure a vibrant downtown. This infrastructure goes beyond power, sewer, water and so forth. Downtown infrastructure includes outdoor music venues or band shells, numerous benches, adequate green space, ample art, and robust entertainment abilities.

Once you have all that in place, or at least planned and underway, then you can address the other amenities such as chains and big boxes you may want to include in your community. Let me caution however, while many big boxes can bring expanded choices to your community, always weigh the damage that can be done when they arrive. Communities never need financially court national food chains, you can always find local entrepreneurs willing to take the same incentives you offer to chains and build something comparable with a local twist.

I am often able to travel and visit many communities around the country, some transforming the right way and some, well, not so right. This week we were able to return and spend a few days in Marquette, MI. As we spent time in the community, it was refreshing to see how the community has transformed themselves from a somewhat sleepy small college town to a community that has become a year-round destination point for vacationing tourists from around the country.

They have nurtured a vibrant downtown along with several downtown events that draw over ten thousand locals and visitors alike to their downtown. They have rebuilt their waterfront offerings taking advantage of the beauty and location. Over the past decade, they have drawn interest from the chains and big boxes, but due to taking care of their core or 'heart' of the community first, those have become complimenting assets in lieu of entities that rob them of their character. Their payment for having the right balance is tens of millions of tourism dollars flowing through the community each year. An example might be finding a nice hotel room for less than $200/night, oftentimes exceeding $300/night due to high demand.

Finding the right balance is critical. Know that you will never have balance without a laser focus and dedication to your downtown first. Your downtown is a must if you are to succeed as a community over the long haul. When you neglect your downtown, know that you are doing so at your own risk and peril. Just as our body needs a heart to stay alive, so does your community, for a community

LOOKING BACK

Ground was broken the past week for the new brick and tile business place to be constructed by A. W. Burkholder adjoining the Western Drug store building on the west. The new structure will be 15 feet wide and 60 feet long. Mr. Burkholder states that the occupant of the new structure will be announced at a later date.

Plans to Honor Orman Pioneers Now Taking Shape Some 20 persons who were involved in the construction of Orman dam have been located to date as preparations continue for a special observation honoring the Orman pioneers. The recognition event will be held in conjunction with the Belle Fourche Chamber of Commerce

Sept. 23 at the Community Hall and will be under the auspices of the Chamber. Among features of the program will be a slide show arranged from pictorial records found in the Bureau of Reclamation office at Newell. A tour of the dam, with the old timers as guests is also being considered. The Black Hills Roundup office will serve as a central meeting place where the old timers can rest and visit that day. Tapes are to be made to record some of the first-hand history of work on the project. Tentative plans call for a banquet at $4 per plate, which will make it possible to provide free tickets to the pioneers who will be guests of the Chamber. The event is a county-wide project, with the Orman Pioneer committee made up of representatives from all parts of the county. This group has met with Chamber representatives to work out plans for the special observance. Residents from all parts of the county are invited to attend the recognition event. Editorial Although the construction of the dam began only 65 years ago, the term “pioneers” is appropriate in the sense that the men working on the project actually were pioneers. They were pioneers in the field of earthen dam building. At the time of its construction, Orman was a landmark in earth-fill dams. It was the largest of its kind undertaken to that time and difficulties and heartaches marked the path of contruction. The job proved too much for the initial contractor. New ideas had to be tried. Mistakes were made. Year after year went by and finally the water was turned in to what was then known as the Owl Creek dam. It was quite an occasion and for years people traveled hundreds of miles to see the project, to fish and boat on the lake. For a time, even the diversion dam backed up enough water to provide romantic boating facilities. Orman was, for a time, the biggest body of water in western South Dakota. Orman brought irrigation farming to the Belle Fourche valley and created the town of Newell and the U.S. Field Station. No single project has had as much effect on the economy of the area as the big earthen dam on Owl Creek. We hope the upcoming occasion honoring the pioneers of the Orman project will serve a dual purpose... that it will provide recognition to those men and women who played a part in the construction of this pioneering project, and that it will revive in today’s generation a new interest in the dam and the lake so that can encourage and promote further development and improvement of the project which has almost been forgotten in the Bureau of Reclamation records.

