“Belle Fourche Rec Center Holds First Annual ‘Sunrise on State’ Walk/Run”

The BF Rec Center held its first “Sunrise on State” Walk/Run along the “beautiful forks” river walk. The group started at 6:30 am at Pioneer Bank, to the gazebo on State St., then onto the river walk. Each lap circling around was approximately .66 miles. Walkers/runners could do as many “laps” as they desired. The group finished back at the Pioneer Bank parking lot to enjoy complimentary donuts from the 8th Avenue Bakery as well as a discounted drink at the Wild Magnolia Coffee Bar. - Courtesy Photo

Shirley Speaks Fundraiser: Helping Victims of Domestic Abuse

Shirley would have been so proud.

Meg English

news@bellefourchebeacon.com

On August 20, a crowd of supporters gathered at the Belle Fourche Community Hall for a fundraiser to help victims of domestic abuse. The setting was festive and somber at the same time. Purple balloons and a large portrait of Shirley, elegant with a warm smile, greeted participants as they arrived.

Shirley would have been so proud of her daughter who struggled to control emotion as she told her mother’s tragic story. As readers may recall from a previous Beacon article on July 20, 2022, Shirley endured a five-hour beating from her husband on August 28, 2021, just one year ago. She died from her injuries eight weeks later.

The event was emotionally charged and informative. Mariah Ulrich and Kim Barker from the Crisis Intervention Center (CISS) in Sturgis were on hand to discuss the widespread problem of domestic abuse and describe the services offered by CISS. Stephanie Moore, a professional counselor explained why these services are needed. Each of the three speakers expressed passionate commitment to the problem of domestic abuse.

Danielle Butler fought back tears as she retold Shirley’s tragic story. Her attacker was her husband of 40 years, Mike. Mike had a history of domestic violence coupled with substance abuse. During a five-hour attack, Shirley suffered from traumatic physical injuries. Most of her hair was pulled out. Shirley managed to crawl to a phone and call 911 when her attacker, Mike, finally fell asleep. Incidentally, Mike walks free. However, the Shirley Speaks Foundation is committed to ending domestic abuse, and that may also mean addressing the behaviors of the perpetrators.

The event was sobering, but entertaining too. Events included a silent auction and a competitive “dance off” between the Belle Fourche Police Department and the Belle Fourche Volunteer Fire Department. Dinner was catered with a cash bar available. There was music and an open dance floor too.

Shirley would have been so proud of the professionals who spoke in defense of domestic abuse victims. She would have been proud of an organization founded to help victims that bears her name. She would have approved of the board of directors, Kimberly Bahr, Gina Trager Spears, Jenny Jeffries, Dani, Flinn and Brook Butler and their mission to provide healing services to victims of domestic abuse at no cost.

Shirley would have been astounded by the caring community’s support and generosity. “We raised over $9,400 before expenses” Danielle noted. Many generous sponsors pledged money for food, purchased tickets for first responders, and donated services and silent auction items.

The sponsor list is long: Thrivent Financial, American Woodmen, Budget Appliance, Mattress Appraisals, Rushmore Mitigations, SME’s Treats, Pet Buddy, Funeral Home of the Northern Hills, Watson Hennessey Group, Younique Finds, Mike & Kristi Jordan, Outlaw Bar, Macy and Kids & Co. Dance and dancers, Dancers Maddie, Rachel, Sawyer, Robyn, Kenny, Jorgie, Eira, Melanie, and Tessa. Officer Stephen Schmeltzer and Captain Nicholas Loper for the police/fire dance. City of Belle Fourche, Crisis Intervention Shelter Services of Sturgis, Stephanie Moore of Moore Counseling, Deanna Hearth, Andy Gay, Ethel Cournoyer, Teresa Gueffroy, Rhonda and Terry VanZanten, Gwen Oberholtzer, Bahr Chiropractic, Lonnie Jeffries, Franki Ward,

City’s Third Budget Work Session

Beacon Staff

news@bellefourchebeacon.com

BELLE FOURCHE – The Belle Fourche City Council conducted its third budget work session last week as it prepares the next fiscal year’s expenditures. The council spent about two-and-a-half hours reviewing City Finance Officer Jason LaFayette’s 2021-2025 enhancement projects general fund, commonly known as the Capital Improvement Plan, or CIP.

The CIP could be likened to the city’s wish list for projects that someday might come to fruition as well as projects that need to be done. It contains items ranging from needed pothole repair of the streets to the possibility of planning for a new synthetic ice rink at Weyer

Park.

On the revenue side, according to the city finance office’s CIP figures, the city is expected to collect $6.5 million for projects in 2023. That figure includes a $2.5 million cash balance that will roll over from 2022 due to projects that were not done.

“We’ve got a lot of money that’s left over from last year that’s going to roll over into next year for projects that we’ve already been planning and lining out,” LaFayette said. “A big part of that is the addition to the museum. That obviously didn’t get done so that’s going to roll over into next year. It’s things like that, they were budgeted, we were going

Kayla Kindsfater 71

Kayla Kindsfater, age 71 of Aladdin, WY, died Wednesday, August 31, 2022 at her home, after several months of respiratory issues.

A Memorial Service will be held 11am Wednesday, September 7, 2022 at Leverington Funeral Home of the Northern Hills in Belle Fourche. Visitation will take place 5 to 7pm Tuesday at the funeral home. Inurnment will take place in Alva Cemetery, in Alva, WY.

Kayla Rae Bucher was born November 28, 1950 in Belle Fourche. She was the daughter of Merle Dean and Lois (Borchgrevink) Bucher. Kayla grew up in Belle Fourche where she graduated from high school with the Class of '69. After high school she attended Northern State University in Aberdeen. On March 18, 1972, Kayla was united in marriage to Jack Kindsfater at the First Baptist Church in Belle Fourche. To this union three children were born: Camille, Eric, and Amy. Following their marriage, Jack and Kayla lived in the Belle Fourche area, where Jack farmed with his family for many years.

During these years, Kayla developed a very close relationship with her mother-in-law, Evelyn Kindsfater. Kayla, not having any experience with farm life, was mentored and nurtured by her. Evelyn taught her the wonderful life of a farm wife. It included everything from cooking meals, canning, gardening, and more. Through it all, Kayla became Evelyn's "little girl" and those years were great. In the spring of 1998, Jack and Kayla took a trip of their lives and spent that summer traveling to the west coast and up into Alaska. That fall, they moved to Eugene Oregon where they helped their daughter start up a flower business in 2003. In 2015 they moved to Aladdin Wyoming to help care for Kayla's mother, and they have lived there since.

Kayla and Jack celebrated their 50th wedding anniversary this past spring. She was a loving wife and mother. Kayla has always loved kids and she especially loved all her grandchildren and great grandchildren. Kayla will be remembered for her great smile and how hard she worked when she had a job to do. It was always done perfectly. Kayla will be missed very much by her husband and family. She was special.

Kayla is survived by her husband, Jack of Aladdin WY; children, Camille (Jess) Smith of Deland FL, Eric (fiancé Danielle) of Conway AR, Amy (Joshua) Donaldson of Springfield OR; 9 grandchildren: Jordan, Micah, Taylor, Mazie, Mason, Farrell, Emma, Ethan, and Sunny; 4 great grandchildren: Olivia, Opal, Maya, and Gideon. She is also survived by her mother, Lois Bucher of Spearfish; 2 brothers, Dennis (Sandi) Bucher of Lead, Lyndon (Heidi) Bucher of Belle Fourche; 1 sister, Marcie (Bob) Hettich of Knoxville TN; and several nieces and nephews.

She was preceded in death by her father, Dean; and brother, Wesley.

Christine Elliott 76

Christine Elliott, 76, of Deadwood, SD passed away on Thursday, August 11, 2022. Christine was born in Belle Fourche on July 22nd, 1946 to Dale and Evelyn Grosse. Christine married Ronald Odle on June 29th, 1962. They had 5 children together and lived on the family farm in Nisland up until 1986.

Christine married Kenneth Elliott on March 22nd, 1994. They lived in Deadwood with their fur babies.

Christine was loved beyond measure. She had a sense of humor that kept those around her in constant laughter. She was very blunt and told it like it was.

She loved her children, grandchildren, and great grandchildren dearly. She has numerous siblings, nieces and nephews. She has a very large family.

Christine is survived by her husband Kenneth, children Ron (Cam), Selena (Mandy), Michael (Deb), Sandra (Jeff), and Carrie (Jerry).

There will be a celebration of her life on September 10th, 2022 at 12:00pm at the Piedmont Community Center 16373 2nd St, Piedmont SD. Lunch will be served.

Pastor's Perspective

This week's Pastor's Perspective is provided by Tim Smith of First Baptist Church Belle Fourche

“Why Hasn’t Jesus Returned, Yet?”

What’s taking so long? As youth, when we were forced to wait for our parents as they were shopping or visiting, we would grow impatient and wonder where they were and why it had taken so long.

One of the great challenges in life is learning to be patient when we’re forced to wait. Waiting is particularly hard when you are impatient. A great deal of life, we find ourselves waiting for something to come to pass. And, waiting continues well into adulthood.

Since Jesus’ departure from the earth following His death, burial and resurrection. When He had blessed His disciples and had given them the Great Commission (Matthew 28:18-20). The ministry that the apostles were to have was to be one of making disciples. The role of making disciples is an ongoing focus of the church of Christ today. We’re commissioned by the Lord Jesus to continue to instruct, to baptize and make fully devoted followers of Jesus.

The church has been in existence for nearly 2000 years, and the tasks first given to the first generation of followers of Jesus is the same one that we have today. When that first generation of followers began their task of obedience to the Lord, they sought to fulfill their commission with the mindset that the could return at any moment.

