BH Roundup Named 2022 Rodeo of the Year

Beacon Staff

news@bellefourchebeacon.com

For five consecutive years now, the Black Hills Roundup, held in Belle Fourche, SD, every 4th of July, was voted "medium sized rodeo of the year," by PRCA cowboys and cowgirls.

Rodeo Committee chairman Keith Anderson said he and the committee have been honored to be chosen by the cowgirls and cowgirls for five consecutive years.

This year, the rodeo paid about $250,000. Year in and year out, they draw between 900-1,100 contestants.

"We are going against some really good rodeos," he pointed out.

The five rodeos in the running were: Amarillo, Texas; Black Hills Roundup, Belle Fourche; Coleman, Texas; Claremore, Oklahoma and Gunnison, Colorado.

PRCA cowboys and cowgirls vote in an initial round to narrow down the rodeos to the top five, and then from Oct. 17-21 they were able to vote on their favorite out of those five.

The stock contractors and an all-volunteer crew make the rodeo a great one, along with a large payout for the contestants, he said.

Dan Munford is the head timed event contractor, while Burch Rodeo Company and Powder River Rodeo provide much of the rough stock. Sub-contractors fill in as needed, and can change from year to year.

The chute help, arena help, ticket takers, and all other needed personnel all volunteer their time to make sure the rodeo runs smoothly, he said.

Plenty of Open House Celebrations

Beacon Staff

news@bellefourchebeacon.com

Thursday, December 1st was a day for Open House celebrations in Belle Fourche.

Those of us who love conversation and free holiday delicacies had a choice of six events to attend. The festivities began at 2 PM at the Pioneer Bank. The lobby was busy, apparently a good place to get started.

From Pioneer Bank one could easily walk to Weather Hats, visit with Jack, the magic (not mad) hatter, admire some stunning hats, and enjoy some cocktail shrimp.

Next on the agenda, was a short walk to the Keller-Williams building just a few doors away to the west. The recently refurbished building is home to several business owners, all of whom are women.

The food and conversation were more than worth the trip, but soon it was time to head out to Grossenbergs for "Ladies Night Shopping". No longer starving, it was nice to browse the sales.

Before the popular Trivia night league at the Hitching Post Tap House downtown starting at 7 PM, there was just enough time to take in one last open house at Prairie Hills Pharmacy, also an invitation to all ladies to enjoy browsing the gift shop and enjoy the hors d'oeuvres and beverages.

Altogether, food, conversation, a chance to visit new businesses is a pleasant commencement to the holiday season.

Expansion of Tri-State Museum One Step Closer

Beacon Staff

news@bellefourchebeacon.com

BELLE FOURCHE – The new 3,800 square foot addition to the Tri-State Museum is a step closer to reality now that the design of the structure is underway. The Belle Fourche City Council unanimously approved an agreement with Upper Deck Architects of Rapid City to begin the process of designing the addition.

The agreement will also create construction documents and provide for possible assistance with construction administration through Upper Deck. The cost of the agreement is $168,080 dollars to be paid for through CIP budgeted funds, according to the City Finance Office.

Upper Deck plans to work with Albertson Engineering, Skyline Engineering and FMG Engineering during the plan development stage. Skyline will provide mechanical and electrical engineering services; Albertson will take the reins of structural engineering and FMG will provide civil engineering including a topographical survey of the site.

The addition is expected to be 3,838 square feet and is anticipated to include a multi-purpose room with raised platform, a classroom, a catering room, restrooms and a mechanical and storage space. Due to the layout of the design the access and parking onsite will have to be revised, according to Upper Deck's Jerud Pummel.

Fourth Ward council member Rebecca Larsen said that Upper Deck, City Administrator Bob Nelson, Jr., and Museum Director Kristi Thielen have been working diligently over the past several months with the Museum Board regarding the project and evaluating things that were right or what they saw that they weren't expecting.

"One of the big things that we just got hammered out at the last meeting was that all of the spaces that we were expecting are in the plan, and the correct square footage size is in there," she said. "The Museum Board is very excited about where it's at, at this point. The design that they have now is what they were thinking all these years and they are very hopeful for the next step forward."

Once completed the blue-prints and construction documents will be submitted with a conventional bid for construction and the option of providing assistance with hiring a construction manager. Deliverables to the city include floor plans, exterior elevations, and a conceptual site plan showing the location of the building and parking on site.

Festival of Trees Raises $52,000 for Local Organizations

news@bellefourchebeacon.com

First Interstate Bank and the Black Hills Roundup Ag Committee hosted their 23rd Annual Festival of Trees on the evening of November 29. The event brought a good sized crowd of onlookers and prospective bidders to the Belle Fourche Community Hall.

Purple Pride Seniors served refreshments to guests, cleared tables, and joined FFA students in presenting auction items.

Local auctioneer Bryton Oedekoven kicked off the evening's sale at around 6 p.m. A generous bid of $4100 took the win for first choice of trees. The chosen tree, adorned with miniature farm equipment and barnyard animals, was donated by Grossenburg Implement.

The Prairie Hills Pharmacy tree was the highest selling tree at $7100, while the highest selling wreath, donated by Farm Bureau, sold for $1300. Branding Iron's Wheelbarrow of Fun and Valley View 4-H Club's Crate of Goodies tied for highest bid among the other auction items at $1300 each.

By the time the auction wrapped up, over $52,000 had been raised by the charitable crowd, the highest amount ever raised by this event. Beneficiaries for these funds include Belle Fourche Ministerial Association, Belle Fourche Meals on Wheels, Fraternal Order of Police Lodge #12, Butte County Child Protection Team, and Greater Belle Fourche Foundation.

Trees were donated by Belle Fourche Chamber, Belle Fourche FFA, Belle Fourche Police Department, Balck Hills Title Company, Grossenburg Implement, Jackson Dental, Meals on Wheels, Monument Health and Rehabilitation, Pete's Clothing & Hodge Bootery, Pioneer Bank & Trust, Prairie Hills Pharmacy, Runnings of Belle Fourche, Sand Creek Printing, and Silver Linings Senior Center.

Wreaths were donated by ABC Butte County, Black Hills Roundup, Chutes for Charity, Cowboy Band, Cowboys Too, Elite Services, Fire Department

State Street Concrete Replacement Delayed Until After the Holidays

Beacon Staff

news@bellefourchebeacon.com

The City of Belle Fourche and contractor, Ainsworth Benning Construction, of Spearfish met this past week and came to an agreement to postpone repair work on State Street in Belle Fourche until the New Year.

Ainsworth Benning has been hired to replace six concrete street panels (1,149 square feet) on State Street between 5th and 6th Avenues.

The CIP Improvements project had been budgeted for 2022 and the project was approved at the October 17 City Council meeting as a Consent Agenda Item #8 (voted on with no discussion).

The 2022 CIP budgeted project was scheduled for completion prior to the end of the 2022 Budget year and was planned for this December.

Giving consideration to State Street parking, which would have been closed for construction 1/2 at a time, and alternating during construction.

The postponement until after the New Year was for the purpose of eliminating parking and access disruption to the downtown during the Holiday season.

As one former State Street business owner commented, "There is no good time to have construction in progress in front of your business, but there are worse times to do it. Holiday Shopping is the busiest retail time of the year and construction during the month of December could be very harmful."

It was uniformly acknowledged by businesses that they were pleased and thankful to the City and the Contractor for the rescheduling to accommodate the busy Holiday shopping season.

The $30,082.56 repair project will begin after the New Year. Belle City Public Works staff will perform the removal of the old concrete to prepare for the replacement.

Anita Carol Ramey 72

Convention in 1972 while pregnant and served on the platform committee. During the next nine years Anita would give birth to 6 children (Holly, James, Dorothy, Dale, Will, and Luke).

During this time of childbearing Anita was busily involved in the Church program for 1-11 year olds (Primary). She would often drive on icy roads in blizzard conditions to participate in Primary and to get her children to the Church building for Primary. She lived 15 miles out in the country on a dangerous highway. She was cheerfully the “Bishop’s” wife. Her husband was called to be the Bishop of their local congregation. The Bishop is the chief administrative officer in a local Ward. One Sunday the Missionaries asked the women’s leader, “Who is that woman who comes in by herself with six kids often late?” The women’s leader answered with a chuckle, “That is the Bishop’s wife!” In 1983 John took a job working for the state of California because the ranching operation was going broke from the high interest rates set by the Federal Reserve. Leaving her Mother and brothers in Belle Fourche was a difficult time for Anita and her children. One day soon after moving to the Sacramento area Anita was driving around to to show the kids and herself the area. She got lost and the second daughter started screaming “I will never see my Dad again!” She eventually found her way back to the house that she had rented. Soon after arriving in California, she was called to be the “Primary President” in her local congregation (Ward). She never met a primary age child that she didn’t love and wish to be able to serve.