Thune, Smith, Johnson, Craig Introduce Legislation to Provide Flexibility for Emergency CRP Haying

U.S. Sens. John Thune (R-S.D.) and Tina Smith (D-Minn.), members of the Senate Agriculture Committee, and U.S. Reps. Dusty Johnson (R-S.D.) and Angie Craig (D-Minn.), members of the House Agriculture Committee, today introduced companion bills that would improve the U.S. Department of Agriculture's (USDA's) ability to allow for the timely emergency haying of Conservation Reserve Program (CRP) acres in response to drought and other weather-related disaster events. Under current statute, emergency CRP haying is not allowed until after the primary nesting season, which ends August 1 in South Dakota, Minnesota, and North Dakota. The CRP Flexibility Act would address this by allowing emergency haying on CRP acres before August 1 when certain conditions are met and in consultation with the state technical committee.

House Agriculture Hearing Shows NCBA Push for More Hook Space

Cattle industry concerns have seen increased attention recently from both sides of the aisle. NCBA has engaged with Congress and the administration to:

Secure the introduction of legislation to help small, independent processors expand capacity and improve marketing options for cattle producers.

Reform the "Product of the USA" beef label in a way that benefits both consumers and producers.

Defend family farms, ranches, and rural communities against devastating proposed tax hikes.

Deliver critical progress on much-needed flexibility under hours-of-service regulations for livestock haulers.

Then and Now in Newell

“Looking Forward to our Past” by Linda Velder

August 3, 1911

Five springs have been discovered near Vale, flowing from the bank above Y. Baldwin's house from which they can irrigate their garden and also pipe it to the house.

John Blatchford came over from Nisland Wednesday to visit his sister and brother-in-law, Mr. & Mrs. Hugo Behrens and to shake hands with several of his old school mates who are living here. He returned home Thursday. His visit was a short one but he says he had a splendid time while it lasted.

August 4, 1921

The Irrigator again delayed this week due to failure of the power practically all day Monday. This with the fact that they were laid up a couple of days last week has kept them humping to keep up with the work. On top of that came in an unexpected batch of legal publications, but everything is now cleared for action. For during the rush they managed to knock out all their jobs and if nothing further happens, they will have a clean field for the next issue.

Some of the neighbors have already had corn and ripe tomatoes. E.M. McLennen's is one family. Go to him if you want to find out how to raise a nice garden. Rain and then more rain and if it were not for the grasshoppers, corn and vegetables of all kinds would be plentiful.

August 6, 1931

Frank Long, tax collector for Butte County, was in Newell Wednesday and advised us that tax collections were much better than he had anticipated. Mr. Long calls special attention of delinquent tax payers to the fact that he will be in Newell on August 15 for the purpose of receiving delinquent tax payments. By seeing Mr. Long, here in Newell a considerable saving can be made by the taxpayer.

T.J. Litsheim, Superintendent of schools at Nisland, was a business visitor in Newell Monday and joined several Newell golfers in a round on the Newell course that evening.

August 7, 1941

Playing in a 4-team meet at Sturgis the past Sunday afternoon, the Newell Horseshoe Pitching team won first honors, dropping only 2 of 14 matches. Members of the local quartet were: Captain Ernest Gardner, Lyman Bruce and Jolly Kuronen with Ben Ganz of Piedmont filling in. Their only matches lost were to Lead and Deadwood who placed 2nd and 4th respectively with Rapid City 3rd. Except in two contests, the Newell team won all their victories by large margins. Next horseshoe events in this territory will include a Tri-state meet at Rapid City on August 10 and a tournament at Newell on Labor Day.

Friends of Robert Flaigg of the Hoover community and Gottlieb Sinner of east of Newell will be glad to hear they are both some better at this time. The 2 men were brought to Dr. O.H. Clark at the local hospital last Saturday and have been quite ill with Para-typhoid.

Dick, son of Mr. & Mrs. Spencer Godfrey, was badly hurt on day last week while driving the stacker team. The double-tree broke, striking the lad and broke his pelvis bone. He will be confined to his bed for at least 6 weeks.

August 9, 1951

Mr. & Mrs. Walter Harman, Mr. & Mrs. Francis Jacobsen and children, Mr. & Mrs. Charley Roberts and Garland Nelson all Castle Rockets attended the horse race at Spearfish last Sunday. Mrs. Louis DeJaeger of Hoover looked after the Castle Rock Store while Mr. & Mrs. Harman were away

It's been a really hot, dry week with the temperature reaching 109 degrees here on Tuesday, and, although that was really hot, the temperature at Reva was 112 degrees and Buffalo had 111 degrees! The smoke hanging in the air is coming from Canada, Oregon, California, and Montana and it's so strong that it makes it hard to breathe outside and we can't see very far because of it. Wouldn't it be nice if the federal government would manage the forests and allow lumber to be cut down to help prevent these fires?