The early disciples had even asked, ‘are you going restore the kingdom to Israel?’ They had been anticipating a restoration, but the Lord had a greater purpose for them. He chose them to be empowered by the Spirit and equipped to establish the church. When He departed from them they stared up to Heaven wondering if the Lord Jesus was going to return at that time. It was then that an angel appeared and told them... “Men of Galilee,” they said, “why do you stand here looking into the sky? This same Jesus, who has been taken from you into heaven, will come back in the same way you have seen him go into heaven.” (Acts 1:11 NIV)

And, like the first generation followers of Christ, we’ve been looking forward to the Lord Jesus’ return. It’s been nearly 2000 years since Christ departed to Heaven, and since that time we’ve instructed others the words of Jesus, and we’ve baptized new followers and we’ve continued to live expectantly looking for Jesus’ return. Why is it that He hasn’t returned, yet?

The Apostle Peter tells us that the Lord doesn’t work according to our time, but according to His. “But do not forget this one thing, dear friends: With the Lord a day is like a thousand years, and a thousand years are like a day. The Lord is not slow in keeping his promise, as some understand slowness. He is patient with you, not wanting anyone to perish, but everyone to come to repentance.” (2 Peter 3:8-9 NIV)

So, the reason that the Lord has tarried is because He’s being patient with us. He doesn’t want any of us to perish without us coming to repentance. God’s desire is that individually, we choose to turn from our sins and trust in Jesus as Lord and Savior. The same Jesus who died, was buried and rose from the dead. So, how do we repent from our sins and become a Christ follower?

“That if you confess with your mouth, “Jesus is Lord,” and believe in your heart that God raised him from the dead, you will be saved. 10 For it is with your heart that you believe and are justified, and it is with your mouth that you confess and are saved.” (Romans 10:9-10 NIV) If you want to learn more, feel free to call us at the church for more information.

Boys and Girls Varsity Soccer Drop Games at More

news@bellefourchebeacon.com

The Belle Fourche Boys and Girls varsity soccer teams traveled to St. Thomas More last Tuesday to tangle with the Cavaliers at the Dakota Fields in Rapid City.

In the Boys game, the Broncos kept it close in the first half as it was 1-0 More at halftime. Three quick goals by the Cavaliers in the middle of the second half powered the hosts to a 5-0 final score victory over the Broncos. More outshot Belle 38-7, and that kept Broncos goalkeeper Josh Brill busy as he hauled in 30 saves in the box for the contest. "Overall I was proud of the way our guys battled during the game. Josh Brill did a fantastic job stopping shots including two penalty kicks," said head coach Lucas Trimble about the game. "Disappointed in the loss but our boys played hard and never gave up," he added. The Broncos are now 2-3 on the season. The St. Thomas More girls picked up their first win of the season to go with four losses as they stopped the Lady Broncos by a 7-0 score. The Broncos fell to 0-6-1 on the year. No statistics were available at press time. Both the boys and girls teams will be in action this week as they travel to Spearfish to take on the Spartan's.

Broncs Drop Home Opener to Ranked Dell Rapids

Beacon Staff
news@bellefourchebeacon.com

New Head Coach Justin Walker told fans he was not going to shy away from tough competition for his teams during his tenure. And it didn't take long for that concept to be taken to heart as the Broncs lost their home opener to one of the best teams in the state. The 4th-ranked Dell Rapids Quarriers came to Lou Graslie Field and dealt Belle Fourche its first loss of the season, 45-to-20, on Friday night Sept. 2.

"A loss is only a loss if you don't learn the lessons you gain from it," Walker told the Beacon. "There's a reason Dell Rapids has a bunch of banners with a lot of years on them. We want to be on that level of a program and we want to do the things where they're at. It was a good measuring stick."

In the post-game huddle on the field Walker encouraged his team with the fact that they were only 25 points away from the "best team in the state."

"We understand how far away

we are from the top but not too far away," Walker said.

Dell Rapids scored on its first seven possessions, including five first quarter touchdowns as they bolted to a 35-7 lead after one. Trailing 45-7 at halftime the Broncs held the Quarriers scoreless in the second half as Dell Rapids substituted liberally. Belle Fourche quarterback Nolan Wahlfeldt threw two second-half touchdown passes to account for the final score.

Wahlfeldt threw for 222 yards and three touchdowns going 11-for-26. All of Belle Fourche's positive yardage came through the air against the Quarriers stingy ground defense.

With the score 14-0 Dell Rapids in the first, the Broncs struck back. On third and ten from their own 33, Wahlfeldt dropped back to throw. Under pressure he threw deep to the far sideline where the Bronc's Tatin Yackley hauled it in at the Dell Rapid's 25-yard line. With the Quarriers Evan Nelson draped over his back, Yackley broke free and took it to the house completing the 67-yard touchdown pass.

"He threw it up and I just jumped up and caught it. You just have to give 100 percent on every play," Yackley said.

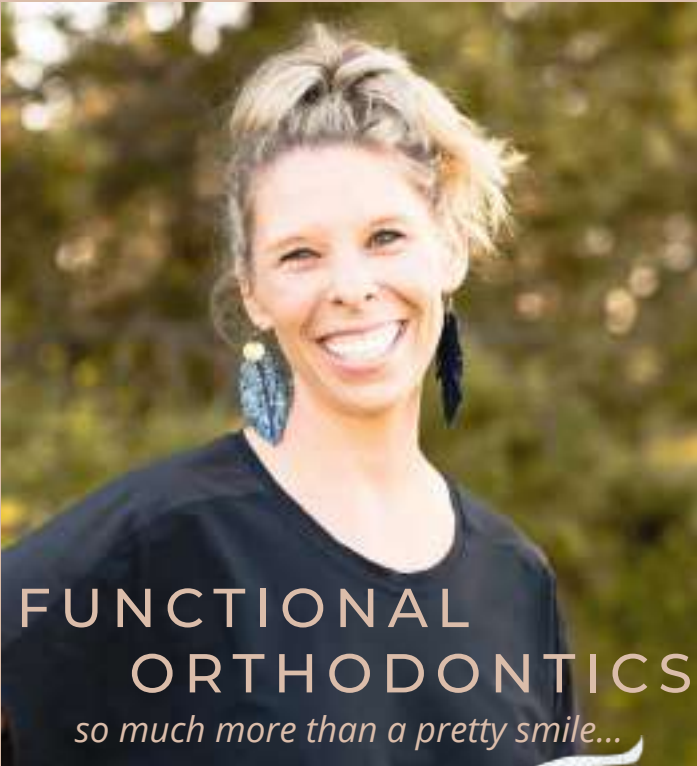

"When the defensive backs press me, or are up close, then I give my quarterback a little nod like 'oh, I'd rather go deep here' and then when they're playing off, that's when the short routes come into play."

Belle Fourche came out sharp in the second half with four straight pass completions. The Broncs went max protect often implementing two three-man route combinations.

In the third quarter the Broncs struck again. On 4th and 10, Wahlfeldt again dropped back to throw. Belle Fourche's Devin Nowowiejski picked up a blitzing Quarrier linebacker allowing Wahlfeldt to hit Josh Hahne in stride over the middle in the end zone. That made it 45-13.

"I saw their two high safeties were coming in low so I knew if I threw a deep ball anything in the seams would have been perfect," Wahlfeldt said. "And JT (Hahne) ran a corner post to the middle and he was wide open. It was a great route and the offensive line gave me a lot of time to throw it."

With five minutes remaining in the game Wahlfeldt rolled to his left on a 2nd and 10 from the Dell Rapids 39 and found a wide-open Evan Vissia at the 12. The senior wide receiver took it in without a defender in sight. After the Anthony Staley extra point, the final score stood 45-to-20.

Coach Walker gave his quarterback the freedom to call most of his own plays during stretches of the second half. "The first half was a lot of coach and in that second half we kind of got into a groove and he had confidence in me to call plays, so I appreciate that a lot," Wahlfeldt said.

"Nolan had a great game," Walker said. "He knows where he wants to go with the ball.

There were two drives where he called almost all the plays, from the shifts to the motions, to going stack, to going wide, it's his call."

The competition remains strong this week as the Broncs play at St. Thomas More on Saturday night to open conference play.

"I told the team that no banners or trophies could be won this week, but next week is when banners and trophies are on the line," Walker said.

"This was a pre-season game, a measuring stick game, to see where we are at as a team. But next week means a lot more and we're going to begin preparing for that in about ten minutes."

From A1 Budget

going to work those projects, and we have to roll them into next year because we're running out of time this year."

In response to a question from Council Member Clark Sowers, LaFayette made clear that those funds are only specific to CIP and no other part of the city budget.

Another large source of revenue is $1.7 million in city sales tax. Other revenue sources include various grants, reserve funds and money from the state.

On the expense side there is a projected expenditure of $4.7 million for projects in 2023. That would leave a $1.78 million projected surplus of funds. Major expenditures include $1.17 million allocated to go toward the expansion and improvements at the Tri-State Museum and Visitor's Center. As mentioned, that amount represents a carryover from 2022 as the project has yet to be completed. A meeting this week is expected to begin setting a timeline for possible engineering work on the project.

Also on the expense side is $1.5 million allocated for streets and bridges. That would include sidewalk improvements, crack sealing, pavement repair, overlay projects and 11th Ave. repaving. There is also $100,000 set aside for downtown area asphalt work and repairs to include crack sealing and sealant work.

The CIP proposal calls for $395,000 to be set aside for paving work, cremation niches, and sprinkler system upgrades at Pine Slope Cemetery, and $345,000 for the parks and recreation department. This would include $50,000 for bike path repair and replacement, resurfacing the pickleball courts, playground equipment at Roundup Park and improvements to Rail Park.

A discussion was held regarding the future of the skating rink at Weyer Park. The current rink is in disrepair and either needs to be scrapped or replaced. Council Member Randy Sowers mentioned the possibility of installing a synthetic ice rink at the location. New City Administrator Bob Nelson was involved in the installation of the synthetic ice rink at Outlaw Park in Deadwood and he estimated to the council that a permanent rink would cost around $125,000 to install at Weyer Park. It would have an approximate lifespan of 20 years, according to Nelson and could be used year-round.