Having children and working in Primary increased Anita’s sense of self-worth. Children rescued her and she had the trusting faith in God of a child. When death threatened, she never had a moment of fear. In 1985 Anita and her family bought a home in Fair Oaks. She recognized the location and big yard with a swimming pool as the ideal place in which to have a family. She never wanted to move to a bigger or better home because she remembered the trauma as a child of continuous moving. Anita worked outside the home for 14 years as an Instructional Assistant in the San Juan Unified school district, first in the elementary school her kids were attending. Later she worked as the on-site detention supervisor at the local high school.

She loved even these “troublemaker” youth. She retired to become a full time Grandmother to her 26 grandchildren, 20 of whom lived in the immediate vicinity. “Gram” would take each one on a special day of shopping for gifts they picked out and then to lunch at a place of their choosing. Her husband suffered a brain aneurysm and she devoted much time and energy trying to restore him to his previous vitality. Every day that has gone by since she passed away, he has discovered another unknown service that she was performing for him. Her last words in the hospital to her husband and her daughter-in-law friend was, “See you later, and make a plan!” Our plan is to live abundantly in her absence. Hers was a life of gratitude. For the closing song at her memorial services she requested, “Count Your Blessings”.

Her request shall be honored today. Anita had great respect and reverence for the ancestral women of her family who preceded her in passing on. For her Mother, Dorothy, for Grandmother Mary, great Aunt Violet, and Great grandmother Hattie. She valued their contribution to her well being and courage to make their lives and those of their children better and more secure.

Anita is survived by her sisters, Peggy, Mary, and Fran, and her brothers Vern, Willard, Jeff and Mike. One sister, Laurie preceded her in death. Vern was always her protective older brother in their many different living places, and Willard who was her childhood companion and playmate. Anita is survived by Her 6 children, Holly (Russ), James (Angie), Dorothy, Dale (Anise), Will (Rachel), and Luke (Gerilyn). Anita has 26 grandchildren who are the delight of her life; Holly’s Sarah (Seth), Isaac, and Ezra; James’s John, Matt, Kyle, Eva, Gabe, and Lucy; Dorothy’s Mario and Sebastian; Dale’s Lillia, Aria, Eden, and Quinn; Will’s Ruby, Max, Ella, Julia, Grace, Sophy, and Wes; Luke’s Benson, Emerson, Mayson, and Anderson.

Paige Driskill 68

Paige A. Driskill, age 68, passed away 10/15/2022. He was born May 18th, 1954 in Belle Fourche, South Dakota to Robert Driskill and Betty O’Connell Driskill where he attended and graduated from Belle Fourche high school in 1972. Years after high school he would still share memories of his undefeated football team and 67 Chevelle super sport which, “...was a hell of a fast car...”

Following high school he proudly served in the Navy during the Vietnam war and beyond from 1974-1978 which took him around the world. He lived in the Wyoming briefly before settling down in Utah. He was known for his outdoor activities notably river rafting which between the navy and his go get ‘em attitude took him “from the top of mt. Fuji to the bottom of the Grand Canyon.” We would all look forward to hearing the stories of Paige’s life adventures that he loved telling over and over.

Aside from his adventures he worked for Centurylink as a technician for 40+ years before retiring in 2019. He is survived by his three kids: Sean Wilson, McKenna Driskill, and Dylan Driskill and his siblings: Mark (& Valerie) Driskill, their children Allison and Brietta, Laura (& Mike) Bennett and their daughter Mercedes. We all wish his safe passage to the pearly gates to join those that preceded his death: his mother, father, sister Cheryl Driskill Bussell, and his beloved dog Roscoe.

Services were held Saturday, December 3, 2022. They were held at our Memorial Murray Mortuary in Murray, Utah.

Gerald Bunney 83

Gerald E Bunney, 83, of Aladdin, Wyoming passed away December 1, 2022 at the Department of Veterans Hospital, Ft. Meade, SD.

Gerald was the youngest of five children, all boys, born to John and Loretta Bunney on May 31, 1939 in Spearfish SD. He grew up on a ranch at Aladdin WY and attended Bunney Country School and then Belle Fourche South Dakota High School. This is where he met the love of his life, Pasty Tanner. They were married on Sept 24th, 1957 and moved to the family ranch at Aladdin Wyoming. Together they took over the ranch and started their life together. As they built their lives together as ranchers, they had five children, 9 grandchildren and 8 great-grandchildren. They were married 63 years together before losing Patsy in 2020.

Gerald was not only a hard-working rancher but also a family man that enjoyed playing the organ so everyone could sing Christmas carols, something to see to believe. He not only taught the kids how to work hard but how to play hard, he was very competitive as he set up games for the kids to compete against each other, but he would participate as well, winning many of the competitions. Cheating was acceptable.

One of Gerald’s great passions later in life was his dogs. He started training his very first Border Collie by the name of Leo in 1996. This was his all-time favorite dog that won many championships for him. Over the years Gerald had many dogs that he trained. He traveled to many dog trials and won so many of them that Denver National Show asked him to be a judge, to give everyone else a break, but he just wanted to compete. He had been in many different papers and or magazines with him telling stories about his dogs. He would help anyone that asked for advice, training, or guidance on what to do when training a border collie. Gerald had to eventually hang up his hat to dog trials and training when Parkinson finally took over.

Gerald will be greatly missed by his daughters, Deelynn Garman of Aladdin, WY and Tina Bunney (Alex Schimp) of Castle Pines, CO; son, Mark (Joanne) Bunney of Gillette, WY; grandchildren, Ashley Stevenson, Justin Sullivan, Lesley Garman, Jeremy Garman, and Lyndee Miller, Lacey Raber, Brittney Russell, Mo Bunney, and 8 great grandchildren.

Gerald was preceded in death by his wife Patsy; parents, John, and Loretta Bunney; his brothers, Raymond, Robert, Kenneth and Eddie; his daughters, Lorri Bunney and Julie Burkhart; and his grandson, Lincoln Raber.

A Funeral Liturgy will be held Saturday, December 10th at 11:00 am at St. Paul Catholic Church in Belle Fourche, South Dakota. Interment to follow at Pine Slope Cemetery in Belle Fourche.

Visitation will be held Friday, December 9th from 3:00 to 5:00 pm at Kline Funeral Chapel in Belle Fourche and for one hour before services at the church.

Memorials and condolences may also be sent in care of Kline Funeral Chapel, 838 State Street, Belle Fourche, South Dakota 57717.

Pastor's Perspective

"Will There be Animals in Heaven?"

A common question that people have is, "Will there be animals in heaven?"

Scripture tells us in Colossians 1:16 For by Him were all things created, that are in heaven, and that are in earth, visible and invisible, whether they be thrones, or dominions, or principalities, or powers: all things were created by Him, and for Him: Revelation 4:11 Thou art worthy, O Lord, to receive glory and honor and power: for Thou hast created all things, and for Thy pleasure they are and were created.

Psalms 19:1 states that, "The heavens declare the glory of God; and the firmament shows His handiwork."

In the beginning God created heaven, the world, for His pleasure, for His glory. Everything was perfect. God created all the animals and man. God planted a garden in Eden and place the man there. Adam was to take care of the garden. God created Eve, Adam's wife to be a help-mate. Adam and Eve chose to disobey God by eating of the forbidden tree, the tree of the knowledge of good and evil. By disobeying God sin entered into the world and along with sin came death. The whole of Creation was affected by Adam's sin thus all living things die. God's perfect creation was marred.

Jump ahead to a future time period called the Millennium. Jesus returns to the earth riding on a white horse, bringing the Tribulation to an end. Jesus Christ will establish His kingdom and reign for one 1000-years from Jerusalem. The earth will be restored to the Garden of Eden like conditions. Isaiah 11:6-8 is one of many glimpses of the millennium that we find in the Bible.

After the Millennial reign of Jesus, the Bible tells us of a new heaven and earth. Revelation 21:1-4 And I saw a new heaven and a new earth: for the first heaven and the first earth were passed away; and there was no more sea. And I John saw the holy city, new Jerusalem, coming down from God out of heaven, prepared as a bride adorned for her husband. And I heard a great voice out of heaven saying, Behold, the tabernacle of God is with men, and he will dwell with them, and they shall be his people, and God himself shall be with them, and be their God. And God shall wipe away all tears from their eyes; and there shall be no more death, neither sorrow, nor crying, neither shall there be any more pain: for the former things are passed away.

In the beginning God began by creating plants, animals, sea creatures and man. I would think that when He creates the new heaven and earth He would fill it with plants, animals, and sea creatures. God's people will have access to both the new heaven and earth.

What will this new heaven and earth be like, the Word of God tells us in 1Corinthians 2:9 But as it is written, Eye hath not seen, nor ear heard, neither have entered into the heart of man, the things which God hath prepared for them that love him.