Reub and I went to check water at Cow Camp and our Horse Creek pasture on Monday and found that a cow had stepped in the tank at Horse Creek and caused it to leak. Casey took Taz to the rodeo in Cheyenne that afternoon and they stayed with Bryce and Braxton in Torrington, Wyoming that evening before going on to Cheyenne Tuesday morning.

Casey came home and went up to the Denzin place to fix the water tank on Tuesday while Reub swathed the hay corrals and I watered all the gardens in that heat. Amanda, her sister Josi Senger, and Syd Turbiville went to the airport in Bismarck to fly out to vacation in Mexico with the ZIYA team and Taz was up at the rodeo in Burwell, Nebraska. Louise Jensen came down that evening to take care of the little people for a while before going back to Ralph and leaving the little people with Missy.

I've got to let you know about a scam we've had to deal with this week. Reub has been filling out all the Publishing Clearing House stuff that came in the mail under my name and we got a call, supposedly from Publishing Clearing House, telling me that I had won half a million dollars, a new car and $7000 a week for life! I had to buy two gift cards for $250 each, one to put the first $7000 on the first card and the other card was to register for the win. It sounded wonderful until I got a call from them that I needed to send them $8000 for storage for my new car. I got suspicious, so I called the Attorney General's office and they put me through to the Consumer Protection office to tell them what was going on. After I explained it to them, they told me it was a scam so I called the number on the gift cards that I had to buy and the first one was already empty! Reub and I went to Hettinger that afternoon and I cashed in the second card because they hadn't emptied it yet. I called the Consumer Protection office again and they said that if you ever get a request to buy a gift card it definitely is a scam and you need to call the Attorney General's office at 605-773-3215 to report it. They told me that it is mostly rural areas that are targeted and most of the scams are about grandparents receiving a call from someone who claims to be their grandchild in jail asking for money to get out of jail.

It was a little cooler on Thursday so I fired up the oven to bake some things to eat while our daughter and her family are here from Minnesota. Reub and I made a trip to Reva for milk replacer for the bum calf after we got the day bed put together that Teri ordered for us.

Reub and I went to Cow Camp and on to our Horse Creek pasture early Friday morning in order to make it home in time to have lunch and go to Buffalo for Diana Davis' funeral at the school gym. Casey came to the funeral but Missy stayed home because she's the secretary for the NRCA and needed to get caught up on NRCA rodeo stuff. Starla came down and took the little people home with her to spend the night.

We sat with Kaye and Conrad Smith at Diana's funeral and Kaye told us that Lynn (Oja) Gilbert had passed away on Wednesday. Lynn graduated from Harding County High School. She joined the United States Air Force and served proudly from 1978 until 1982. Lynn met her husband, Randy Gilbert, at Castle Air Force Base and they had 3 children. A celebration of life will be held at a later date in Mitchell, SD.

Our dear friend, Janice Peck, passed away in Colorado on Monday and we haven't heard anything about funeral arrangements yet.

These families have our sympathy.

Our daughter Teri Dee McNelis and her family came to visit Saturday night. Casey and Missy, Thad and Angie, Till and Kelsey and little Hattie, Sandy Dan, Sage and Alaina and their kids, Taz and his kids, and Lanie and Matt Klug and their kids all came to visit with Teri and have lunch with us out in the yard. There was a grand total of 29 family members present and we had a great time visiting and getting caught up with everybody. Teri and Mike and the boys stayed overnight again Sunday night and left for Minnesota Monday morning.

I'll leave you with this:

IDIOT SIGHTING

The spotlight on the corner buzzes when it's safe to cross the street. I was crossing with an intellectually challenged co-worker of mine. She asked if I knew what the buzzer was for.

I explained that it signals blind people when the light is red

Appalled, she responded, 'What on earth are blind people doing driving?!'

She was a probation officer in Wichita, KS.

"Dakota Centennial" was agreed, will be the theme of the parade, with all entries being urged to compete for the up to $100 in prizes by planning 100-years in such a theme.