"One way or another we need to do something with that space," said Council Member Rebecca Larson. "It's not attractive, it's not useful and it's not safe."

LaFayette proposed shifting $15,000 for bike path workout stations along with $10,000 for the existing rink from 2022 and rolling over $25,000 into 2023 to begin a fund to pay for a new rink. Additionally, $25,000 would be put into the 2023 CIP to go toward the project for a total of $50,000 in seed money. In the interim plans could be made, cost estimates gathered, the possibility of applying for community grants and the gathering of community input could take place.

A total of $182,500 was allocated toward projects at the Rec Center. That included $100,000 in general improvements, the initiation of a set-aside fund to construct cold storage for the theater, and the re-purposing of the racquetball court. To be completed this year will be locker room improvements. A new HVAC system and new heat exchanger have been installed.

Since the Rec Center is seen as an important gathering center in the event of civic emergencies a backup generator has long been on the wish list. Early cost estimates came in around $85,000, an amount set aside in 2022's CIP. However, when more recent bids came in, City Engineer Brent Hardy said the cost would be closer to $250,000. As a result the $85,000 was pulled from the 2023 CIP. However, the city plans to continue to receive bids for the generator and if a more reasonable cost estimate comes in, the expenditure could possibly be taken out of the 2023 CIP surplus to pay for the project, according to LaFayette.

The BF Volunteer Fire Department will have $550,000 set aside for an expansion to the fire hall and $40,000 for replacement of the retaining wall.

Mayor Randy Schmidt requested that the city begin setting aside a weather emergency fund each year in the CIP. This move comes after the devastating hailstorm on Sunday, June 12. The storm damaged many city buildings and repairs needed to begin faster than insurance funds could be collected.

"This will allow us to move on repairs and not have to wait for insurance money to come in," LaFayette said. "Right now we're having to fix things that we haven't received insurance money for."

The CIP calls for $100,000 to be put into the contingency fund for 2023. The council will assess if more needs to be added next year for 2024 and beyond as the need arises.

Another set aside fund the Mayor proposed to initiate in 2023 would be the pay for a second access to the Roundup Grounds. The 2023 CIP calls for $50,000 to be put into the fund and a similar amount to be added in the years to come.

"And if the mayor and council decide we're getting close to having the funds to do that, we can bump it up a little bit to get it done," Mayor Schmidt said.

Currently there is only one main access road for the public into the Roundup Grounds complex. Anyone who has attended the July 4th rodeo knows that it creates a massive bottleneck prior to and immediately after the event. A second access road would create a smoother traffic flow and allow easier movement for emergency vehicles.

An amount of $120,000 is allocated in 2023 for improvements at the Roundup Grounds which would include electrical upgrades and other improvements. New lighting at the ball fields, soccer fields and rodeo grounds is also proposed with $70,000 being penciled in per year for ten years to pay for the improvement, at a total estimated cost of nearly $700,000. Grants, or a sponsored donation is also being considered to help defray the cost of the new lighting.

For water improvement projects $1.25 million is set aside for well #3 at Hat Ranch. Funds are also allocated for various water main replacement projects, telemetry upgrades and tank maintenance.

The next council budget work session is set for Sept. 7th at 5:30pm at council chambers in city hall.

By: Doug Cole

This past week was the state fair in Huron.

Times have changed in recent years, but I can remember the time when it seemed like just about everyone in the state headed to the fair.

Woonsocket melons were ripe and about every mile on the high-ways to the fair the farmers had a melon stand.

My mother insisted on the trip so she could renew her supply of wooden yards sticks, given away quite freely at the fair.

My posterior can attest to the fact that in our family home a yard stick was both an instrument to measure and a disciplinary tool.

It seemed like from fair to fair the “measure” of discipline could be stronger than the wooden slat used to administer and by the time the next year’s fair rolled around yardsticks were again in high demand in the Cole household.

We have a collection of antique yardsicks on the wall of the Beacon office from various Belle Fourche and area businesses.

A local quipster in the office recently, upon spotting the yardstick collection on the wall, commented, “ You know they are not making yardsticks any longer?”

I pulled in, replied, “ They’re not?”

“No”, he insisted, “They are still 36 inches.”

Labor Day is a holiday put into place by the American government to celebrate all of the hard work that has helped to change this country for the better.

That being said, as important as work is, not everybody is thrilled by the idea of it. Let’s be real, Monday is probably a majority of the population’s least favorite day, simply because it is the beginning of the work week.

“My father taught me to work; he did not teach me to love it.” — Abraham Lincoln

“I’m a firm believe in luck, and I find the harder I work, the more I have of it.” — Thomas Jefferson

“It is only through labor and painful effort, by grim energy and resolute courage, that we move on to better things.” — Theodore Roosevelt

“Amateurs sit and wait for inspiration. The rest of us just get up and go to work.” — Stephen King

Fall Prevention

Every year, 1 in 4 people over 65 falls. That means that millions of older adults fall every year, and 1 in 5 of those falls results in serious injury decreasing quality of life. Less than half of the people who fall will tell their doctor, maybe out of embarrassment or maybe because they assume that falling is a part of the aging process. But falling is not inevitable, and with some help from your doctor and your physical therapist, your chances of falling can be significantly reduced. Research has shown having multiple risk factors contribute to more falls. Some risk factors can be changed, like lower body weakness, difficulties with walking and balance, vision problems, use of certain medications, foot pain or poor footwear, and home hazards like throw rugs, extension cords, and uneven steps or floors. A physical therapist can screen you for your individual fall risk. They can also have a positive impact on many factors to reduce your fall risk through interventions like strengthening exercises, balance training, or teaching you to use a device like a cane or walker to keep you more steady when you're walking. A physical therapist can also teach you how to make easy changes around the house that can reduce your risk of falling. Some easy examples would include:

- Using night lights to help your vision at night
- Removing throw rugs, extension cords, or clutter that you could trip over
- Installing grab bars near the toilet or bathtub

A PT can also work together with other professionals like your eye doctor if your vision is increasing your fall risk or with your doctor or pharmacist to review your medications to see if they could be making you feel dizzy, weak, or sleepy. Falling is common in people over the age of 65, but that doesn't make it a normal part of the aging process. If you have fallen, your chance of falling again is doubled, but by working with your physical therapist and the rest of your healthcare team, you can reduce your fall risk and maintain your independence. Free Fall Prevention Screening – September 20, 2022 Pain & Movement Solutions is hosting their 5th annual Free multi-disciplinary Fall Prevention Screenings to celebrate National Fall Awareness and Prevention Day in their clinic on September 20, 2022. Pain & Movement Solutions is teaming up with several other local healthcare providers, including Belle Fourche Counseling, Cathy Sowers, DNP – Certified Clinical Densitometrist, Heartland Home Health, Belle Fourche Area Community Center and more to provide you with an in-depth multi-factorial fall risk assessment to help decrease your risk of falls. Reserve your appointment today by calling 605-723-0185 to receive a free holistic individual assessment. Walk-ins welcome. The Free Fall Preventions Screens are taking place on Tuesday, September 20th from 9 am – 12 pm at Pain & Movement Solutions. About Pain & Movement Solutions Pain & Movement Solutions is a private outpatient physical therapy practice in Belle Fourche serving

The Good Stuff

by Jim Thompson

Radio host Jim Thompson takes motivational stories that listeners and readers send him and incorporates them into the a daily program he calls "The Good Stuff." It has been on the air for more than 10 years. The Beacon is honored to host the written version of some of Jim's classic episodes and we proudly present them here.

I have been blessed with many friends in my life..from rodeo, radio, travelin', even the Legislature, but cowboy poetry has contributed many friends to that list. I believe it was Yvonne Hollenbeck who first introduced me to Andy Nelson. He's a good friend, a great writer, poet and voice. He's gotten many acclaims through the years, but I believe in the end he'd be proudest of this:

by Andy Nelson

If I were king of many lands, You'd see me with different eyes;
You'd kneel and kiss my ring, Wanting what my money buys.
But I am just a cowboy, I've always remained the same;
The most treasured thing I own, Is this title and my name.

If I were a slick politician, You would flock to my side;
You'd take my opinion as law, Even if I cheated and I lied.
But I am just a cowboy, I speak plain and simple truth;

I respect those around me, And have, ever since my youth.

If I were a big movie star, You're kids would idolize me;
Even if unfaithful to my wife, Stealing virtue that wasn't free.
But I am just a cowboy, This family I have is my life;
To me, nothing is more precious, Than my children and my wife.

If I were a pro athlete, You'd admire my strength and skill;
My salary would buy my freedom, If I choose to cheat or kill.

But I am just a cowboy, I work hard for chicken feed;
I'll never be rich or wealthy, But have everything I need.

If I were a trust fund child, You'd envy the life I'm livin';
I buy relationships and friends, Ungrateful for all I am given.
But I am just a cowboy, With feet planted on this sod;
Thankful for all of my blessings, And know they come from God.

My word is a binding contract, Hard work is the trail I choose;
I live for life's simple pleasures, And don't care if I win or lose.
This life I've chosen to follow, Brings me satisfaction and joy;
And I thank the good Lord daily, To have been born "Just a cowboy"!

"Good Ole Days"
Oil

Who hasn't been in this predicament? Maybe more common in the "ole" days but it still happens, just more modern methods of pulling one out. My uncle always said 4-wheel drive made everyone braver so you got stuck harder. Some truth to that.

Capitol News

By KAREN ODELL

Happy Labor Day.