The question is, do you want to experience what God has planned for those who love and belong to Him? The good news is that you can. The bad news is that we are all sinners and without Jesus we are separated from God. God the Father sent His Son Jesus to pay the penalty for our sin and that those who believe the Gospel will be saved. The Gospel is found in 1Corinthians 15:3-4 For I delivered unto you first of all that which I also received, how that Christ died for our sins according to the scriptures; And that he was buried, and that he rose again the third day according to the scriptures:

Romans 10:9-13 states That if thou shalt confess with thy mouth the Lord Jesus, and shalt believe in thine heart that God hath raised him from the dead, thou shalt be saved. For with the heart man believeth unto righteousness; and with the mouth confession is made unto salvation. For the scripture saith, whosoever believeth on him shall not be ashamed. For there is no difference between the Jew and the Greek: for the same Lord over all is rich unto all that call upon him. For whosoever shall call upon the name of the Lord shall be saved.

You can believe and call upon the Lord Jesus Christ today? You can know that you will have a future with Jesus in the New Heaven and Earth.

Enjoying the new creation.

Dialing Up Some Fun

Sarah Jeitz

news@bellefourchebeacon.com

Tick-tock was the name of the game as The Tri-State Museum hosted their monthly Family Fun Day, with the theme "It's About Time." Approximately 25 adults and children were present on November 20 to learn about the history of timekeeping, daylight savings, and all things horology.

This month's event featured a presentation by Kristi Thiel-en and discussion with local clocksmith Dan Braxton, who has been working with clocks for several decades. Braxton spoke about a few clocks in his personal collection, as well as the many clocks he has worked on throughout the years.

Younger attendees enjoyed coloring and assembling their own paper wristwatches and sundials, which many were quick to try out in the morning sunshine, before venturing into the museum to view the grand-father clock.

Family Fun Day takes place from 2 p.m. - 4 p.m. on the 3rd

Sunday of each month. The theme for December's Family Fun Day is Ornaments Around the World.

December Family Fun Day at the Tri-State Museum and Visitor Center

The Tri-State Museum and Visitor Center will hold a Family Fun Day on December 18th from 2 to 4 p.m. entitled "Ornaments around the World."

Families will see a kid-friendly power point to learn how people in other countries and cultures decorate their Christmas trees.

All of the museum's craft materials will be put out so that families can make recommended crafts or ones of their very own.

There will be a drawing for the book, "Christmas Around the World," by Mary D. Lankford.

Holiday films will play on the TV screens and everyone will receive a free take-home workbook about holiday ornaments around the globe. Lemonade, coffee, cookies and popcorn will be served.

Admission is $2 per person or free with membership. Reservations are helpful; please call 605-723-1200.

The Tri-State Museum and Visitor Center is located at 415 Fifth Avenue in Belle Fourche.

"Christmas Storytellers"

The Tri-State Performers, the museum theatre troupe of the Tri-State Museum and Visitor Center, will perform their holiday play on Friday, December 16 at 7 p.m. and Saturday, December 17 at 2 p.m.

The short, family-friendly comedy features six characters who explain to the audience why their tasks are important to the holiday season.

These characters include a candle maker, a candy tester, a tree seller and more.

One holiday item is mentioned in each of the character's speeches; children in the audience are asked to guess what it is and put their guess into a drawing. The winner of the drawing receives a gift basket of toys and games from the Tri-State Museum Gift Store. A gift basket will be awarded at each of the two performances.

Those families that attend the play will also be encouraged to visit the Gingerbread Village, located in the Visitor Center. Children can do a scavenger hunt through the village and receive a candy cane if they complete it successfully.

Admission to the play is $2 per person or free with membership.

For more information about the production of "Christmas Storytellers" please call 605-723-1200. The Tri-State Museum and Visitor Center is located at 415 Fifth Avenue in Belle Fourche.

BF Police Department Headquarters Building to be Evaluated

Beacon Staff

news@bellefourchebeacon.com
BELLE FOURCHE – The city of Belle Fourche has hired Upper Deck Architects of Rapid City to determine if the community should add on to its existing police headquarters at the corner of 8th Ave. and Jackson St. or whether it should look to building an entirely new facility. The department needs additional space, some lighting and electrical system upgrades along with possible upgrades to building infrastructure.

The evaluation proposal with Upper Deck was approved unanimously by City Council during its regular meeting on Nov. 21. The cost for the service will be $28,000, paid for from the CIP Police Department Building Funds, according to the city finance office.

“This is an assessment not only of the existing building but the property as well to see if we can make this real estate work for a future police department building expansion at this location,” said Bob Nelson Jr., City Administrator.

Upper deck will complete an architectural assessment of the building and working with Skyline Engineer and Albertson Engineer, complete a mechanical and electrical engineering assessment and if needed a structural assessment of the building.

The evaluation of the existing structure will determine the feasibility of renovation and adding on to the existing building as compared to building a completely new structure. According to Upper Deck’s Jerud Pummel, the evaluation will include review of interior and exterior finishes, HVAC system, plumbing system, fire suppression, electrical service and distribution, emergency power, lighting systems and low voltage electrical systems. He says the proposal does not include the actual design of a possible facility remodel or any design or detailed recommendations for a new building.

Upper Deck says it will provide a combined evaluation in report form of its findings but no timetable for completion of that report was provided. The report will include the probable cost for a remodel and addition to the existing building.

Anything Left in the Barrel?

We applaud the Mayor, the City of Belle Fourche and Ainsworth Benning Construction on their decision to postpone the construction project on State Street until after the Holiaday Shopping Season is over.

State Street and the downtown area has been on the upswing the past several years and has been adding a few new or refurbished business per year.

By: Doug Cole

That and the increase of activities in the downtown is bringing a mixture of new people into the area.

The Beacon office on State is always observing both local and out of town license plates on the vehicles driving in and parking in the area.

Any effort that can be made to maintain and help that trend continue and grow is well worth the effort.

We've said it before, but will repeat again here. Every decision made by local government begs the question: "How does your action affect business?"

The decision to postpone till after the busy Holiday shopping season is over was "a win" for business!

Winter sports seasons as well as Fine Arts activities are underway and the opportunity to observe the talents of our local students and athletes abounds.

Bronc Booster Club is providing the Beacon with a weekly schedule that can be found on page A4.

If your able make an effort to get out and attend as many events as possible

Breakfast With Santa Serves Up Christmas Cheer

Excitement was in the air as the Belle Fourche Rec Center hosted their first Breakfast with Santa event on Saturday

December 3.

Children and their families filled the Rec Center lobby to tell Santa their Christmas wishes, snap a photo, and mail their Santa letters. The event also featured Christmas crafts and coloring pages in the Rec Center's Dakota Room.

Members of the upcoming Belle Fourche Area Community Theater production A Christmas Carol strolled amongst the crowd in full costume adding to the festive mood of the morning.

The event was free to all and a donation based breakfast was provided by the Belle Fourche Youth Baseball Association.

The Good Stuff

by Jim Thompson

Jim Thompson takes motivational stories that listeners and readers send him and incorporates them into the program. It has been on the air for more than 10 years.

The Holiday Season is well on us. At my age I've learned some things about holiday eating that I'd like to share with you....no extra charge. Let's start with:

Christmas Cookie Rules

1. If you eat a Christmas cookie fresh out of the oven, it has no calories because everyone knows that the first cookie is the test and thus calorie free.
2. If you drink a diet soda after eating your second cookie, it also has no calories because the diet soda cancels out the cookie calories.
3. If a friend comes over while you're making your Christmas cookies and needs to sample, you must sample with your friend. Because your friend's first cookie is calorie free, (rule #1) yours is also. It would be rude to let your friend sample alone and, being the friend that you are, that makes your cookie calorie free.
4. Any cookie calories consumed while walking around will fall to your feet and eventually fall off as you move. This is due to gravity and the density of the caloric mass.
5. Any calories consumed during the frosting of the Christmas cookies will be used up because it takes many calories to lick excess frosting from a knife without cutting your tongue.
6. Cookies colored red or green have very few calories. Red ones have three and green ones have five – one calorie for each letter. Make more red ones!

7. Cookies eaten while watching "Miracle on 34th Street" have no calories because they are part of the entertainment package and not part of one's personal fuel.

8. As always, cookie pieces contain no calories because the process of breaking causes calorie leakage.

9. Any cookies consumed from someone else's plate have no calories since the calories rightfully belong to the other person and will cling to their plate. We all know how calories like to cling!

10. Any cookies consumed while feeling stressed have no calories because cookies used for medicinal purposes never have calories. It's a rule!

So, go out and enjoy those Christmas Cookies. We only get them this time of year

Having just one more cookie with a cold glass of milk, I'm Jim Thompson.

Barrel Racer Emily Beisel Takes Victory Lap after Round 4

LAS VEGAS - Barrel racer Emily Beisel was doing anything to change her luck in Round 4 after back-to-back runs north of 18 seconds.

Beisel's luck changed in a big way as she won Round 4 with a 13.60-second time.