This is a photo of the Nisland High School Faculty 1931. Superintendent Theodore J. Litshiem is front and center. He was better known as "T.J." He was hired to bring "law and order to a rowdy school". Although he was of small stature, his method of discipline was unorthodox- but it worked. He was a master of psychology. Yet he could have fun at a round of golf at the Newell Course.

A Border in Crisis Needs Solutions and Action

GOV. KRISTI NOEM
Commentary

America is the land of opportunity. We’re a nation where anyone can make anything of themselves if they work hard and play by the rules. But when those rules are abandoned – when we lose respect for our Constitution and the rule of law – that’s when the system breaks. And that’s exactly what is taking place at our Southern border. Rule of law has collapsed, putting our border in crisis and risking our national security.

I recently sent 48 South Dakota National Guard troops – all volunteers – to support Texas in its efforts to secure our Southern border. This past week, I visited those troops and surveyed their observation posts. I got a briefing from them and from Border Patrol. I saw what they’re seeing, and they told me what they need. And I gained a greater understanding of how unsustainable the situation is at the US-Mexico border.

Coyotes are smuggling people into our country. They know that if their group has a child under 7, they will be let into this country, turned over to a non-governmental organization, and relocated to someplace within our nation. They’re smuggling people into our nation – and they’re using these migrants as pawns to distract from the cartel’s aggressive drug smuggling operation. That is fundamentally contrary to everything for which this nation stands.

Here are some alarming numbers from the Border Patrol’s most recent dispatches: More than 20,000 immigrants were stopped in a single week just in the Rio Grande Valley zone where our National Guard is deployed; Fentanyl seizures are up 455% compared to last year; and Meth seizures are up 85%.

And that’s just what Border Patrol is catching; imagine how much more is slipping through.

Those drugs don’t stop at the border. They’re being sent to our communities throughout the country. In South Dakota, the cartels bring these drugs to our cities, towns, and to some of our tribal reservations.

South Dakota has worked diligently to fight the drug epidemic in our state, and as a result, we were one of only two states in America to reduce the number of deaths from drug overdose last year. New Hampshire saw a small decline; South Dakota’s overdose deaths decreased by almost 16 percent.

I’m not going to let the tremendous progress we’ve made collapse because the Biden Administration refuses to secure our border.

What’s worse is the bureaucracy of DC politics is stalled while more and more of these migrants die while attempting to cross the border. We can and should do better. Unfortunately, the reports I received this week indicate the politics of DC are likely to make this border crisis worse.

If President Biden won’t step up and do his job, then Republican governors will continue to do what they can to address the border crisis. We’re evaluating options to extend the deployment of the troops already at the border and asking Texas Gov. Greg Abbott to fund those extended engagements. We’ll be sending an additional 125 troops there later this year as part of a 9-12 month federal deployment. And we will continue to evaluate how else we can help in this important effort.

Our nation is one of opportunity. We welcome people to come into our country, but they have to do it legally. We are a nation of laws. If we lose respect for those laws, we lose the foundation of our country. And I refuse to let that happen.

Governor Visits with SD National Guard Troops at Border

MCALLEN, T.X. – Today, Governor Kristi Noem heard from 48 South Dakota National Guard troops stationed on the southern border. The troops briefed the Governor on what they’ve seen and heard during their deployment.

“Our South Dakota National Guard is proving they can serve with excellence at the southern border. Border Patrol and the Texas National Guard made clear the soldiers we sent are providing critical support for this border mission,” said Governor Kristi Noem. “I asked our guardsmen what their needs are and what more we can do to help. They asked for more time to complete this mission, and we are evaluating the possibility of extending their deployment.”

Governor Noem was briefed on the situation at the border by her South Dakota National Guard troops, as well as the Texas National Guard and Border Patrol. During the briefing, both Texas and South Dakota

National Guard members made clear the deployment is having a positive impact addressing the crisis. The Governor surveyed three observation posts manned by South Dakota guardsmen and witnessed Border Patrol intaking migrant families at the border wall.

The troops departed for the border on a 30- to 60-day initial deployment on July 6th. Governor Noem subsequently announced that South Dakota will be sending an additional 125 members of the National Guard to the border for a 9 to 12-month deployment at the behest of the federal government. That subsequent deployment will be made later this year.

“I am grateful to these soldiers, who have volunteered for this deployment. The message I have received is clear: this deployment is working, and our Guard is committed to strengthening our border security,” Governor Noem said.