Dick and Erma Albert discovered it was time to get their four-wheeler serviced, so on Monday, they made a trip to Sturgis. Erma discovered that the price of ice cream had reached new heights, but it was still good. They went early, and waited until the business opened. Then they got ice cream, and waited in their nice waiting room until the four-wheeler was done. Erma went to the chiropractor in Buffalo, on Wednesday. Then they had to make another trip to the Hills on Thursday. They both went to the Senior Citizens' Dinner on Friday. Erma picked up Delores Sperle, and Dick rode his four-wheeler. Bobbie served tacos this week. Then, Erma and Delores stayed to play cards, and Dick had his own vehicle to go home in. On Sunday, they went to the Catholic church for mass, and had lunch at Saloon Number Three, with Father Brian. Their usual lunch partners, John and Carol Helms, had gone to Prague, in the Czech Republic, for a vacation with her family and cousins, who still live in that country. What a great trip that would be.

Donna Lewis has had a quiet week. Her grandson, Darick Gorder, Michelle and Dusty, have been visiting for a few days. Their campers are still there, since the family reunion, so they have everything they need. Donna has really enjoyed their visit. They are bow hunting for elk, and have seen some, but have not yet had a good shot at one.

Junior and Shirley Melum are staying in, out of the heat. This summer seems to go on and on. The temperature was over one-hundred degrees on Sunday. Shirley is nearly finished with the border to her wool applique quilt. It sounds so beautiful. It is decorated with bears, eagles and other animals and has a chevron design around the outside. It is a work of art.

Dale Moncur came out to the ranch this weekend. He got some fencing work done. He got to see Daeson play football at a game in Newell. It was a high scoring game for both of the grade school teams, but Buffalo finally came out on top. It must have been a tough game for the defensive players. Dale talked to Gene Odell at the game.

Dorothy Padden had stayed at Brett Padden's for a few days, and Brett brought her home on Wednesday. On Thursday, she went with Bryce and Dawn Padden to the girls' volleyball games in Buffalo against Lemmon. Then, on Friday, the same three went to Buffalo for the high school football game against Faith. It has been so hot that after hanging out clothes on the clothesline, you can automatically go right to the beginning and start taking them down again, because they have already dried.

On Monday, Jake Reynolds called Ronda Cordell to tell her there were cows in her millet field over south against the hills. Jake had been driving up Belltower curve. When Ronda and Clint Zolnoski got there to get them out, there were quite a herd of cows and calves, but they were not the bovine variety. Clint took the swather up to cut it before the elk had eaten it all. On Thursday, Ronda went to Buffalo, and stopped briefly at the Zolnoski's school camp. Darby is loving school and wishes it went 'twenty-one days before a break'. Abby is sad when Darby gets dropped off at school in the mornings, but she, too, will soon get to go to pre-school, one day a week. Ronda had lunch at Blossoms N Brew, and visited at Shirley Moseley's. Ronda was surprised, when a car drove up on Saturday morning, with a couple of ladies. Celia Welch was being chauffeured around the countryside, and came to return jelly jars. She will soon be moving to the Dorset Home in Spearfish. Ronda received a call from an archery hunter in the U S Forest, that afternoon. A bull elk had been hit and a blood trail looked as if the animal had gone to Ronda's deeded land. She and two others searched for several hours without any luck, so they planned to return and search on Sunday. Ronda doesn't think archery is such a good thing for big bull elk. She seems to get a similar call every year during archery season, and one year she got six calls like this one. She doesn't know if those bulls were all found, but after days of searching, the meat would be no good. In the past, three were found with just the antlers gone.

On Saturday, Clint, Denise, Darby and Abby Zolnoski went to Belle Fourche to deliver Lisa Koranda's horse trailer, and go on to Rapid City. They would return to Sturgis for the Scott Huber wedding in the evening.

Charlie Odell's engine blew up on his swather on Tuesday. It was a definite end to his swathing, so he found a swather on-line, and Premier brought it out on Wednesday. Karen had gotten home on Tuesday evening. She had driven to Kansas City to spend a few days with her brother, Jim Evans. Her sister-in-law, Judy, had passed away, and she went down to help Jim for a while. She drove to Mitchell to visit Cody Odell's family, then went on to Kansas City. It is quite a long drive, and she had to stop at most rest stops to rest her back and walk around a little bit, to keep herself mobile, but the drive was nice and the weather was good. It is hard to move out of a house that you have lived in for so many years. Jim and Judy were both pharmacists, and graduated from Ohio Northern University, where Jim had played left field for the University baseball team, had a great bass solo voice and sang with the university choir; and Judy had been a queen in the ONU homecoming court. They had traveled around the world, when they finally got time for a vacation, and Jim had filled his house with photography of spectacular scenes from those trips. On the way home, as Karen came, again, through Mitchell, she got to see her grandson, Kellan's, football game at the high school. Kellan's other grandparents, on the Thomas side, were there, too. It was a nice evening, and perfect for football. She stopped to rest at the statue of Sacajawea. It is a beautiful work of art. After she got home, she and Charlie watched another of Kellan's games on YouTube. This time Mitchell played Sturgis, and one of J D Williams's boys was playing against him on the Sturgis team. At home again, Karen has been teaching Hywel some 'search and rescue' lessons, and she has begun building a greenhouse in an effort to fight off the grasshoppers. Charlie inspected cattle for Bryce Padden and Martin Rolph on Thursday. Then, on Friday, he went to Belle Fourche and Spearfish for supplies, and to get an oil change for the van. On Saturday, they watched Ohio State Football, and got to see just a few snatches of the Ohio State Marching Band. The best part of the game is the band, and I believe, showing the 'best band in the land' would gain many more viewers than what are attracted by three or four people trying to tell you what you already saw during the first half. Evidently, they think all the viewers are blind. On Sunday, Charlie and Karen went to church at the Presbyterian Church in Marietta, Georgia. It was a wonderful service on YouTube, and the sermon seemed perfect for present times. After lunch, they watched another great Ohio State women's volleyball game. Nothing seems so wonderful as, at last, lying down in bed after you have worked your body to complete exhaustion.

Looking Back in Belle

Belle TIMES

Talk of the Town
The dam is now repaired and the lake filled with water. Boating can now be enjoyed by all who care to participate in the exhilarating exercise of rowing in the small hours of the morning as the crack marksman try their skill on the ducks. Joe Thullen bagged the first ducks of the season. (Editor's note: this was the dam that was washed out during a down pour on the last weekend in June while the town was having a huge Grand Old Army reunion, an organization of veterans from the Union army during Civil War. The dam was built where Herrmann Park is now.)

News Items of the Week
P. R. Quarnberg, representing the Tri-State Milling company, which numbers among the leading merchants many who handle its flour and other products, was in the city Thursday calling on the patrons of his company. Mr. Quarnberg is enthusiastic over the outlook for golf in Belle Fourche and vicinity and, besides himself, there are many others there who have been taken with the game and the result has been that a country club is in the process of formation there. The new organization will be known as the Belle Fourche Country Club, and already it has received a tentative organization, which has selected a site for its ground near the city, and which has, under the direction of John Bland, been under way for several days. In that time, however, considerable progress has been made. It had been hoped that the course would be in condition for playing over next Sunday, at which time it has been the intention of the Belle Fourche club, which will be organized immediately, to invite members of the Lead club over there to play over the links. This invitation has had to be delayed, but assurance is given that it will be issued for Sunday, the 17th, on which date it is hoped to formally open the grounds. The site of the course is an excellent one and offers many advantages for playing golf, so the invitation of the Belle Fourche club undoubtedly will be accepted by many members.

tary of Commerce W. Averell Harriman and his 19-man committee on foreign aid tonight held out a threat of expanded controls on exports and restoration of wartime controls to carry out the Marshall plan for European recovery. The revival of food controls was proposed by Chester Davis, chairman of Harriman's subcommittee on food supplies. Davis said that sooner of later this nation will face a choice. There must be a voluntary program for reducing meat consumption in this country, he said, or reinstatement of government controls. Secretary Harriman, who suggested the possibility of expanded export controls, said such a move will have to be studied in the light of European requirements as presented by the 16 nations at the Paris conference on the Marshall plan.

Local Firemen To Receive $1100

Pierre, Sept. 11 – City fire departments in South Dakota have some money coming. State Insurance Commissioner W. A. Mueller says that nearly $72,000 will be distributed to 26 fire departments. The money comes from a tax on fire insurance premiums collected in towns which have organized fire departments. It amounts to 2 ½ per cent on foreign companies and one per cent on domestic companies.

1030 Veterans Now In Butte County

The Veteran Administration this week estimated that 80,000 veterans of all wars are living in South Dakota. The figure contains only living veterans, both of World War II and previous conflicts. Not included are war veterans who have re-enlisted or who have died since their service.

50 years ago Belle Fourche Daily Post September 14, 1972 Variety of Problems Before School Board

Discussion at the September meeting of the Belle Fourche school district ranged from tuition rates to professional practices and committees appointments. The board approved the tuition rate as negotiated by the South Dakota Department of Public Instruction with similar agencies in Montana and North Dakota. The Montana rate was negotiated at $4.90 per day for secondary students and $.55 for elementary students. North Dakota rates were set at $5.06 per day for secondary students and $3.66 for elementary. Board members George Kiplinger and Fred Carlson were appointed to the professional practices committee along with Principal Lou Graslie as administrative member. The board adopted a resolution authorizing the school to borrow money if necessary.

Travel Official to Address Chamber

Gary Drewes, state travel director for the South Dakota department of highways, will be featured speaker at the noon luncheon of the Belle Fourche Chamber of Commerce Monday. The meeting will be held at Max's. Plate price is $1.55. Chamber officials emphasized that this is the first time in five years anyone from the state level of the department has appeared before the Chamber. Meanwhile, Chamber officials urged merchants to arrange window displays next week in honor of the local Bentonite industry. The Chamber will arrange the displays if you provide the window.