"It's amazing. Anytime you get to come down here and see (the media) it is always a huge blessing because it's tough," Beisel said. "Every night in barrel racing is a knife fight. But I'm so thankful for my horse. He's been working so hard for me. I felt like the first couple of nights I was trying to cut corners a little too fast. Tonight, I gave him a little more room and he made it happen."

Then Beisel talked about how she tried to change her fortunes in Round 4.

"We brought out all the good luck tonight," Beisel said. "My husband is here and usually when he shows up things get better for me. My friend, Jimmie Smith, sent me an NFR goodie package before we left, and they included the socks that she wore when she won the round in Arlington, so I had those on tonight as well."

Oelrich, South Dakota's Lisa Lockhart continues to improve at the WNFR. She tied for second in the round with Margo Crowther. Their times were 13.65 seconds and they each cashed checks for $20,053.

Tie-down Roper Marty Yates Swings His Way to Round 4 WNFR Victory

LAS VEGAS – Marty Yates had a rough start to the 2022 Wrangler National Finals Rodeo presented by Teton Ridge failing to place in the first three rounds.

He made up for those lost opportunities in Round 4 Sunday night.

The Stephenville, Texas, cowboy made a slick 7.4-second run to take the Round 4 victory before 17,112 spectators at the Thomas & Mack Center.

"Oh, it's nice to finally get the monkey off my back," said Yates, who is making his ninth consecutive appearance at the NFR. "I didn't have much luck in the first few nights, but made a good run tonight, I drew a good calf, I went out there and did my job and it worked."

Although things didn't go his way in the first three rounds, Yates stayed upbeat.

"Oh man, they've kind of settled down quite a bit, you know the first few nights didn't go as good as you'd like them too. You know I had a really good calf tonight, so it made my job easy, you know I've rode two different horses so far, so hopefully it's headed back in my direction."

Yates was guided to victory by his horse Jag.

"That's the horse that I've owned for a couple of years now. I've actually won all my money throughout the regular season on it. So, I sure know every move he's going to make, so I have a lot of confidence in him."

Yates, who finished second in the 2020 world standings, has a simple plan for the remainder of the NFR.

"One swing, one wrap and a victory lap, every night that's what we're after," Yates said.

Bull rider Stetson Wright wins another round in bull riding.

Stetson Wright continues to bask in the spotlight at the Wrangler NFR.

The Utah cowboy had a 92-point ride on Salt River Rodeo's Belly Dump to take the Round 4 win. Wright also won Round 2 with an 88-point trip on Dakota Rodeo's Pookie Holler.

"He was a really good bull," Wright said. "He had me rocked back there because he bucked up so high. I just kept trying to fight it, there was a lot going on."

Getting bucked off in Round 3 did give Wright a jolt before Round 4.

"I was more focused on letting myself know that I can't let off the gas," Wright said. "(Saturday night), I let it slip away so tonight I wanted to come back and redeem myself."

Some might think competing in saddle bronc riding and bull riding at the NFR would be a grind, but Wright does not view things that way.

"I actually like it more at the NFR than any other rodeo because it's such a fast-paced rodeo," Wright said about competing in two events. "You don't have time to think, and you don't have time to get tired. You're just going, going, going. That's one thing I like about it and wish every rodeo was like that."

Wright leads the all-around standings with ($505,834) and bull riding ($413,842) and is second in saddle bronc riding.

KAREN ODELL

Thanksgiving weather was good at Capitol, and on Tie Creek. Hunters took home some deer meat, and the snow slowly melted. Erma Albert cooked their own Thanksgiving dinner, and they stayed home. Erma was not feeling up to par, and spent some time resting up this week. They went to town on Monday. On Sunday, they went to church in Buffalo, and then had lunch at Saloon Number Three with the Erk family.

Alvin and Marlee Cordell, Jay Cordell and Ryan Cordell’s family went to the Camp Crook Community Center, for Thanksgiving dinner, with many other family members. Rod Bisgaard had come out to visit for a few days, and he went back to Belle Fourche earlier that day. Alvin helped at the cemetery, for the Elsie Turbiville funeral on Saturday. Marlee went in to the community center to help with preparing the food. This week, Matt Gilbert came to Alvin’s, on Monday, to test cows. It was a very windy and cold day. Roy Castille hauled loads of hay from the Yates place. for Alvin. during the week. Last Friday, Alvin and Marlee, went to Spearfish to watch the women’s and men’s basketball games at Black Hills State University. They played Regis University from Colorado. Both BHSU teams won, but the men’s game was a ‘last-minute’ come-from-behind game, and very exciting. This week, they watched the BHSU game at home, on YouTube. Alvin went to check things at the Horton place on Saturday. He went on over to visit with Billy Roadifer for a while, before coming home. Wade Pearson came out on Saturday and Sunday, to do some work at the Loken place. Alvin, Marlee and Ryan’s family went to church at the Methodist Church in Camp Crook on Sunday, and stayed for a meeting afterward.

Craig Nelson came to visit at Bruce and Lynn Gustafson’s, last Wednesday. He stayed to join them in their traditional Thanksgiving dinner of prime rib. Gordon ‘Pete’ Anderson came for Thanksgiving dinner, too. This Wednesday, Lynn went to the Bible study that was held at Little Missouri Church. She was glad that they could go to Wolffy’s, in Camp Crook, to pick up some groceries, instead of driving all the way to the Hills. On Sunday, they went to church at the Little Missouri Church.

Doug and Julia Davis were glad to get calves sold this week. Last year, the calves did not cooperate so well, but with a small change, things went great this year. Jake Davis came out to help, and then, Jake and Doug went to St. Onge to watch the sale. Bobbie and Terry Cordell, Jason Latham, Miles Cooper, and Morgan and Darren Buck were there to help, too. Sale prices were good. Doug went over to Jason Latham’s to help him ship cattle, on Sunday. When he left home it was nine degrees, but by the time he got to Jason’s it was twenty-four degrees there, and felt warm. Usually you head south to reach the warmer weather. Jason’s shipment will go to Faith for the sale on Monday.

Donna Lewis had Thanksgiving dinner with her family at Pam and Gary Gorder’s. Donna took along four pumpkin, two apple, and one cherry pie, and they had plenty to eat. This week she went to bowling in Baker, on Thursday. On Friday, she went back to Ekalaka for the Homer Harrington funeral. She had a nice visit with many family members. Homer’s sister, Janice Lassiter, and Ginger’s sister, Trixie were there. Garth Tooke and Jesse Labree shared many stories. Homer was an extremely talented person. Ernie, Rachel and Tommy Melum went to Baker, on the evening before Thanksgiving, for the church program. Rachel played violin, and Tommy played guitar for their song, ‘Sweet Hour of Prayer’. Tommy also sang with the children’s choir. They spent Thanksgiving with the Kalbach family. This Friday, they went to Ekalaka for the Homer Harrington funeral. On Sunday, they went back to Baker for church.

Dorothy Padden’s grandsons, Kevin from Billings, and Brian from Rapid City, came out to the ranch for Thanksgiving. The Wayne and Raymond Lee families were there, too. Bryce and Dawn Padden came, and they had food to last all day. On Friday, Dorothy went in to Camp Crook for the Elsie Turbiville funeral. Then on Saturday, she went to Buffalo for Greta Turbiville’s 90th birthday party. This week, Dorothy went with Bryce and Dawn to the junior high girls’ basketball game in Buffalo. Then on Tuesday, they went back for junior high wrestling, in Buffalo. On Friday, Dawn discovered that the last sixth grade game of the season, was at eleven in the morning, so they hurried to get over to that game, too. She learned that Kany and Brylen had won their wrestling matches, so it was a good week.

Charlie Odell has been busy, the last few weeks. He had planned to sell calves sooner, but inspecting for others had pushed his sale back. On Monday, he inspected cows for Ronda Cordell. Then on Tuesday, he got Jeremy Richards to come over to inspect his, and he hauled a load of calves to Belle Fourche. He took another load on Wednesday, and on the way home, he stopped at Ivan Teigen’s to inspect there. Ivan had gotten a call from Ryan Cordell, who had learned from Karen where Charlie Was, so Ivan passed on the message that Ryan wanted him to stop at the Loken place, and he inspected there, too. On Friday, he inspected for Ernie Melum. Then on Sunday, before church, he inspected for Ryan Cordell and Kent Williams.

It was a busy week. Wednesday was a nice day, so Karen got some more fire wood cut and stacked. They had planned to go to Ekalaka for the Homer Harrington funeral, but things didn’t work out, so they got to watch the funeral on the Stevenson Funeral Home website, and were so thankful that Stevenson’s provide that service. That evening, they got to see grandson, Kellan Odell’s, first wrestling match of the season on YouTube, too. Kellan is a sophomore at Mitchell. He had spent the last week at Charlie and Karen’s, and had eaten lots of food, so hope he didn’t weigh too much for the weight class. Karen went out, and dug up the corral waterer, on Saturday morning, because it was tipped, and was running over to make a lake nearby, because it wouldn’t shut off.