Bumper Tobacco Crop, But... Air Not So Pure As You Think

That good, clean Tri-State area air isn't as good and clean as it might be. Pat Heinbaugh, who lives at 83 8th Avenue, has the evidence to prove that statement. Pat, who is a pretty fair gardener, is cooperating with state experiment station researchers in keeping tab on pollution levels. Wayne S. Gardner, professor of plant science at the agricultural experiment station at Brookings, arranged with Pat earlier this year to plant some tobacco, cotton and other plants to help detect pollution in the area. Tobacco is one of the bio-indicator plants used by scientists as indicators of certain impurities in the atmosphere. Small doses of air pollutants cause various plants to either wither, turn spotted, curl up or even keel over. Tobacco, for instance, shows a special type of spot or fleck in the presence of caustic ozone, the smog-type air pollutant usually associated with heavy population or industrial regions. Ozone injury has shown up on tobacco plants throughout the state, even in the most rural areas. Heinbaugh thought he had a good thing going. He had a magnificent tobacco crop and for a time there wasn't an ozone fleck on the plants. Gardner visited with Pat this summer and inspected Heinbaugh's crop. He found no traces of the ozone fleck and thought Pat had a impressive tobacco crop. A few day after Gardner's visit, the fleck showed up.

Shown above is Orman Dam in a 1940's era postcard. The caption indicates it is 115 ft. high and 1 and 1/8 miles long. It further states that the reservoir irrigates 100,000 acres.

"Building Main Street, not Wall Street"

Perfection is Rare, Greatness is Your Destiny!

Paul Arden once said, "Too many people spend too much time trying to perfect something before they actually do it. Instead of waiting for perfection, run with what you have, and fix it along the way". I cannot reiterate this enough, perfect has, and always will, be the enemy of great. In previous columns, we have addressed change, transformation, revitalization, and how best to achieve these. The key ingredient for success is typically the ability to enact these efforts quickly and decisively. Remember, great changes rarely come through evolution, it will come through revolution. They come because of a willingness to be decisive and act. Those moving slowly through change are usually indecisive and most likely afraid of change. You can spot those most resistant to change as they consistently are attempting to find ways to slow it down.

One of the greatest attributes of transformational leadership is understanding nearly every worthwhile transformation will involve pivots and deviating from the original plans.

Transformational leadership is truly an art. Transformational leadership is the art of understanding when to pivot, how to pivot, where to pivot and finally, when to rinse and repeat doing it again. All to commonly, communities or businesses become bogged-down in attempting to create a perfect model or execute the perfect plan. While we might give them an A+ for attempting to stick to the script, they receive an F- because they are unwilling to adjust the script. As they say, a great sailor can sail their boat in all sorts of winds by simply adjusting their sails.

I have mentioned Brian Chesky and Joe Gebbia in a previous column. In 2007, they rented out air mattresses in San Francisco to conference attendees due to lack of available hotel rooms for nearby conferences. They called their business Air Bed and Breakfast. However, it wasn't long before they realized without conferences in the area, their business model wasn't sustainable. They rethought their entire business model. They made a monumental pivot and took the concept nationwide for all travelers. That pivot is worth $50 billion today! Had they stuck with the original plan, Airbnb would not exist today.

I have seen entire industries, communities and businesses racked with the inability to pivot when pivoting was crucial. Group think in leadership or community is a death nail in the coffin. Group think assures you rarely innovate or make the changes required to survive. Leadership is crucial when it comes to change or transformation. Leaders must convince others to alter course as needed and be able to provide and instill confidence in the entire team to affect the most viable change or alterations. When teams have faith in the transformational leadership skills of their leaders, little will stop them from achieving greatness regardless of the obstacles in the way.

Leaders with the ability to build community and business dreams are rare. When a community or business comes across these individuals, they must empower them and support them. Every community or business achieving greatness has done so because a dreamer had a vision in what that community or business could become. They achieved greatness behind a leader willing to take risks. They did so behind a leader willing to accept greatness in lieu of seeking perfection. They embraced what could be and would not settle for the current status-quo.

In closing, the message of change and transformation must be coupled with relentless communication and other components. All is for naught if we only focus on perfection in lieu of accepting greatness. Achieving greatness as a community or business involves effective communication, quality teamwork, sparkling innovation, all of which lead to the joy of transformation. That said, as stated above, never allow perfect be the enemy of great!

First Ever Fishing at the Fair

Colleen Brunner
news@bellefourchebeacon.com
NISLAND – “This was a great thing to do for the kiddos and I think they had a lot of fun,” said a parent of the event. Mark Bachman, Fruitdale, organized the first-ever Fishin’ at the Fair event at the Butte/Lawrence County Fair at the Nisland fairgrounds.
The event brought in more than 35 kids with children coming in to fish all during the morning.
No child under the age of 15 had to have a fishing license, and it was held on the banks of the Belle Fourche river on the south side of the fairgrounds. The event ran from 8 a.m. to 1 p.m. with children ages 5-18 years old invited to participate. There was no entry fee and fishing poles and bait were provided for those who did not have them available. Winners in the different categories were: Smallest fish-Zane Baker, .16 lbs.; Most fish-Caden Schmidt, 2.37 lbs.; Biggest fish-Bubba Shaykett, 3.65 lbs.; first female to catch a fish was Maloree Paklin.

The fairboard had approached Bachman about hosting the fishing tournament and he jumped at the chance. He provided all fishing poles, bait, buckets and the buckles given to winners. Helpers were Jeff Watson and Shawn Lipp.

Annual Newell Ram Sale Offers Top Quality Sheep Genetics

NEWELL, SD – Sheep producers will want to travel to Newell, S.D. Sept. 15-16 for the town’s annual Ram Show & Sale.
Now in its 77th year, the show and sale has built up a reputation for high quality range and stud rams and ewes for sale. Consignments from an eight-state region make up the lineup and return buyers routinely bid on the offering.
The Newell Ram Show and Sale has 280 high quality registered sheep representing nine different breeds consigned for its 2022 event. 66 Stud Rams, 67 Ewes, and 162 Range Rams. Breeds consigned include Rambouillet, Targhee, SAMM, Columbia, Corriedale, Suffolk, Hampshire, Polypay and Dorset.
New this year is the addition of DV Auction broadcasting the sale live online. This will allow producers unable to attend the event the opportunity to still buy top sheep genetics.
The sheep show will kick off on Sept. 15 with the ewes at 9 a.m. followed by the rams. The wool show will begin at 10 a.m. and cash prizes will also be offered to the winning fleeces.

Sheep growers are encouraged to bring their fleeces for the wool show.
The sheep sale will be held 11 a.m. on Friday, Sept. 16 with the ewes selling first, followed by stud rams and range rams.
Sheep producers and the general public are invited to take in the show and sale along with the sheep equipment dealers, vendors and concessions that are also on-site.
Find out more information and view the sale listing online at newellramsale.com. Find the latest Newell Ram Show & Sale news on Facebook.

The Annual Ranch Rodeo began with a Calcutta, an auctioning off each of the teams. Whoever has the highest bid will win if that team wins. There were nine teams entered into the rodeo. Each team consisted of a woman, youth, senior, hand, and Mutton Buster. The Price Angus Ranch members, Taze Hawley, Shianne Price, and Cassie Foster await bidding as the rest of the Ranch Rodeo teams wait their turn. Other members are Zane Day and Gary Price. Bruner photo

The Mackaben Team handled the "Branding" in quick order with a time under two minutes. The Youth of each team had to rope a steer, drag it to the "fire" where team members "branded" the animal with a branding iron dipped in paint, released the steer, and then do it over again with a second animal. Members of the Mackaben Team are Morgan Mackaben, Clay Mackaben, Jon Kraft, Chad Mackaben, and Mutton Buster Jace Sacrison. Bruner photo

Traxton Simonton eyes the herd to see which one of these cattle will be roped for the branding. Bruner photo

Catch the sheep, tie three legs, and put them under the TP. Then it's a race back to the finish line. No problem, except for the wind and the frisky critters. Some of the horses were a little shy of the woolies, too. Bruner photo

Newell September 5th Labor Day Parade

Marshals for this year's Newell Labor Day Parade were city employees. Wagon pulled by Robert Boylan's team. City foreman Larry Parker and water clerk Kendall Wetz. Brunner photo

Don Seaman, long-time Newell resident, enjoyed his view of the parade as he rode down Girard with some of his children, grandchildren and great grandchildren. Brunner photo

A replica of the Nisland Independent Community Church was on display on the church float. Children sang Bible songs all along the route, tossed out goodie bags filled with trinkets, fish crackers and handed out water bottles. This is the first time the church has had a float in the parade for many years. Brunner photo

Newell Girl Scout Troop 7215 decorated a float and tossed out candy and stickers to the children along the way. Brunner photo

Justin Stranberg rode his lawnmower which he uses in his brand-new lawn-care business he just started this summer. If you need a mower, he's your man. Brunner photo

First National Bank employees did their float up in red, white and blue to celebrate the Labor Day weekend. Brunner photo

The Class of 1962 was short on numbers, but full of fun with old-time posters circa 1962. Brunner photo

Kellsie and Wacey Boylan had a little help from their son driving his tractor and pulling a sign for Heartland Electric, the Boylan's business. Brunner photo

The Newell Festival of Trees float, reminding people of that event on December 3 at city hall, had their tree decorated to celebrate Labor Day. Brunner photo

Show Up

by Belle LaVenue

Welcome back to the Beacon's Fine Arts column, featuring the events and entertainers of our community. Time to find out where and when to Show Up in August!

SATURDAY, SEPTEMBER 17 - BELLE FOURCHE WRITERS PRESENTATION On Saturday, September 17 Belle Fourche Writers Lynda Edwards, Margie Bolte, Eric Beeman, Dale Kringen, Angela Hastings, Kathy Bjornstadt, and Joan Gerkin will share their stories from the Belle Fourche Writers 2nd annual story writing challenge. The venue of the September 17 presentation is the Belle Fourche Public Library from noon to 2 PM. Come support our local authors!

REVIEW OF BELLE FOURCHE AREA COMMUNITY THEATER SHOW, "YOU CAN'T TAKE IT WITH YOU" by Writers Group leader, Meg English: You Can't Take It With You was a delightful way to spend a hot summer afternoon. It's the story of an eccentric, somewhat dysfunctional, but happy family during the 1930s. Here are a few of the "take aways" I have despite the title of the play. Dysfunctional and happy don't go together much anymore in stories. The play was a refreshing comedy. Also refreshing were the refreshments. My two small granddaughters returned to the cookie bar more than once. I promise to make a much more significant donation at the next performance. The setting and costumes were elaborate as usual. I appreciated the attention to detail and the efforts to make the set the home of an eccentric family. The acting was stellar, especially Derek Olson's commanding voice and Angela Hastings impersonation of a drunk socialite. What was really fun to watch were the women players impersonating men. Great job everyone! Looking forward to the next production.

SEPTEMBER 29th - BROTHERS is the FIRST PERFORMANCE of the BELLE FOURCHE CONCERT SERIES' SEASON. This show features the hits of famous musical duos such as the Beach Boys, Hall & Oates, and Lennon & McCartney: SO GET YOUR CONCERT SERIES TICKETS SOON. The Series is five concerts between September and April. Series tickets are $25 for students, $40 for adults, and $90 for a family. Just call Connie (892-2370), Danelle (892-5962), or Mary (560-2177) to order your tickets for five wonderful concerts!

Maybe YOU know what SHOW is UP next? Share your fine arts tidbits and upcoming events at belle-lavenue@gmail.com. I especially love the juicy backstage dish and green room gossip! Stay cool out there friends, and don't forget to Show Up!.

September Family Fun Day is "Colorful Chalk"

The Tri-State Museum and Visitor Center will hold a Family Fun Day on September 18th from 2 to 4 p.m. entitled "Colorful Chalk Art."

Art teacher and chalk artist Jimmie Josephson will attend to talk about chalk art and demonstrate it. Families will be provided chalk to create their own chalk art in and on the grounds of the museum and visitor center. There will be a drawing for the book, "Chalk on the Wild Side," by Lorie King Kaehler and families will receive free take-home workbooks about the subject. Refreshments will be served.

Admission is $2 per person or free with membership. Reservations are helpful; please call 605-723-1200.

The Tri-State Museum and Visitor Center is located at 415 Fifth Avenue in Belle Fourche.

Belle Fourche Writers Present: Ten Characters in Search of a Story

At the January meeting last winter, the Belle Fourche Writers gathered to write stories.

First, each group member was given an assignment to write a description for a fictitious character. Ten characters were invented.

The group then created a story challenge: Authors were invited to create stories, using only the ten characters they created. Authors could include all of the characters or just a few. Each author was allowed to choose a setting and plot. All stories must be about the same characters.

The authors had one month to write their stories. The stories were revealed at the March meeting.

The result was a stunning collection of entertaining, original works. The group agreed that sharing the stories with the public would be even more fun than writing them.

On Saturday, September 17 Belle Fourche Writers Lynda Edwards, Margie Bolte, Eric Beeman, Dale Kringen, Angela Hastings, Kathy Bjornstadt, and Joan Gerkin will share their characters and their stories from the Belle Fourche Writers 2nd annual story writing challenge

The venue of the September 17 presentation is the Belle Fourche Public Library from noon to 2 PM.

Community Theatre Review

by Toi Lynn Flick
Special to the Beacon

What do ballet dancing, Russian royalty and fireworks all have in common? Nothing, unless you're watching You Can't Take it With You! This captivating comedy by Moss Hart and George S. Kaufman graced the Belle Fourche Rec Center theatre August 19th-21st. With 286 total ticket sales, this marked the most financially successful show for the Belle Fourche Area Community Theatre since Covid-19 reared its ugly head. Nathan Schreier and Allie Verry, two Belle Fourche High School alumni, stepped in as first time head director and assistant director and created an inspired show. Helping to dress both the actors and the impressive set were Reva Potter, Becky Tinsley and Angela Hasting and lighting up the stage was technician Aria Olson. Colleen Anderson helped with glamorous hairdos.

"Super cast and set, impressive theatre and group." "Well worth the drive from Hot Springs," were comments heard in the foyer following performances.

This "was written in the 30s? Wow, still amazingly relevant," was another and one echoed by the cast as well. What makes You Can't Take it With You such a successful show is its ability to maintain relevancy even after eighty-six years, its well-crafted writing and plot line, and its colorful, fun characters.

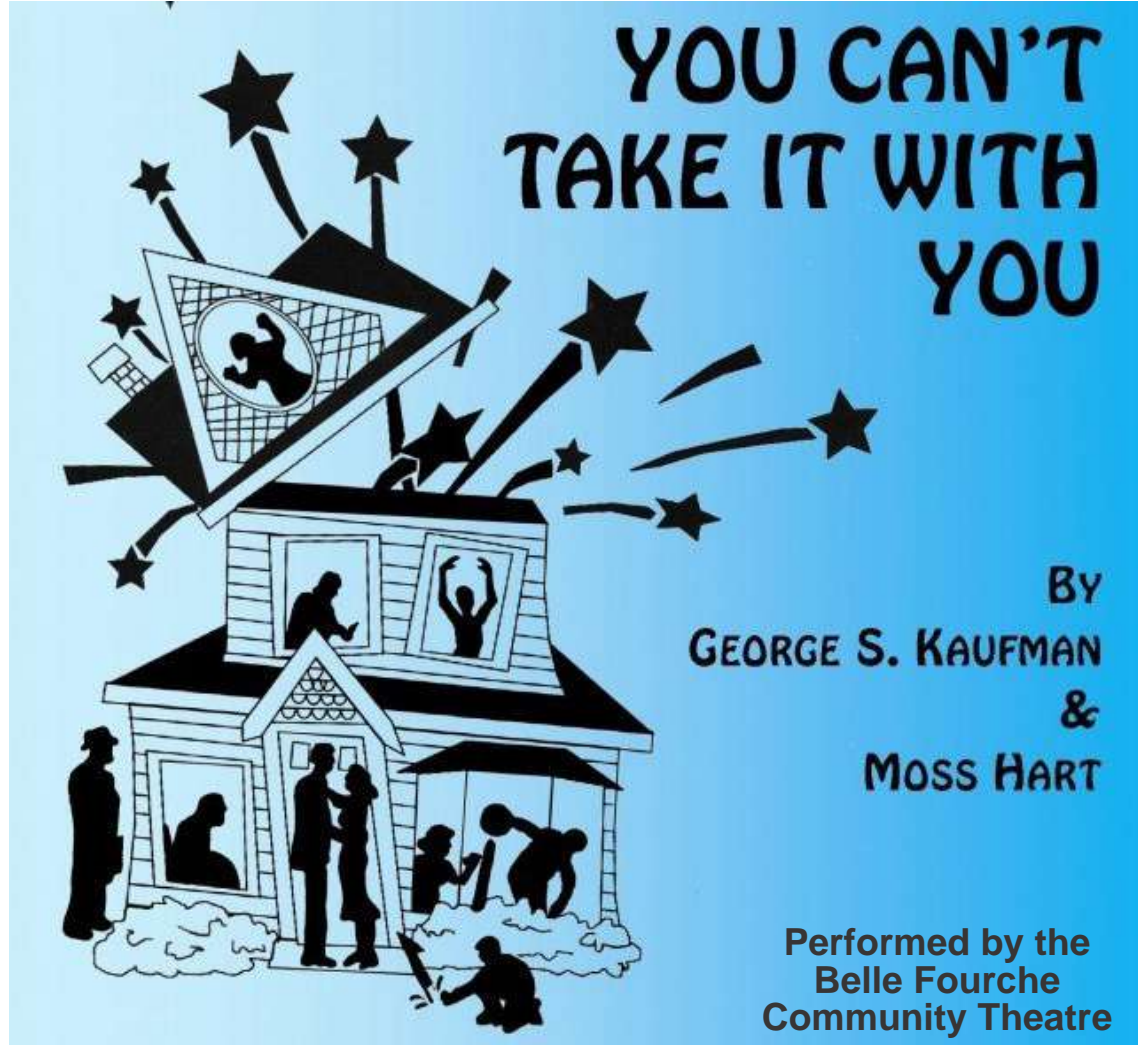

BFACT cast a talented group of actors who brought the eccentricities of the characters to life on the stage. It didn't take long for the audience to see that the Sycamore family is not exactly, well, normal! Mother, Penny (Sharon Thompson) writes plays because a typewriter was accidentally delivered to her home. Father, Paul (Heather Pittman) creates fireworks and fireworks displays aided by Mr. De Pinna (Debbie Minter) who came to deliver ice one day eight years ago and just....stayed! Daughter, Essie (Lucy Cole) makes candy to sell and practices ballet under the tutelage of Russian expatriate Mr. Kholenkho (Sentel Schreier) while her husband, Ed (Carston Sechser) makes masks and prints anything. Alice (Emma Tinsley), the second Sycamore daughter, doesn't share her family's eccentricities but she loves them deeply and acknowledges that the rest of the world does not see them the way she does.

To that end, she does her best to keep her budding romance with the boss' son, Tony (Derek Flick) under wraps for as long as humanly possible. When Tony and his parents (Derek Olson and Allie Verry) arrive for dinner on the wrong night, mayhem ensues, culminating in a raid by several G-men (Nathan Schreier, Matthew Pittman and Chyann Cody) all while aspiring and tipsy actress Gay Wellington (Angela Hastings) laughs up a storm!

The next day Sycamore maid, Rheba (Kelsey Gronlund) and her boyfriend, Donald (Jonathan Tinsley) lament that Miss Alice and Mr. Tony aren't going to be getting married after all. But never fear, after a visit from the Grand Duchess Olga Katrina (Chyann Cody) and some quick talking by Grandfather Vanderhof (Toi Lyn Flick) Alice and Tony reconcile and Tony's father finally realizes that you really can't take it with you!