It was getting colder and colder, and she knew she had to get it dug before the mud was frozen rock-hard. She was dipping out the heavy water, when Charlie came to help, and with the use of a jack, they got it leveled enough to put boards under one side, and that let the float work right. After an hour or two in the cold, and with wet gloves, Karen’s fingers were hurting. They were getting chilled down. Karen sat around the house wrapped in a blanket to finally get warmed up.

On Sunday, Karen got to play some Christmas carols for the church service in Camp Crook. It was not warm in there either, and Karen tried to keep her hands warm enough to play the piano. Then they went to the Corner Bar for lunch before coming home. It had been warm in the bar, and they were finally beginning to warm up a little, by the time they got home again. Charlie still had some fencing to do that day in the cold wind, but once that was done, they both gradually began to thaw out.

Anyone who is critical of those who try and fail, presents proof of their membership in the even lower status of those who fail to try.

Central Meade County News

By Sandy Rhoden

Sunday was a good day for John and Melanie Cammack to work buffalo. We’ve experienced some cold windy days, so when a nice sunny day like Sunday rolls around, it’s good to get those necessary tasks done when possible. We still remain dry as of the beginning of the week.

There was pot luck dinner after church on Sunday in Union Center. It was followed by the tradition of decorating the church for the Christmas season. Katherine Spring and Donna Cammack have spent the last 3 or 4 decades putting up a large nativity set in the church entrance, and they both lovingly put it out again. Donna displayed at least another two sets so children and adults as well remember what the true meaning of Christmas is.

It was announced that Union Center would be a featured town in a special story done by Public Broadcasting System. It appears they will take a good amount of interviews and time putting it together. It will have its debut in 1924. They feature other small towns in South Dakota as well.

The basketball season for rural schools came to an end on Monday night with the last night of play. Typically there are traveling teams that play after the season is over.

Jade and Kaitlyn Keffeler recently moved back to the Red Owl Community where Jade will ranch on the family ranch. They are living at Duane and Sharon’s home along with their new baby daughter who is doing very well. She has a full head of hair and the Keffeler cheeks! Welcome back to Central Meade County, Jade & family. No doubt, Grandma Dana and Grandpa Jay De are happy about them living so close.

Cammack Ranch Supply held their Christmas party at Legends in Deadwood on Saturday night. The room was full with no empty seats and no one went away hungry. The food was fabulous and all of the CRS employees enjoyed great fellowship and food that night. Many of them made a weekend of by staying in Deadwood. Gary and Amy Cammack spent the next day cutting down their Christmas tree with their son Scott and family. Then, on Monday they flew out to Hawaii. They are celebrating their 50th wedding anniversary this year.

Karen Speed will be leaving the community to live in Sturgis. Friends are hosting a ‘moving away’ party for her at Nellie’s on Monday, December 11 at 2:00 pm. Karen will be missed here in Central Meade County after spending around 50 years making people laugh and enjoying life around her. We wish Karen a rich, fun filled life as she changes her residence.

Tis the season for Christmas programs in our rural schools. All programs will begin at 6:00 PM. The first one is next week and here is the full schedule:

- Dec. 13 - Atall Christmas Program @ school basement
- Dec. 14 - Opal Christmas Program @ Opal Hall
- Dec. 15 - CMCS Christmas Program @ Central Meade County Community Center
- Dec. 19 - Hereford Christmas Program @ Hereford Hall
- Dec. 20 - Elm Springs Christmas Program @ Elm Springs Hall

Schmaltz and Randy Sowers asked the city for the opportunity to review the design documents before they reach final approval in order that the council might add any additional changes. Mayor Randy Schmidt acknowledged that such a process would be a given, "absolutely."
No timeframe for delivery of the design and construction documents has yet been provided.

From A1 Roundup
"Many of them have done it for years. For some, it's a family tradition, their parents were a part of the rodeo and now they are," he said.
Anderson said the rodeo is "the biggest thing that happens in Belle Fourche all year long," and that often native Belle Fourche folks who've moved away travel back "home" for the fourth of July weekend. Many tourists also attend the rodeo.
Anderson and some of the other committee members attended the PRCA awards banquet at the South Point in Las Vegas, Nov. 30, to learn that their rodeo was once again a winner.
Anderson attended meetings in Las Vegas to gain new ideas and make connections, in order to ensure the BH Roundup is the best it can be.

Looking Back in Belle

Belle TIMES
December 9, 1897
A Sure Thing (?)

It now seems to be a settled fact that Belle Fourche will have a smelter in the spring and, perhaps, more. During the past week we were informed, by parties who were in a position to know, that a company had been formed, and had already contracted for a large tract of land adjoining this city, and were about to secure another piece of property. As the parties who own the property were not in the city, we were unable to get a confirmation of this statement. However, this fact is apparent, that the water supply in the Hills is inadequate and that we have an abundance of water. Eastern capitalists are rapidly being brought to see that the resources of the Black Hills are a sure and safe investment for their money, and, in our opinion, it is but a question of time – and a short time too, until Belle Fourche will be operating smelters, etc. They must have smelters and mills to work their ores and it requires water to run these smelters and mills; they haven't the water, we have.

Passes Buck To Congress
Washington, D.C. Dec. 4 – President Harding today passed the buck to Congress, in the matter of reduction of expenditures and taxation. In transmitting the annual budget of federal expenses for the next fiscal year, he frankly told congress that whether or not there would be any material reduction in expenditures and taxes, depends largely on whether there is curtailment or expansion of federal appropriations in aid of research, development and improvement works.

WORK UNDER WAY ON NEW SECRET ATOMIC WEAPON TESTING GROUND
Washington, Dec 1 – Construction of a super-secret proving ground for the test-firing of new types of atomic weapons has begun on remote Eniwetok atoll in the mid-Pacific. The atomic energy commission says native inhabitants, numbering about 145, will be evacuated from the tiny ring of coral islands. All outsiders will be barred from the huge outdoor laboratory where the armed forces will conduct experiments with peaceful as well as military atomic devices. The atoll is about 200 miles northwest of Bikini lagoon, where the first atomic bomb tests were held last year. It is on the extreme outer fringe of the Marshall island group which the United States hold under a trusteeship agreement with the United Nations. It is 5200 miles east of San Francisco and 2600 miles southeast of the Russian port of Vladivostok. The official announcement said the entire area will be declared a "closed" strategic installation. State department official say the terms of the trusteeship agreement, under which the United States took over the administration of the island once mandated to Japan, gives this country the right to bar even officials of the United Nations from the testing ground. While details of the installation are marked "top-secret," the commission says complete facilities already are being constructed. This includes housing, utilities, communications and extensive structures to protect scientists, military personnel and instruments during atomic tests.

Women's League Discusses Airport, Roller Skating Rink
Members of the Women's Civic League, at their regular monthly meeting last night, heard numerous reports from committee members and discussed matters ranging from the proposed roller skating rink to the municipal airport. The League last night was informed that the American Legion dance committee does not favor establishment of a roller skating rink at the hall – as urged by the League – because the Legion fears skating would damage the floor to the extent that it would be unsatisfactory for dancing purposes. Members discussed the airport improvement issue. It was announced that the League as a whole would take no stand for or against the airport, but all members were urged to vote Dec. 16 when a special election is held on the matter. A committee representing the League attended last night's meeting of the city council and asked that some action be taken regarding the garbage situation in Belle Fourche. The council assured the women that action would be taken. The women also asked the council if a study might be made regarding a zoning law for the town.

Council Approves New Garbage System
A new garbage ordinance, which has been the subject of study for several months, was given second reading final approval by the Belle Fourche City Council Monday night. The board also approved an across the board pay increases for the entire city staff, from top to bottom, including the council and mayor. The new garbage ordinance paves the way for adoption of sanitary land-fill method of disposal. The ordinance provides for a charge of $2 per month for home owners and $1.50 per month for commercial firms. However, there will be no collection from the business houses. They will still have to haul their own or contract with someone to haul it. Biggest stumbling block in approval of the ordinance was the fee. Mayor Henry Hantz was among those who expressed concern that the $2 fee was too high. In the end, however, after it was established that the $2 fee was necessary to meet the first year cost of the project, the board gave unanimous approval to the fee. Alderman Bill Schmidt emphasized that an accurate cost estimate is virtually impossible, since the project is entirely new. The new ordinance provides for licensing of garbage haulers, with a fee of $100 per year. It also provides that permit cards be issued to persons who pay the $2 monthly fee. This will enable the permit holder to use the dump grounds without additional charge if he wants to haul something there. Senior Citizens Organize Here A. H. Mortenson, former superintendent of the Belle Fourche schools, was named temporary chairman of the newly formed Senior Citizens Committee at an organization meeting here Monday afternoon. Also selected was a temporary board of directors to serve until a general election of the membership can be held. The temporary board includes, in addition to Mortenson, Minnie Reigel, Earl Friggens, Mrs. A.H. Mortenson, John Voyles, Joe Koller, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Ekberg, Helen Tucker, Edith Esmay, Leonard Arnold and Albert Lakson. Some 30 people attended Monday's meeting at the Chamber of Commerce office. Harold Storsve of the Community Action Program, is assisting in organization procedures. The board is will meet to work on proposed by-laws and articles of incorporation. Establishment of a senior citizens organization will enable the group to secure federal funds for a senior citizen center. A full membership meeting is expected to be called soon.

Mrs. James Larson, now with a few day of her ninetieth birthday, still lives in Fruitdale, and though she is seriously handicapped by the loss of her hearing, still lives alone in her house, raises a garden every year, as well as potatoes which

Western Skies 4-H Pie Social

On November 19th at the quaint Bowman Hall, the newly founded Western Skies 4H Club hosted their first annual Fall Pie and Cookie Social with a silent auction. With the tables adorned with decorations folks from the surrounding community joined in supporting this new 4-H club and generously turned out for their fundraiser. Several types of homemade pies were offered from Lemon Meringue to Carmel Apple Pie and several other flavors in between; the club offered whole pies for sale, as well as single serve slice with a complimentary scoop of ice cream and a cup of coffee.

We'd like to extend our heartfelt gratitude to these businesses listed who donated items, it would have not been a successful without them.

Subway, Los Agaves Mexican Restaurant, SML Tie & Auto Service/South Conoco, Love That Shoppe, Black Hills Dry Cleaning, Cowboys TOO, Olive Branch, Calico Art Co., Pete's Clothing & Hodge's Bootery,

Peterson 601 Homestead, TC Outfit, Jodie Baxendale Photography, Dakota Mill & Grain, Roundup Building Supply, Rose Boutique, Sabotique, Tristan's, Coops Barbershop Belle Fourche, Prairie Rose Event Planning & Decor, CBH Coop, Grossenburg's, Butte Co. With this being the first public event the club has hosted, they also took advantage of having officer introductions and installations while folks who attended enjoyed a piece of pie. Members assumed their role in their properly elected office and read their responsibilities for the 2022-2023 4-H year. The kids then each shared a poem of their choice to recite to the audience. "It's so vital for kiddos to get in front of crowds they don't know and participate in public speaking on any level, even if it is just reading and reciting poetry. It pushes them out of their comfort zone and requires them to rise to a different level of confidence", says Western Skies Leader, Jessica. Following officer installations and the poetry recital we were most fortunate to have a wonderful guest speaker, Mrs. Gwen Kitman visit with the crowd and the children about the values and lessons of being in 4-H. The Western Skies 4-H Club is planning on making this an annual event, with plans for next year to offer pre-made pies, as well as whole pies sold at the event again and of course single slice sales, with that complimentary coffee and ice cream again too! We look forward to making this an annual event allowing our kids to serve the public tasty pie, have an opportunity to do public speaking, and enjoy a good conversation!

What to do with a Broken Leg?

One time in mid spring, I was riding a horse I had bought that winter. I hadn't ridden him a lot, but noticed that he would stumble fairly often. Never fell plumb down, but would stumble and catch himself. I find out later it was on account of the saddle I was riding on him that evidently pinched his withers and kind of numbed him up in front or some such.

On this day, Dad and I had tied the horse I called John onto the back of the wagon and we had driven a wagon load of feed up west to the pairs. Fro you novices, pairs is a cow and her calf. A pair. We always sorted the new calved cows off and kicked them up west into a pasture with lots of natural protection in case of storms. This was back when we started calving about the first of March. At this point, it was early April. Pretty nice weather. No snow on the ground at that time, but the ground was wet and fresh grass was coming up. Cows didn't want to eat hay very bad and were chasing the green. But they would come to feed on cow cubes. So we were trying to keep them from getting too thin. We got the cattle fed and I stepped on John and Dad took the team and continued driving around looking at the cattle as I looked a different direction. I found a calf who was blind and decided I needed to take him home. At this point I had never roped off from John. But I was young and almost fearless.. no that ain't right, I was just stupid! I stepped off and placed the roped around this calf's neck with one front leg thru' it so he couldn't choke. Not sure why I didn't just go find Dad and the team and have him follow me back so we could load the calf in the wagon and give him a ride home. Anyway, I stepped back on John and slowly eased off with a half a dally around the saddle horn. I had John standing kind of sideways to the calf and as he walked off, the rope touched his butt, he spooked and I dropped the rope to stop the wreck or ride it out. Remember the stumbling part I mentioned? We were on a side hill and as he started to bolt, I tipped his head a bit uphill to circle or slow him and he started to go down with me. In my mind, I thought he was just stumbling so didn't pay much mind. Imagine my surprise and chagrin when he went ahead and fell down, going forward, with my left leg under him. My toe evidently dug in and then was forced back and around to the back when we hit the ground.. in other words, the opposite of how they normally set. I believe I heard a pop. John scrambled to his feet, my foot came out of the stirrup, I guess.. I wasn't paying much attention as I was laying on the ground, chewing dirt and trying not to scream. When the pain subsided a bit, I rolled over and somehow got to my feet. John hadn't gone far and was waiting and nibbling grass and Dad was headed towards us with the team and wagon. He missed the show.

"What happened? Did you get bucked off?" He had given me hell for buying another horse so was probably secretly delighted if he had been proven correct that it was a bad investment.

"No, I didn't get bucked off.

He fell with me while I was trying to lead this calf home." The blind calf was still standing there acting bewildered, but then he pretty much had acted like that all along. "Pull up close to the calf and we will load him in the wagon."

Dad was ancient at the time and had survived several broken bones, back surgery and a valve put in his heart, so I knew he wasn't going to be much use. I don't remember how I did it, but I tied the calf and loaded him in the wagon, tied John to the wagon and crawled in myself as I knew I couldn't get back on with my left leg boogered up.

When we got home, I unloaded the calf, put him in a pen. Unharnessed the team and unsaddled John and turned them out. Hopped to my pickup and went to my house. Told Cindy of what happened, we went to town and Doc Massa x-rayed my leg, pronounced it broken and put a cast on me. The first of three for that break. But that is a story for another day.

If there is a moral to this story it must be that when you are young and stupid you can do a lot, even with a broken leg!

On Thursday, December 1, Belle Fourche senior Sawyer Clarkson celebrated two important milestones; his 18th birthday and a decision to pursue his academic and athletic career at Gonzaga University.

With a large group of well-wishers, friends, teammates and family in attendance, Sawyer explained that the Gonzaga campus in Spokane, Washington is beautiful and “everything I could ask for.” Sawyer who is drawn to outdoor sports and the Spokane area was also impressed with the academic potential to pursue sports medicine as an area of career interest. More immediately, he looks forward to reaching new levels of athletic achievement as a member of the Gonzaga Cross-Country team. As a high school student, Sawyer already has an impressive number of athletic awards and honors. Sawyer who is confident and well spoken described his first community 5K race at Hermann Park in Belle Fourche at the age of 8. “That’s when I found out I was pretty good at running.” He said. Sawyer’s other interests include skiing, mountain biking, photography and learning to play the guitar. Gonzaga university is a private liberal arts college founded in 1887. The school is recognized for academic and athletic excellence.

Belle Fourche Cheerleading participated in the Parade of Lights by dancing to “Under the Christmas Tree” by Kelly Clarkson. Boys Basketball tryouts were held last week and will begin performing at games December 9th. Coach Michaela Horn and team is excited for the season. Photo by M. Horn

The Christmas Bell

Last Saturday eve, Dec. 3rd saw the return of The Christmas Bell, a Christmas program hosted by FAB (Belle Fourche’s parent-led Fine Arts Boosters) that they hope to continue as a new, annual Christmas tradition, with this being their second outing with the program.

At the beginning of the show, FAB president Angela Hastings spoke to the intentions of the program; providing an opportunity for local community members, young and old, to showcase their talents, and putting on a poignant and festive program for the community to kickstart the Christmas spirit at the outset of December. And by all accounts, Saturday’s program achieved those goals.

The setting was the sanctuary of Belle’s United Church of Christ. The room was decorated beautifully with traditional Christmas accents, and provided a comfortable, cozy space for all those in attendance. The program started at 7 and lasted until about 8:30, with 14 acts listed in the program. There were local youth who recited poetry, performed in a string quartet, and shared their vocal talents. Nathan and Sharon Thompson performed an impressive and evocative acapella arrangement of “Mary Did You Know” with five of their children.

Kaeli and Titas Thompson and siblings opened the Christmas Bell program with holiday favorites on strings.

John Dale and his holiday carols had the whole audience singing along.

Hanna Bricker and accompanist Judith Howard with a moving solo of “The Sweetest Gift.”