One final comment from an audience member sums up the Belle Fourche Area Community Theatre and its hope for a bright future, "first time seeing a show in Belle. It was fantastic! Everyone seemed to have fun with it. I was very impressed with the facility, the cast, the props, etc. An excellent fine arts community."

even resources, we wouldn't be where we are," said Brunner.

City Commissioner Allen Youngberg stopped by the project this week to see what was happening and gave his nod of approval. City Foreman Larry Parker had also lent assistance where needed.

Although the project has been tested and found to be working properly, it will not be running before winter. The chemicals used have to be balanced to make sure that they work the way they should. Since the system is a recyclable one, meaning the only water lost will be through evaporation and run-off, the water runs back into a 1200 gallon holding tank. The system is a timed switch that runs for a set period of time and then shuts off automatically. But it takes a period of days of running, testing the chemical balance and making sure it remains constant. And that will take the project too far into the fall for it to be reasonable to run. During the testing process water running through the different features was not treated, just running through.

The NIC group plans a spring grand opening with a big party.

"We want to make sure we have all our donors, those businesses like BH Creates, Beauty and the Plumber, Heartland Electric and others in attendance so that we can recognize each of them and the contribution they made. Norman especially made this project happen and we are thankful for his contribution," said Brunner.

Brunner said the group is still shy of all the funds they need and plan to continue to fundraise. Some things that still need to be done are creating a concrete "sidewalk" with a lip around the outer edge to prevent run-off. They also want to hydroseed the ground that was torn up during the project. There are remaining bills that need to be paid and the funds have dwindled. NIC encourages those who plan to utilize the project, as well as those with an altruistic heart to come to the project with donations. They can be made in a variety of ways. A bank account is located at First National Bank in Newell and you can contribute directly by marking your donation to be deposited to Newell Improvement Corporation. You can also mail a check to NIC, PO Box 244, Newell, SD, 57760, or you can contribute via PayPal or Venmo to colleenbrunner@gmail.com.

There should be a lot of fun in the future at the splashpad in the North Park on Fourth Street. The NIC organization hopes this will be the beginning of community gatherings of all kinds, with the close-by picnic area, basketball courts, playground and other amenities planned for that area.

That car was owned by LaVerne Fischer of Sturgis and was a 1964. Second place winner was Kayla Chyba of Belle Fourche with her 1965 Chevrolet Impala SS, and third place went to Darwin Hellekson with his 1969 Oldsmobile 442.

In the truck division winners were: Landon Faatz of Rapid City with a 1976 F-150 in first place. Second went to Steve Tucker of Newell with a 1953 Ford F100 and third place to Dan Elenberger of Belle Fourche with his 1978 GMC Sierra.

The tractor division winner was JC Seaman of Rapid City with his 1935 John Deere AR. The winner of the Shiny and Not So Shiny People's Choice award went to Ford Lungren of Sturgis with his 1969 Ford Torino GT.

The entries in the car and truck division were a little lighter this year than in the past but those attending the event enjoyed looking at all the different restored and unrestored vehicles. Once again Christine Dentz of Sturgis registered people.

A couple of entries in the event included one by Kayla Chyba of Belle Fourche. She showed a 1965 Impala SS that she purchased a couple years ago. This shiny black car was beautifully restored.

Another entry came from Rick Wessels, also of Belle Fourche. His entry was a 1957 bright yellow Chevy, a car his brother purchased and restored in 1988. He restored it according to Hot Rod magazines' Project X, a copy of the June 1983 edition which Wessels keeps in the car. The magazine has a picture of a bright yellow Chevy on the cover.

Grand River Roundup

news@bellefourchebeacon.com

Amanda took Copper to school in Buffalo early Monday morning and Grandma Missy kept Knox and River at her house while Amanda stayed in town until school was out to do business. Trig took River with him when he went to Reva to get salt and mineral and Knox went with Papa Casey to haul hay. There a semi wrecked a couple miles south of the junction of 79 and 20 that left flammable liquid all over the highway. The highway was closed for several hours while the Rapid City Fire Department Hazmat team had to come up and clean up the dangerous mess. Thank God no one was hurt, but when Casey and Missy went to the JV football game in Newell that evening, they had to go down the Jefferson Road and then west of the Sorum Road to go around the closed road.

Amanda took Copper down to ride into school with Paige Parmely Tuesday morning and then went down to Parmely's to pick Copper up after school. Casey and Trig moved the cows that afternoon to get ready to preg test them on Wednesday. Trig left for bull dogging practice that evening.

Bill Holt and Clint Doll came to help preg test the cows Wednesday afternoon. Reub and I missed that because we went to Hettinger that afternoon and then on to the Lodgepole ice cream social that evening to help raise funds for the Lodgepole Hall. A really big crowd came to enjoy supper and ice cream so we got to visit with a lot of friends. Lester Longwood had just gone down to pick up Sharon from the airport in Rapid City on her way back from finishing her cancer treatments in Arizona and they stopped at the Lodgepole Hall on their way home. Thank God Sharon is looking and feeling good!

Casey and Trig went up to the Hackamore to help Doug and Clint Doll work their calves Thursday morning. Ty Thybo and Luke Rice were also there to help. Amanda's sister Josi and Dion Senger spent the night with her on their way to the Black Hills.

Our hot water heater downstairs started leaking water Thursday afternoon, so Reub called Olson Propane in Buffalo to tell them about it. Ryne Baier came out early Friday morning and got it fixed really fast. Ryne is such a handy guy and it was nice to have a chance to visit with him. Reub and I went up to Hettinger that afternoon to meet with Ben Rebel. Ben brought our old truck that he'd gotten fixed for us down to Sage's house west of Hettinger to pick up our old tractor and take it back up north to fix it for us. After the guys got the truck unloaded and the tractor loaded, Sage had us in for supper. Sage's birthday was on Saturday so I'd made a birthday cake for him and we ate some cake a day early.

The three youngest grandkids, Ellarie, Irelyn and Dathan were there too, but Alaina and Acalia were up at Acalia's volleyball game in Mott that evening so we missed them.

The Big Nasty fly-in and breakfast was Saturday morning and Reub and I went over for the delicious breakfast Judy Nash cooked and to visit with the neighbors. Seventeen airplanes and two helicopters flew in from many miles away. Clint and Beau Doll flew over for a while, but they had to leave a little early to go to the Hackamore Ranch Match Bulldogging at the Tipperary Arena in Buffalo that afternoon to help his folks, Doug and Janet Doll, put it on. Casey went in to help out at the bulldogging that afternoon and Trig was one of the bulldoggers. Saturday was the first day of Buffalo's Labor Day weekend and Doug and Janet Doll are the Parade Marshalls in the parade on Labor Day.

I've been wanting a rooster for my hens and Kylee Stadheim and her kids brought me a rooster that Britton Stadheim had named Crow when they came down to the fly-in that morning. Britton raised the black and white striped rooster and he likes hanging out with my hens. My new little chicks are going to like him too. Thanks a lot Britton!

Sandy Dan came to church Sunday morning and had a good visit with us. Linda Hathaway and Janet Verhulst fixed a delicious lunch and coffee after church and Sandy stayed for that before heading over to the rodeo in Buffalo. He helped out at the rodeo in Newell on Saturday and will be headed back to help out with the Labor Day rodeo in Newell.

Alaina and Acalia stopped in to drop off my cake pan Sunday afternoon. Alaina came down to pick up Acalia from Buffalo where she was babysitting Amanda's kids and several other kids on Saturday night at the town house in Buffalo. They took Britton's cat carrier that she brought the rooster in to give it back to Kylee for me.

Ton Gregory called me Sunday afternoon to tell us about the Cancer Drive they will be having at Lester and Sharon Longwood's on Sunday, September 11th. They will start riding at 1:00. When they are done riding they will have a potluck dinner afterwards, so bring your horse and have a good time with them!

I'll leave you with these cute riddles:

Q: What Do You Get from a Pampered Cow?
A: Spoiled Milk.

Q: What Lies at the Bottom of the Ocean and Twitches?
A: A Nervous Wreck.

Q: What's the Difference Between Roast Beef and Pea Soup?
A: Anyone Can Roast Beef.

Q: Where Do You Find a Dog With No Legs?

Then and Now in Newell

“Looking Forward to our Past” by Linda Velder

September 5, 1912

The Congregational people will hold their evening service in the large tent at the corner of Girard Ave and Third St, next Sunday if the weather is favorable. The subject of the address will be “The Constructive Work of Early Settlers in a New Country”. There will be good music. You need not dress up for this open air meeting. The service will begin at about sunset.

The School Board for the new district north of Indian Creek was chosen as follows: Chairman Jos Rail; Treasurer H. F. Ryers; and Secretary Jos H. Kendly. The schools are poorly located at the present time for the accommodation of the children, but it is thought that a change will soon be made.

Leo Blackwell left Friday from the Empire area for Boulder, Colorado, where he will enter the Civil Engineering Department of the University of Colorado; Albert Blackwell leaves Saturday for Belle Fourche, where he will enter High School and Harold Blackwell goes to Oskaloosa the last of the week to enter Pennsylvania College. From Vale Mrs. Sampson and children are north to get Clark to attend the fall term of school at Sampont. Mrs. Dystra and Mrs. Follett are engaged as teachers for the ensuing term of school at Vale.

August 31, 1922

The Belle Fourche train returning Friday evening ran over a big black horse which was on the track at a point near the Boulder Park Road, a short distance below the city. On rounding a curve the horse was discovered a short distance away. Several piercing whistles failed to drive him from the track and then appeared to be blinded by the headlight. He went under the engine, derailing the first wheels, requiring an hour to get back on the track. The horse was cut into pieces.