There were many performers sharing their singing ability, and the majority of them accompanied themselves with their personal guitar talents. Derek Flick, a Belle Fourche graduate and active rock musician, treated the crowd to an electric but emotionally stirring rendition of “White Christmas”. And not many eyes were dry after Hannah Bricker’s performance of “The Sweetest Gift”, which was accompanied beautifully on piano by her grandmother, Judith Howard. There were many moments of joy and levity to be found as well however. The Matthew’s Readers Theatre group gave a double helping of comedic holiday performances, making light of the many distractions and stressors that come with the “happiest time of the year”.

And often throughout the program, the audience was invited to share in the familiar carols being sung, which provided for a unique experience; one that created a sense of fellowship among those who attended.

The program concluded in perfect fashion, with every performer joining together at the front of the sanctuary to lead the audience in “Have Yourself a Merry Little Christmas” - and with FAB’s Christmas Bell to start the holiday season, it’s a

Show Up

Belle LaVenue here, your festive & reliable source for Holiday Happenings in Belle Fourche. So many ways to combine holiday & community spirit!

Coming this weekend is the BFACT performance of A Christmas Carol, Friday & Saturday (12/9 & 12/10) at 7 PM, and Sunday (12/11 at 3 PM). I am getting excited for this well-known holiday favorite, so I took a chance to get the news from their practice this week - and the news is good! Director ToiLyn Flick’s show promises to fulfill all the spirited lessons of Dickens’ classic story and give the audiences a renewed relationship with the meaning of the season. Watching the action from the wings, I know that theater goers will appreciate how Nathan Thompson’s Scrooge draws sympathy, exposed by the intriguing Christmas ghosts (Kathryn Anderson, Kaeli Thompson, & Gideon) to his folly and greed. I guarantee all will enjoy the genuine affection of the Cratchit family, the holiday enthusiasm of nephew Fred & his wife, and the lively cast of carolers and townspeople of all walks of life. I encourage all to enter the world of 1840’s London this coming weekend, prepared to feel the warmth of Christmas courtesy of the BFACT actors and crew.

Black Hills Honey Farm has been beekeeping and manufacturing natural products "From The Hive" since 2001. Black Hills Honey Farm's apiculture standards are developed with the primary focus on the health of honey bees and the sustainability of beekeeping.

From Farm to Fork We seek to define the best practices for natural beekeeping with these priorities as guides, and with a secondary focus on the agricultural products of apicultural products of apiculture (honey, pollen, and propolis).

The guiding principle at Black Hills Honey Farm is that quality is built into our natural products, and not just tested into a finished product. Therefore, the assurance is that the product not only meets the final specifications, but that it has been made by the same procedures under the same conditions each and every time it is made.

Black Hills Honey Farm specializes in producing raw, varietal honey, and each varietal honey is as unique as its floral source. Black Hills Honey Farm harvests this distinction and quality, and hand bottles in glass jars to preserve its purity and taste, at the time of extraction.

The strategy behind Black Hills Honey Farm wax processing is to limit the source of reusable beeswax. We only use wax removed from the upper half of the honey cell during extraction. Once the honey is removed from these cells, the bees have a clean new foundation. Clean foundations help control bee diseases naturally.

Black Hills Honey Farm is a fully integrated Beekeeping operation!

From D1 Golden Years

not be left alone and hungry as they grow old and frail. This information comes directly from the MOW program in a fundraising newsletter that recently went out locally to most homeowners.

In western South Dakota, hundreds of seniors are alone and struggling, and in Newell alone there are 19 recipients of the once a weekday meal. Meals are delivered most Mondays through Fridays. And along with those meals come caring, concerned volunteers like Reinhart.

A gift of just $30 can make sure six struggling seniors get a healthy meal to eat. At least 85 percent of older Americans are living with at least one chronic condition which causes them to be homebound. At least 15 million seniors live near or below the federal poverty line, struggling to get by. This program serves 49 communities throughout western South Dakota. Some meals are served in congregating dining rooms in the community.

One MOW recipient said recently, "I enjoy the meal and company each day. Some weeks they are the only company I get, even if only for a few minutes."

A delivery from MOW shows our community's seniors that someone still cares. If you recently received a MOW fundraiser letter, don't just toss it. Think about how you would feel if you were John Beaver, laying on the floor, waiting for help. And that help comes in the form of a MOW volunteer.

If you can donate, please go to <https://www.mealsprogram.com/donate/participant-donations-2> or call 605-394-6002. You can give a tax-deductible donate by filling out this PDF form by clicking on the IRS link at <https://www.mealsprogram.com/about>.

Grand River Roundup

Reub and I started this week last Sunday evening, November 27, with Bible study at Lester and Sharon Longwood’s house. Also attending were Jim and Lucy Anderson, Vince and Susan Gunn, Ruth Wiechmann and her girls, and Anna Buer. Todd Buer didn’t come because he wasn’t feeling good and we sure hope he’s better now.

Taz and Trig went up to do some carpenter work at Lynette and Kevin Symanowski’s place on Monday and spent most of the week working up there. Amanda went down to the airport to fly out to Las Vegas, Nevada to watch Joey (Painter) Williams in the National Finals Breakaway Roping. Amanda left the kids with her mom, Starla Jenson, that day and Taz picked them up on his way home that evening. Reub and I went to Hettinger Monday afternoon and stopped for coffee with the Prairie Pioneers in Reeder on our way home. We took Jim Brown’s books that he had loaned us back to him. It was very interesting reading the Reeder High School annuals and the book about the history of Jim’s family. While we were having coffee we learned that John Wells had passed away in Lemmon.

John Emmett Wells, age 100, of Lemmon, passed away at his home on Sunday evening, November 27, in Lemmon. Memorial services for John were held on Monday, December 5, at the Calvary Lutheran Church in Lemmon. His burial was at the Black Hills National Cemetery near Sturgis on Tuesday, December 6, with full military honors. John was a cousin of both Maxine and Helen Marty.

We lost another old friend this week. David Junek, age 98 of Belle Fourche, died Wednesday, November 30th, at the Monument Health Sturgis Hospital. His services will be held in May with Leverington Funeral Home of the Northern Hills in Belle Fourche.

Our sympathies go out to these families.

Missy kept Taz and Amanda’s kids on Tuesday and Casey had a Jr. High wrestling meet in Buffalo that evening, so Missy picked Copper up from school and she and the kids went to watch the wrestling meet that evening.

A bunch of us went down to decorate the church for Christmas Wednesday morning. Becky Holt was already there cleaning the church and Patsy Wilkinson, and Pastor Henry and Linda Mohagen all showed up to get the decorating done.

Eric and Amanda Schuchard went down to the Hills and cut up a couple beautiful spruce trees for the church that we decorated and then we decorated the rest of the church, both in the church, in the addition, and in the basement. We usually quilt of Wednesday, but we were so worn out that we gave up and went home that afternoon to get some rest.

Thursday was the first day of December and it was really nice out with no wind. Casey took the wrestlers to wrestle in Custer that evening and on Friday. I went over to Missy’s house to stay with the kids while she fed the calves that afternoon and then Reub and I went to Hettinger to watch our granddaughter Acalia play basketball. Her team, the Night Hawks played the Bowman Bulldogs. Amanda got home from Las Vegas that afternoon in time to pick up Copper from the school bus in Reva. Joey Williams placed 6th in the National Finals Breakaway Roping in Las Vegas so she made some money!

It was so cold and windy on Friday that I didn’t even turn my chickens out for fear of them freezing to death. I’m starting to get a lot of eggs again since my twelve pullets have started to lay eggs and I usually get a couple eggs a day from my seven old hens. I stayed inside and spent most of the day cooking and making rosettes for the Christmas Tea at the church Sunday afternoon.

It was minus 8 degrees when we got up Saturday morning, but there wasn’t any wind and it warmed up to 34 degrees, which felt wonderful. Missy and I both made cookies for the Christmas Tea on Sunday. Trig went down to Spearfish for the wedding of Zack Anders and Cameron Shockley and Casey was in Rapid City with the Jr. High wrestlers.

The Sunday School had practice for the Christmas program Sunday morning. The big tree that we had decorated on Wednesday had tipped over and busted a bunch of the ornaments so several of the older kids had to stand it up again and redecorate it, so they didn’t get the tree in the church decorated as they had planned.

The Christmas Tea was at church Sunday afternoon and a nice crowd of ladies came so spend the afternoon. Linda Mohagen brought soup to feed the ladies that stayed after church and lots of ladies brought cookies, candy and goodies to eat with the tea, coffee and hot apple cider. It was a really fun afternoon.

I’ll leave you with this:

*A Sunday school teacher was discussing the Ten Commandments with her five and six year olds.

After explaining the commandment to ‘honor’ thy Father and thy Mother, she asked, ‘Is there a commandment that teaches us how to treat our brothers and sisters?’

From the back, one little boy (the oldest of a family) answered, ‘Thou shall not kill.’

*One day a little girl was sitting and watching her mother do the dishes at the kitchen sink. She suddenly noticed that her mother had several strands of white hair sticking out in contrast on her brunette head.

She looked at her mother and inquisitively asked, ‘Why are some of your hairs white, Mom?’

Her mother replied, ‘Well, every time that you do something wrong and make me cry or unhappy, one of my hairs turns white.’

The little girl thought about this revelation for a while and then said, ‘Mommy, how come ALL of grandma’s hairs are white?’

“Looking Forward to our Past”

Andrew Erickson and George Maass, 2 of our most energetic farmers on Horse Creek have just returned from Omaha where they purchased a car load of Holstein milk cows. The old timers know the value of the dairy cow and beef is greater every year and that is why they can feed alfalfa at a better profit than they used to make in the days of free range.

The Ladies Social Union of the Congregational Church will serve supper at the Theatorium Thursday evening, December 12 from 5:00 to 7:30 PM. Various articles of fancy work for Christmas gifts as well as home made candy will be offered for sale. At the close of the supper the ladies will present the original “Old Maid’s Convention”. This is a 1-Act comedy full of laughter from start to finish and the ladies are offering you a supper and a whole dollar’s worth of fun for 50 cents. The price is so reasonable that everybody can afford to come and enjoy themselves.

While digging for coal at the Buttes last week the men became very much excited, as the burning of clothes was smelt. During some fast rushing around Noah Bingham was dashed at being his trousers were afire, but it was soon put out and only a small hole was burnt in the knee which can be patched very easily

Several dogs have been poisoned about town and many families are mourning the loss of their pets. The source of the poison is unknown, but thought someone has been dropping poisoned meat on the streets. This is a very dangerous practice, as some child is very apt to pick up some of the poisoned pieces. Also, it is unlawful to place poison on public thoroughfares.

Robbers broke into the Standard Oil Bulk station near the depot Friday night and stole a quantity of grease and lubricating oil, according to C.B. Nelson, local agent for the county. Valves leading to the gasoline storage tanks had been turned, but it was thought that no gas had been stolen. The same night a barrel, filled with gasoline, was stolen from a shed at the Newell beet dump.

Mr. & Mrs. Jack Rathbun and Grove Allen and Mr. & Mrs. M. Rathbun were Thanksgiving Day dinner guests at the home of Mr. & Mrs. Wallace Butts in Belle Fourche. The black-out will be from 9:00 to 9:20 PM. The South Dakota black-out will be a part of a 9-state region of the Seventh Civilian Defense. At the warning signal all traffic must immediately cease; park cars and extinguish all lights at once, light no matches or flashlights. The murder trial of John S. Flaigg, 79-year-old Hoover rancher, was scheduled to be first case heard before a jury session when the fall term of Circuit Court opened in Belle Fourche Wednesday of this week. Flaigg is charged with killing his 37-year-old son-in-law, Franklin Johnson of Lead and Vale, at the Flaigg ranch about 30 miles northeast of Newell last August 30th. Johnson was killed while abducting his wife from her bedroom at the Flaigg ranch. Johnson had returned from Greenland where he had been employed. Testimony at a preliminary hearing showed that Flaigg had warned Johnson to not abuse his wife in which Johnson became violent and the shot rang out. Johnson’s history was known to become violent after he has been drinking. After closing arguments; a comment heard in the rear by an unknown person in the Court Room, proclaimed:” Flaigg should be given a medal”.

spend the holiday meal with family or friends. Take out dishes were also provided.

“It was the best stuffing ever,” said Nate Fischer-Kenstler.

Gov. Noem Signs Executive Order Banning TikTok

PIERRE, S.D. – On Nov. 29, Governor Kristi Noem signed Executive Order 2022-10, which bans the Chinese social media platform TikTok for state government agencies, employees, and contractors using state devices. This order is in response to the growing national security threat posed by TikTok due to its data gathering operations on behalf of the Chinese Communist Party (CCP).

“South Dakota will have no part in the intelligence gathering operations of nations who hate us,” said Governor Kristi Noem. “The Chinese Communist Party uses information that it gathers on TikTok to manipulate the American people, and they gather data off the devices that access the platform.”

The order takes effect immediately and would apply to employees and agencies of the State of South Dakota, including persons and entities who contract with the state, commissions, and authorities or agents thereof. The order prohibits downloading or using the TikTok application or visiting the website on state-owned or state-leased electronic devices capable of internet connectivity.

“Because of our serious duty to protect the private data of South Dakota citizens, we must take this action immediately. I hope other states will follow South Dakota’s lead, and Congress should take broader action, as well,” continued Governor Noem.

On Nov. 30, Governor Noem and 20 other governors urged congressional leadership to remove and prohibit the Biden Administration’s COVID-19 vaccine mandate on members of the U.S. Armed Forces.

“The Biden vaccine mandate on our military creates a national security risk that severely impacts our defense capabilities abroad and our state readiness here at home,” wrote Governor Noem and her colleagues.

Whistle Stop Market Sees Good Crowd

Colleen Brunner
news@bellefourchebeacon.com

NEWELL – The second monthly Whistle Stop Market was held November 5, with a large attendance, both in vendors and visitors. The NVN Senior Center was packed with tables along all walls and down the center with vendors trading their wares, handmade items and flea market goodies.

Veron McCarthy and his daughter, Kim Wince, were at one of the center tables, hawking used goodies that lots of people seemed to need.

“We got stuck doing this as mom (Carol McCarthy) signed up and then decided to go to a quilting party,” said Wince. She and Veron were giving great deals with a “make your own offer” and adding an extra item with each purchase. Lots of kitschy items were displayed and they said they didn’t want to take anything back home.

Another vendor participating in the market in November was Jessica and Kyle Erhart of Spearfish. They attend markets in different places but said they thought they’d try the Whistle Stop to see if Newell was a viable location for them.

“We sell many items,” said Erhart. She snagged a corner booth just inside the door next to the registration area. Their business is titled Master of None Artistry and they are strictly an online and vendor fair business. Their items include alcohol ink, fluid art, resin and woodworking as well as a host of other items including jewelry.

Jessica, was finding it difficult to transition from full-time soldier to full-time mom and she and her husband both served in the Army. Kyle began making wood products to fill his time and relieve anxiety, while Jessica found purpose and fulfillment in fluid art.

“It helped me find myself and deal with past traumas,” said Jessica. She has used a variety of techniques to create unique art projects and fills her days making and selling art. “It fills me with pride and encouragement.”

Originally Kyle made the frames for the unique paintings, as well as making handmade furniture, and he moved into exotic woods, making more intricate and colorful products. He also does wildlife photography.

Their products are all one-of-a-kind and handmade so there are no mass produced items.

“When you buy from us, you are supporting a veteran-owned and operated family business,” she said.

You can find this business at www.masterofnoneartistry.com and on Facebook at Master of None Artistry and Instagram at Master_of_None_Artistry.

Throughout the day people enjoyed Hors d’oevre’s, wine and cheese, and delicious meatballs provided by Beslers Cadillac Ranch and Weirzbicki Earth Moving. Santa Claus visited at 1 p.m. and Southern Meadows Photography took keepsake photos with the jolly man and the kiddos. Jan Swan Wood provided some hilarious and entertaining cowboy poetry, while Vonda Mahaffy entertained in cowboy music early in the day. Special music in the afternoon was provided by Orion and Stacey Potter. Stacey was quite an entertainer, and on the song, “Santa Baby” made her way around the packed city hall flirting with several men in the audience.

The hall was packed during auction time and the organizers were pleased with the attendance. “It was a wonderful day, and we appreciate so much all who attended,” said Laura Weirzbicki. Several items were listed for a raffle, including a carved eagle by the Dahl Brothers, a beautiful Black Hills Gold & Silver necklace and a hand-made quilt.

Sponsors of the event included First National Bank, Ron Sjodin, MJ’s Market, First Gold Gaming, High Plains Restaurant, Black Hills Rally & Gold, The Lodge, Papa Murphy’s Spearfish, Buffalo Wild Wings, Bomgaars, The Knothole, Madame Peacocks, Hickoks, Jessica Casteel, Sturgis Photo & Gifts, Premier Equipment, Kick Start, Ace Hardware, Grocery Mart, Hubbard Feed, Maars, West Tire, Dakota Mart Belle Fourche, Wendy Stone, Newell Hardware, Witch Cakes, Wierzbicki Earthmoving, Spearfish Knechts, Owl Creek Organics, Jessica & Kyle Erhart, Linda Hoffman, Newell Bar, Spearfish Auto Supply, Markus & Candy Erk, Office Emporium, Country Girls, Nisland/Arpan

(Clockwise from above) This shy little bidder, niece of Brian Baker, kept bidding till she got her Strider bike, one of the items up for auction on Saturday. The organizers. Ron Sjodin, along with his wife Vivian, who died two years ago after starting the Festival of Trees event in Newell, joins current directors Sherry Hocking and Laura Wierzbicki. He accepts a plaque to be placed on the custom-made bench he received last year. Stacey Potter had a lot of fun with the men in the audience as she shared her version of “Santa Baby” during the event on Saturday. Here Mel Remington enjoys a close up. - Brunner Photos