Supt. I.S. Stinson of Newell consolidated Schools announced that final arrangements have been made for installing a course in Smith-Hughes Agriculture in the local High School. The course in agriculture for the coming year will consist of animal husbandry and farm shop work and the work will be taught from the standpoint of conditions as they exist in this county. Field trips will be taken by students enrolled in order to get practice work in stock judging. The work will be under the direction of Mr. Sidney Southerland, a graduate of Montana State College of Agriculture, who will also have charge of the basketball and track teams. It is estimated there will be about 20 boys enrolled in this course this coming term.

F. H. Newell of Washington, DC formerly director of the Reclamation Service and the man whose honor this town was named, was a visitor in Newell over Sunday. Mr. Newell now holds a position with the service as consulting engineer. He was accompanied on his visit here by a Mr. Cadley of the Department of Agriculture.

Responsibility for the poor rests entirely with counties under South Dakota law, and there is no legal method of which cities or towns can expend public money for that purpose according to Attorney General Sharpe. The provision for the poor and destitute is an obligation of the entire county in which said poor and destitute are situated. There is no provision, indicating that the towns or cities of the state have any obligation or authority in the matter of care of the poor.

Miss Margaret Gilger will teach the Shaykett School and Glen Wright will have the Snoma School. Miss Dorothy Vallery, who has been spending the summer with her parents, Mr. & Mrs. P. P. Vallery, returned Monday to Seattle, where she teaches school. School will be held this year at the Arthur Aho place on Willow Creek with Mrs. Walter Harmon as teacher.

Miss Neva Esmay, daughter of Mr. & Mrs. Roy W. Esmay, former Newell residents now of Belle Fourche, last week successfully passed another milestone in a flying career when she successfully completed the test for commercial pilot's rating. So far as known, Miss Esmay is the only woman in South Dakota holding a commercial pilot's license. Her first solo flight was in March 31, 1941 after taking grueling examinations for her commercial license. She will now intend to train for parachute riggers

Residents of Newell can resume drinking without boiling this week, water from the city supply. Reports from the state; later were received Friday morning showing a sample taken at the pump house as “unsafe”, Mayor F. J. Boettger and other officials immediately caused all water users to be advised to boil all water for drinking for a minimum of 20 minutes. Although the report taken at the same time from downtown was safe, the boiling was directed as a precautionary measure. The report in the sample taken this week was advised satisfactory.

Despite overcast skies and near overcoat weather, the annual Newell Labor Day Picnic-abration on Monday was chalked up another success by the sponsoring organizations: the polo game was the high-light of the afternoon, in which Alkali came from behind and battered into an overtime “chucker” to defeat Fairpoint; Twilight polo squad 7-6. The local equestrians took a 2-1 lead in the opening checker, in the closing moments was a tie score at 6-up and then the winning goal in overtime. The largest gathering of the celebration occurred at night, when cars completely circled the Newell Airport and some instances was 4 deep to watch the fireworks display. The display was principally of aerial bombs, stars and shells, climaxed by a Niagara Falls set up.

It's always an enjoyable time at the Newell Museum and this Labor Day was no exception. During the weekend museum curator Linda Velder (left) had several visitors drop by to see the history of the area.

A couple of special visitors this year are recent transplants from the Wyoming area. Desiree and Carl Avery have purchased the house on Knox Ave. that has been empty for quite a while. They were on a trek to find out more information about their new abode and were eager to hear the information they gleaned from Velder. Her vast knowledge of the area added to the particulars they had already gathered.

The Averys plan to redo the approximately 100-year-old house, while still keeping the character of the place.

hour through next week will not be a fire call. The siren will be sounded only as a reminder, since school has started, of the City’s Curfew Ordinance requiring all children through High School to be off the street by 10:00 PM. Students are by Ordinance permitted to be out past 10 PM only enroute to or from school or public events and with written parental consent on errands, will be strictly enforced by City Police Don Moore and Everet Munroe. The bookmobile schedule of the Northwest Regional Library has been revised with the start of schools for the new term; it is announced by Mrs. Alice Jacobs, bookmobile librarian and will include the usual stops in the area next week. Meanwhile all person having books checked out, many of which are long overdue, are urged to turn the same in at the earliest possible date without penalty.

Newell Volleyball

Another Home Victory

Colleen Brunner
news@bellefourchebeacon.com

NEWELL – The Newell Lady Irrigators sent the Harding County Ranchers home with a loss in three quick sets. “It’s hard to come back with a Monday game right after a weekend tournament,” said head coach Tysha McDonald. The girls played at the Custer Invite last weekend notching another five-game win there. They brought that momentum to the home game Monday night, August 29, in Austin Auditorium. It was a full sports day on the Newell campus as the middle school volleyball and football teams also took on the Ranchers.

The first match started with some nerves on the part of both teams and the side-out went back and forth through a tie-up at 11 when Newell finally found their feet. The Ranchers hung in there until Kaira Stomprud came to the service line for Newell grabbing six points in a row, with one ace serve as well. She was assisted with kills by Jaelyn Wendt and Taylor Gaer and a little roll over the net to drop in front of the Buffalo players. Mary Mahaffy had moved up from JV to play and finished things off for Newell with a couple serves that caused the Ranchers to return hard and out of bounds. The first match ended 25-17.

Things started with the first point earned for Newell by Newell Football a kill by Wendt, but then no opportunity to return then next serve ending in a tie at one each. Gaer was followed at the service line by Mahaffy, Wendt and Hailey McCann as the home-town team started racking up points to grab the lead and never look back. To their credit, the visitors hung in there to stay close and managed to tie the game at 9 and then 10 before Newell took off on serves by Mahaffy and Wendt. Kim Johnson wrapped things up with four ace serves and a hard one that the Ranchers couldn’t respond to, knocking it out of bounds for the 25-18 win. By the third match the Ranchers had lost all confidence. Newell took point after point, leaving Buffalo to grab one point once in while. Strong serving by Mahaffy, Johnson and Stomprud saw the Lady Irrigators take the final match 25-6 and the game in three sets.

Irrigators Looking Good

news@bellefourchebeacon.com

NEWELL – In their second home game this season, the Newell Irrigator football team looked good and worked hard. “They had a methodical first touchdown,” said assistant coach Wyatt VanderVorst of the Timber Lake Panthers. The second Panther TD came on a short pass play that got away from Newell. With 3:25 left in the first period the visitors were up by 14-0. Once more in the period, Timber Lake took the ball into the end zone on a completed pass to Thane Keller, setting the score at 20-0 at the end of the first quarter. The first play in the second quarter saw Newell’s James Duncan sacking the Panther quarterback for a loss of seven. That revved the crowd up. A series of missed completions saw their opponents turn the ball over on downs at the 29-yard line. About mid-way through the second quarter the Panthers again scored, this time on a run by Carter Keller, once more changing the scoreboard to 26-0. Colton Burtzlaff stopped the 2-point conversion play. Just before the end of the half, Newell worked the ball for two first-downs before a run into the endzone by Chase Johnston brought the Irrigators first score, 26-6. Timber Lake put another six points on the board with a touchdown run on a quarterback keeper by Ducheneaux. Newell worked hard to keep the Panthers from advancing on their next possession and caused a fumble and loss with a turnover on downs. On their next possession Timber Lake ran the punt back for another TD and the scoreboard stood at 38-6. That was all the Irrigators were going to give their opponents for the night. Gavin Tesche scored a TD for the home team with a good 2-point conversion setting the score at 38-14. The Irrigator defense held strong as they knocked down passes and kept the Panthers from moving the ball forward. The next Newell scoring came on just before the time ran out in the fourth period. A quarterback keeper by Duncan moved the ball to third and three, and the next play saw Johnston once more scamper into the end zone. The final was 38-20.

Gavin Tesche protects the ball and drags a Panther player with him as he continues his forward motion after snagging the pass from QB James Duncan. - Brunner photo

A Cowboy for Christ

Betty Bruner
news@bellefourchebeacon.com

NEWELL-A special cowboy for Christ, Vern Ward, spoke at an event held during the Annual Labor Day Weekend in Newell. The event was sponsored by Dakota Life Christian Center, Cowboys for Christ Ministries, the NVN Ministerial Association, and WIT Coalition. Several area pastors were available to welcome the crowd gathered in the Ram Show and Sale Building, including representatives from Dakota Life Christian Center, Christian Fellowship Church, St. Mary’s Star of the Sea, Vale Community Country Church, and the Newell Baptist Church. All gave invitations to join them on Sunday. Vern Ward is from the Fruitdale area and has survived tremendous physical trauma in the last few years. He and his family are an example of the healing power of Christ and the love of a community. Six years ago, Vern was found in a stall with head trauma, rushed to the hospital and began a long journey back to his life on the ranch with the help of his wife and daughters, neighbors and friends.

“And the community,” Vern said. “That’s community, helping and all being in this together.” Vern’s biggest desire was to get back to wellness to thank the community members who poured out their hearts and helped he and his family. But he found out something interesting when he was told that they were thanking him for what he and his family had done for them. “We don’t know when we will need faith or when we will need help,” he said. Be ready and have your faith in place!

He continued to point out that it was important to teach kids that community is vital to life. He said it’s not how much they do for you, but how much you can do for others. Each one of us impacts a lot of people. “We can go about anyway to get to Jesus,” he said. The essential part is to make that decision, to accept Jesus as Savior. He indicated that it was a wise decision to take that gift that God has given each person. Fred Wilson, Emcee of the event, concluded the event by saying that the faith of the Ward family has been evident during this entire time. “Community is letting God love others through us,” Wilson said. Community is important to the organizations sponsoring this event. Each organization touches an area from young people to adults. Sabrina Harmon and the WIT Coalition are a major force in touching the lives of young people and adults in the community. The NVN Ministerial Association is active in meeting the needs of community members. Cowboys for Christ is a mission minded ministry geared toward the livestock industry. Dakota Life Christian Center is one of the many churches in the area reaching out with the love of Christ.
